UNC Folks Form New Dance Club

A University faculty dance group has oranized and will hold informal monthly dances at the Monogram Club.

Members of the Faculty Club, University Woman's Club, and Newcomer's Club are invited to join. A fee of $5 per couple will be charged for the series of dances which will be held from 9 to 12 p.m. on the second Friday of each month except December. Checks should be made out to The Faculty Club Dance Group and mailed to Dr. Stephen Baxter, 105 Saunders Bldg.

Dr. George Holcomb has taped special music for the dance series except for the final dance which will be formal and feature the music of the Jim Crisp

A Specialty of the dance group will be dance instructions provided by Robert Walker from 7:45 to 8:45 preceding each dance. There will be a small charge for the instruction, the fee depending upon the total enrollment.

The first dance will be held on October 11. The theme will be "A Happy Birthday to UNC," in recognition of the founding of the University on Oct. 12, 1793. Hostess ofr the dance will be Mrs. J. Carlyle Sitterson.

Hostesses for subsequent dances will be Mrs. oRbert Davis, Mrs. James Prothro, Mrs. Carl-Blyth, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. Joseph Sloane, and Mrs. Stephen Baxter.

AGD Scholarships Go To UNC Alumnae

Alpha Gamma Delta, International Fraternity for College Women, has recently announced the award of two of its 1963-64 graduate scholarships to alumnae of UNC and Gamma Epsilon chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta here.

Miss Anne Diehl of Charlotte will use her Founders Memorial Fund grant at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, where she is pursuing a master's degree in physical therapy.

Miss Elizabeth Spivey of Williamston will apply her scholarship as she continues her study the University School of Medicine here. A 1962 graduate of UNC, Miss Spivey was secretary of the freshman medical class last year.

at the PINES RESTAURANT

Charcoal Steak

Open Until 11 P.M. Ph. 942-2251

Flight Training ZENITH AVIATION

announces complete Aeronautical Courses leading to FAA Certificates. • MULTI-ENGINE RATING • PRIVATE PILOT

• INSTRUMENT RATING Equipment

Aircraft-CESSNA 172

Ground School SANDERSON AUDIO-VISUAL Training Aids

For Enrollment and Further Information

DIAL 942-1740

Anytime

DANCE CLUB ORGANIZED-Among the charter members of the new University Faculty Club Dance Group are, from left, Mrs. Robert M. Miller, Mrs.

Troubadour

To Appear

On Campus

dour," will present a lecture-demonstration, "The Art of the Self-Accompanied Singer," Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. in the Hill

Hall Rehearsal Hall. The general public will be admitted at 7:45 for a dollar if space is avail-

Wednesday night at 8 in Me-

will give a concert from his rep-songs of many ages. If space is available at 7:45, the general public will be admitted for a dollar. The programs are sponsored by Graham Memorial, the Southeastern Chapter of the Am-

the North Carolina Institute of

Born in England, Mr. Dyer-

Bennet grew up in California,

where he became a star soccer player, playing on the Olympic

Club Soccer team in San Francisco. At one time he was about to become a professional soccer player, but he decided to find a career in music, particularly in folk music . He studied in Sweden and gained a large repertoire of song-stories, love-ballads, robust adventure songs, exuberant sea-chanteys, and lumberjacks' and soldiers' songs.

Besides being a singer and a guitarist, Mr. Dyer-Bennet is also an entertainer. His perform-ences are sparked with humor

and touches of historical background. His songs come from many ages; among them are pieces from the little-known music of the sixtenth and sevententh

'Twentieth

Charles L. Johnston Jr., Mrs. Charles M. Shaffer, and the chairman, Mrs. J. Carlyle Sitterson.

Red Cross Plans Maternity Course

The Chapel Hill-Carrboro Chapter of the American Red Cross Richard Dyer-Bennet, the Century Troubacordially invites all expectant parents to enroll in its free course in Mother and Baby Care being offered in October. The course, designed to acquaint the parents with details of what to do before the baby comes, after the baby arrives, and during the baby's first year, morial Hall Mr. Dyer-Bennet will feature practice sessions in handling, bathing, and diapering etory of over 600 folk and art baby-sized mannikin; in preparing a sterile formula; in obtaining a correct temperature reading from an ill baby; and in many other practical aspects of baby care in which expectant parents may feel less than confierican Musicological Society and > Instructing the course and leading the discussion and practice sessions will be Mrs. James Milligan, Registered Nurse and former member of the U. S. Air Force Nurses' Corps. Mrs. Milligen has had special instruction in Mother and Baby Care and has taught the course before. She is planming to have an accredited dietician speak for part of one class session on the very important subject of nutrition for the expectant mother and her unborn

Also in the planning stage is a tour of the facilities in the hospital maternity ward. Another class session will consider the important matter of family and community health relationship and responsibility.

