Matthews-Ulrich Vows Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. John Samuel Matthews of Route 1, Durham, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Kathleen, to Richard Walter Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Joseph Ulrich of Jamaica, N. Y. The double-ring ceremony was performed Sunday, Oct. 6, in the University Baptist Church by Dr. Henry E. Turlington.

Nuptial music was provided by Horace Edwards Jr. of Raleigh, soloist; and Miss Mary Alice, organist.

The bride, a long-time resident of Chapel Hill, graduated from Chapel Hill High School and attended Louisburg College. She has worked for the University here as an IBM operator.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Robert Simpson High School, Huntington, N. Y., and Long Island A & T Division of N. Y. State University. He is a customer engineer of IBM Corporation in New York City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin which featured a scooped neckline with Chantilly lace motifs re-embroidered in seed pearls. Long sleeves ended in points over the hands. The full skirt was sprinkled with lace motifs and accented with a scalloped border of lace at the hemline. She carried her prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Anne Fogleman of Chapel Hill. Matrix of honor was Mrs. H. G. Edwards Jr. of Raleigh. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Cecil W. Riley and Mrs. Barry T. Winston of Chapel Hill, sisters of the bride. The attendants wore ballerina-length dresses of honey gold faille. The bell skirts, formed by flat pleats, featured a V-waistline. Their head-dress was of matching faille with small veils. They carried baskets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Best man was Curtis Schmidt of Huntington, N. Y. Ushers were Cecil W. Riley and Barry T. Winston of Chapel Hill, and Ray Schmidt of Huntington, N. Y.

For the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a sheath dress of embroidery satin in Dior blue with matching accessories and a corsage of pink French carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a brocade sheath in forest-green with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow French carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held by the bride's parents at their home. Assisting were Mrs. W. H. Fogleman, Mrs. Louise Cowing, and Mrs. A. L. Rogers, all of Chapel Hill, and Miss Julia Weaver of Aberdeen.

For a wedding trip to Skyline Drive in Virginia, the bride wore a cranberry double-knit suit with a blouse of petal pink and matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich will make their home in Jamaica.

Miss Stinson Weds Henry G. Ruark Jr.

Miss Elinor Kay Stinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.J.H. Lennard Stinson of Vero Beach, Fla., and Henry Gibbons Ruark Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. Ruark of Rocky Mount, were married Saturday, Oct. 5, in the Chapel of the First Congregational Church in Amherst, Mass. The Rev. Deane Clark and the Rev. Mr. Ruark, father of the bridegroom, solemnized the marriage.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of ivory lace over aqua satin with a cummerbund of aqua satin. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white roses, carnations, and fresh orange blossoms brought from Florida. Joseph Collier of New York City was best man and Mrs. Collier was matron of honor.

After the ceremony, a dinner was given by the bride's parents for the members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests. Following the dinner a cake-cutting was given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glatz. Mrs. Walter Baucom, aunt of the bridegroom, poured coffee, and Mrs. Stinson, mother of the bride, served the cake.

After a trip to Belchertown, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Ruark will be at home at 73 Butterfield Terrace, Amherst, Mass. For traveling, the bride wore a three-piece charcoal suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white rose buds.

Mrs. Ruark received her A. B. degree in English from the University here in June. She is doing graduate work at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst. Mr. Ruark also was graduated from the University in June with an A. B. degree in English. He is employed at the Lord Jeffrey Inn in Amherst. He plans to continue his studies next year.

A rehearsal was given by the bridegroom's parents in Northampton on the eve of the wedding for the wedding party and out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stinson, Vero Beach; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ruark, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Walter Baucom, Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Crutchfield, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Collier, New York City.

Profitable Feast At Holy Family

The Church of the Holy Family had another highly successful barbecue last week. An early count indicates a net profit to the church of between $1,000 and $1,200.

Approximately 200 members of the church participated in the sale of over 2,000 tickets.

Eighteen persons served as team captains for the barbecue: Mrs. Joan O'Brien, Mrs. Jeanne Hudson, Mrs. Anne Payne, Mrs. James King, Sam Boone, Dr. Robert H. Wagner, Dr. John I. Boswell, Mrs. Albert Jowdy, Mrs. John Cox, Ed Robertson, Mrs. Roy Holsten, Mrs. Sam Taylor, Mrs. John Sotter, Dr. Robert D. Langdell, Mrs. Philip McMullen, Mrs. Robert Varley, Mrs. W. C. Satterfield, and Dr. Henry C. Thomas.

The entire profit from the sale of the tickets will be used for missionary work, possibly to start work on a new Episcopal Church in the Durham-Chapel Hill area.

Approximately 200 persons were served at the Church. Mrs. Robert Langdell and Mrs. Sotter handled the arrangements for the meals there.

Jim Harper served as Chairman for the 1963 barbecue and Mrs. Harper was chairman of ticket sales.

STAFF WIVES MEETING

The House Staff Wives will meet on Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. in the auditorium of the Institute of Government. The guest speaker, Dr. George Spooner, will speak on civil defense as related to the doctor's wife. Slides will be shown.
