Frank P. Graham PTA Has Meeting

The Frank Porter Graham Elementary School PTA held its first meeting recently in the school cafeteria. Many parents and friends were present.

Following the call to order by the president, Mrs. Inez Minor, Mr. W. W. Edmonds, principal, stressed the importance of the grading system and the children using time wisely for studying. Mr. Edmonds also introduced the new teachers.

An anticipated budget of $700 was given by the president. From this budget the PTA plans to accomplish the following: (a) furnish for the lobby (b) improvement of the school lawn (c) secure patrol outfits (d) provide expenses for educational field trips.

The PTA membership drive started at the meeting and will end at the next meeting.

The next PTA meeting will be held Thursday, November 15, in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. The first half hour will be used for parent-teacher conferences.

ON DISPLAY — The 1964 SAAB from Sweden is now on display at Imported Cars, Ltd. The new SAAB's are available in the sedan and station wagon models with 3 and 4 speed transmission. The 64 model is basically unchanged from last year's except for several detailed improvements which make the '64 SAAB even more attractive and unique among imports. Imported Cars, Ltd., will be holding open house all this week and will be open until 9:00 p.m. on Friday night. There will be a drawing Friday for a door prize. Register any time during the week.

Peck, Wyche Hurt In Auto Accident

Two UNC students, one of them the son of Chapel Hill Town Manager Robert Peck, were injured when the car in which they were riding turned over just this side of Cary Saturday night.

James Robert Peck, 21, is in fair condition at Memorial Hospital after losing an eye and suffering brain damage and broken bones when thrown from the car.

Benjamin Wyche IV of Charlotte suffered a leg injury but was not hospitalized.

Highway Patrolman C. N. Spain said Mr. Peck was driving west on NC 54 about half a mile west of the Cary town limits when the car left the highway and overturned.

Mr. Peck was first taken to Rex Hospital for emergency treatment, then was transferred to Memorial Hospital here.

Trooper Spain said ambulance attendants told him Mr. Wyche was wearing a seat belt, but that Mr. Peck was not.

AT ADA MEET

Miss Margaret Hambricht and Miss Linda Smith of Memorial Hospital recently attended the American Dietetic Association meeting in Philadelphia.

Thomas R. Harward Funeral Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow for Thomas Rufin Harward, who died yesterday afternoon in Watts Hospital in Durham. Mr. Harward had been in declining health for several years, in critical condition for two weeks. He was 85.

The services will be conducted in Walker's Funeral Home Chapel by the Rev. Henry Turlington.

AT SMITH MEETING

Herbert L. Bodman, Jr., of Chapel Hill, attended the annual meeting last week of the Board of Counselors of Smith College, a group of 25 distinguished men and women who advise the college in various fields.
