

Sermon Announced For United Church

The Rev. DeWitt Myers, Jr., will deliver a sermon on "What's Four Thousand Italians — More or Less?" at the 11 a.m. service at United Church, 211 W. Cameron Ave.

The choir, under the direction of Lynn Ikenberry, new director of music, will sing "Go Not Far From Me, O God!" by Zingarelli. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Warren Morris at the organ.

The children of the first four grades will withdraw to Fellowship Hall after the Children's Sermon which precedes the regular service. Through the medium of films, games, and handicraft, they will "visit" Japan each Sunday during October.

The program is directed by Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Hollingsworth. Sunday School classes for all ages are held at 10 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. The Young Adult Class, under the leadership of Dr. C. David Jenkins, will discuss the sermon of the previous Sunday as presented in outline form by the minister at the class meeting each week.

Visitors are welcome at all services of the church. Nursery and kindergarten facilities are available during the church hour.

Kay Bishop, and Mrs. Carolyn Daniel, all delegates to the NEA convention in Detroit last summer; and School Superintendent Howard Thompson. The "U. S. S. North Carolina" hats were worn by delegates in Detroit as part of Miss Edinger's campaign for election as president.

Rec Program Funds Are Appropriated

The Executive Committee of the Chapel Hill Community Council voted unanimously Thursday night to appropriate between $2941 and $3420 to the Recreation Commission.

The Committee recently hesitated to give the Recreation Commission this formerly promised final payment from its 1963 Chest collections.

The recent success of the Recreation tax referendum had led the Executive Committee to believe the Recreation Commission would no longer need its final Chest payment. Robert Midgette, Community Chest Council chairman, said the committee had planned to distribute the promised donation among other agencies instead of giving it to the Commission.

But Town Manager Robert Peck, speaking for the Recreation Commission, said the Commission had included the promised allocation in its 1963-64 budget.

"If the money is not appropriated to the Recreation Commission it will mean cutting into the budget," said Mr. Peck, "and we

University Baptist's Activities Today

"To hear or Not to Hear" is the sermon to be preached today at the 11 a.m. Worship Service of University Baptist Church. Sharing the pulpit with the pastor, Dr. Henry E. Turlington, will be Miss Betsy McIntosh of West Palm Beach, Fla. Miss McIntosh, a student in the University, was a summer missionary to Chile under the BSU-sponsored LISTEN program.

Mrs. W. C. Burris, minister of music, will lead the choir in singing "The Heavens Are Telling" by Beethoven, and "Turn Thy Face from My Sins" by Sullivan. Mrs. Crawford L. Taylor Jr. is organ accompanist.

Dr. W. D. White of the Department of Religion, Duke University, will lead the discussion at the Student Forum. Continuing their series on "Studies in the Nature of Religious Truth," Dr. White will speak on "Religious Literature." The Adult Discussion Group has chosen as its topic, "The Rise of Baptists in England."

The evening worship service will begin at 7:45 p.m.

Rose Society Meets Tuesday

Mrs. H. R. Totten, program chairman, announces that the Chapel Hill Rose Society will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the lounge of Home Savings and Loan Association.

Dr. Gertrude Willis, president, will report on "Proof of the Pudding" as compiled by members of the society regarding the best rose varieties to grow in Chapel Hill.

Visitors are welcome. They and members are invited to bring a specimen rose. The rose should be brought in a Coca-Cola bottle and labeled with name of its variety and its owner.

Mrs. Totten has invited Joseph Richert of Raleigh to be the program speaker. Mr. Richert is the Carolinas representative on the board of Directors of the American Rose Society. He will bring an interesting report of the recent annual convention of the American Rose Society.

Refreshments and social hour will end the meeting.