Classes will be hld in the Red Cross Chapter Headquarters at 211 W. Main St. in Carrboro from 7:30 to 9:30 on the evenings of Oct. 14, 16, 17, 21, 23, and 24. The course is free to all expectant mothers, fathers, and other persons concerned with dents of their knowledge and mother and baby care.

Interested persons may register in person at the Chapter House, by calling 942-4862, or by sending a postal card to Red Cross, 211 W. Main St., Carrboro. Class membership is limited to 15. Red Cross certificates will be awarded upon completion of the course.

Newcomers Club Holding Coffees

University Woman's Club will Dawes St.; Mrs. Donald Berg honor wives of new faculty members, and new faculty women at informal coffees this week. The coffees are being held to enable the women to meet other newcomers in their neighborhoods and to introduce them to the activities of the University Woman's Club, with emphasis on the Newcomer's Division.

Telephone invitations have been extended to all honorees. Those who have not been contacted should call Mrs. Layton McCurdy at 942-6755. Mrs. Mc-Curdy is social chairman of the Newcomer's Division.

Telephone invitations have been extended to all honorees. Those who have not been contacted should call Mrs. Layton McCurdy at 942-6755. Mrs. Mc-Curdy is social chairman of the Newcomers' Division.

Hostesses for the coffees are Mrs. William Pease, Northside Dr.; Mrs. Ken Lessler, Bolin Dr.; Mrs. David Hughes, 906B 757 Old Mill Rd.; Mrs. H. B. Oliver, Windsor Cr.; Mrs. Claude George, Coker Dr.; Mrs. David Brown, 46 Hayes Rd.; Mrs. W. B. Herring, 15 Woodhaven; Mrs. Mehrdad Sahba, 603 Hibbard St.; Mrs. Allen Markham, 60 Barclay Rd.; Mrs. Kenneth Reckford, 729 E. Franklin; Mrs. Sterling Hennis, 300 Plum Lane; Mrs. Lawrence Garrison, 412 E. Rosemary; Mrs. John Curtis, 311 Severin St.; Mrs. L. B. Higley, Estes Hills; Mrs. Thomas Davis, 10 Maxwell; Mrs. Kenneth Schoof, 118 Hamilton; Mrs. William Wood, Simpson St.; and Mrs. Robinson, Howell St.

IN MEDICAL SCHOOL

Hugh T. Lefler Jr. has registered for his first year in the University School of Medicine. Mr. Lefler is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Lefler of Chapel Hill. He received a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University in June of 1962.

Dance Group Will Resume Saturday

The Chapel Hill Square Dance Group will begin its seventh year of operation next Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. at Hillel House on West Cameron Avenue. Dances are held on the first Saturday evening of each month during the academic year.

All persons interested in Western or New England style square dancing are invited to oarticipate. A charge of $10 per couple is made to cover costs.

Information may be obtained by calling Beth Okun, the caller, 942-5924.

Use the Weekly's Classified Ad section for best results.

Chapel Hill

DAR Honors Members

Members transferred to or newly affiliated with Davie Poplar Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, during the past year were honored with a tea Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Rankin with Miss Mary Cobb, Mrs. R. A. Felton and Mrs. E. H. Leng as co-

Those honored were Miss Martha Jean Freeman, Mrs. J. T. Gobbel, Mrs. E. E. Lanphere and Mrs. Ira A. Ward.

A short business meeting was held during which the announcement of goals for the coming year was made by Mrs. J. B. MacLeod, Regent, presiding. A flag, which had been flown over the Capitol in Washington, was presented to the new Guy B. Phillips High School and will be displayed when a flagpole is raised. The DAR Junior American Citizens Program will continue under Mrs. R. W. Isley, Chairman, Mrs. Isley has also initiated action toward a Good Citizen Program in Chapel Hill; the consolidation of the high schools in Orange County with the influx of new youngsters from new areas prevents a program, based on comparative values, for this coming year.

