Carrboro Board To Meet Tuesday

The Carrboro Board of Commissioners will consider recommendations from the Carrboro Planning Board on two rezoning requests at its meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 in the Town Hall.

The two rezoning requests were presented at a public hearing last Tuesday. The Rev. Rudy Hardee requested rezoning of a lot beside the Calvary Missionary Baptist Church on NC 54 from Agricultural to RA-10; and William T. Durham requested rezoning of a Jones Ferry Road lot from residential to industrial.

The Commissioners will receive the Planners' recommendations on the two requests before Tuesday night's meeting, and will take action Tuesday night. In other business the Commissioners will: -Receive official word that a sewer line from Lincoln High School to Fidelity Street has been completed and is ready to be tapped. Property owners -Hear a request from Fisher and Fisher Realty for rezoning a Carr Street lot from residential to business. The lot is behind the Senter Drug Store business block in downtown Carrboro.

-Hear a request from John Allen Cates for paving the Sparrow's Pool Road.

-Receive official notification that Cheek Street, Sue Ann Court, and the part of Hanna Street inside the Town Limits have been paved. Sue Ann Court has also been curbed and guttered.

-Hear a request for issuance of a beer permit for the Dash Service Station at the corner of West Rosemary and Main Streets.

All agreed that there was no moral justification for segregation. However, there was some disagreement over the use of economic pressure and civil disobedience to achieve integra-

"I can truly say that eco-nomic pressure works," said Mr. Caldwell. "In 1962 we boycotted two businesses and in less than a month they admitted their income dropped. We went back and they probably had more business from us than ever before. I think a boycott starts a man thinking not only from his pocketbook but from his heart."

"In most cases it is a case of embarrassment here, not so much the boycott itself," said Mr Shumaker, "This summer proved this fact of be true. You know perfectly well there is one restaurant owner in town who maintains segregation and will keep maintaining it no matter how much or how long you boycott. He cannot be hurt financially and he would plow his establishment under before he would integrate."