Denson Of NYC Speaks At PHS

Dr. Paul Denson, New York City's deputy health commissioner in charge of research and planning will address the UNC School of Public Health's first faculty-student seminar tomorhow at 3 p.m.

Dean W. Fred Mayes will preside at the seminar, to be attended by 200 students and faculty of the Public Health School

"Problem-Centered Health Research" is the title of Dr. Denson's formal remarks. After his presentation there will be general discussion.

University Baptist Activities Today

"A New Man in an Old World" will be the sermon topic at the Reacheth Far," by Beetheven. 11 a.m. worship service at University Baptist Church today. The Chancel Choir under the direction of Mrs. William C. Burris, miniswork around the clock for you. ter of music, will sing "God So Loved the World," by Strainer, and "Welcome, Welcome, Dear Redeemer," by Franck. The baritone solo will be sung by ry E. Turlington is pastor. A snack supper is served each Sunday evening in the church dining room at 5:45 p.m. Training Union and the discussion groups for adults, college students and high school students will begin at 6:30 p.m. The college group will begin a series of discussions on the general theme "Studies in the Nature of Religious Truth." The Study for tonight will be on "Religion and Art" with Dr. John W. Dixon, UNC Department of Religion, as discussion leader. A service of Baptism will be held at the 7:45 p.m. evening worship service. The pastor will speak on "On Beginning to be a

Crawford L. Taylor Jr. Dr. Hen-

Christian." The Chapel Choir will sing "O God, Thy Goodness,

The Weekly's Classified Ads

Personalized Service MONUMENTS MARKERS

MAUSOLEUMS DURNAM MARBLE WORKS

1501 Morehead Ave. Durham, N. C. W. E. HALEY, Manager PHONE Day 489-2134 Night 489-2068

AMERICAN SCHOOLS

TRAIN YOUR PHARMACIST TO USE THE MEDICINES OF ALL THE WORLD FOR YOUR!

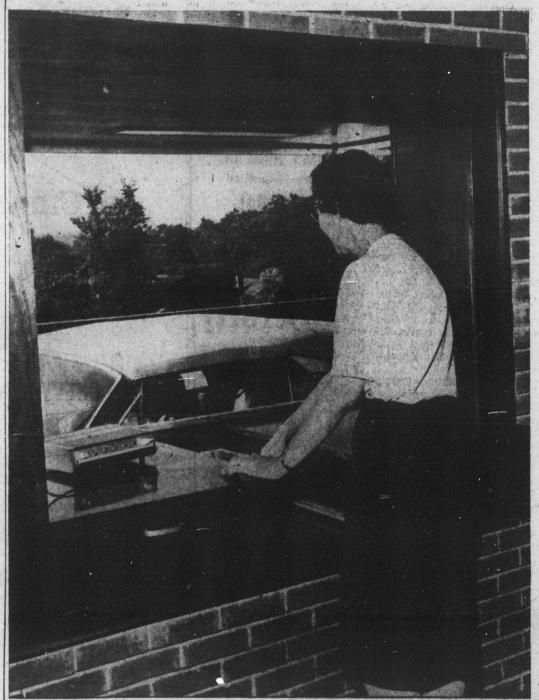

The vital ingredients of your prescriptions and medicines come from the far corners of all the world . . . pharmacist is trained in American skills and knowledge to help

Glen Lennox Pharmacy

FREE DELIVERY

Glen Lennox Shopping Center-Free Parking

good ways to earn T

DRIVE IN . . .

to save at Orange. Use Chapel Hill's FIRST savings and loan Drive - In Window (behind the new building) for fast, coureous service.

COME IN . . .

and enjoy the modern center of Chapel Hill's oldest savings and loan association. Orange offers free parking (behind the building) and a friendly greeting.

MAIL IN

your savings. Orange pays postage BOTH ways: ask for save-by-mail instructions and pre-paid envelopes, and save profitably from wherever you are!

fully insured savings now. To Buy - Build - Remodel Look First To Orange for your

OPEN your new account or add to your present

HOURS: Monday thru Thursday, 9 to 4. Fridays Until 6:00 p.m.

Serving Since 1919 as the "Center of Profitable Savings"