

OBSTACLE — This Volkswagen shown in the middle of the sidewalk on downtown Franklin Street, jumped a curb yesterday afternoon when its brakes failed. Henry Odell Beck, a UNC student from Morganton, was pulling into a parking place when the car jumped the curb, bumped into the Campus Laundry and Cleaners building and dented a fender. One pedestrian, William P. Braxton Jr., an employee of University Service Plants, was brushed by the car. He received slight elbow and back bruises.

10 UNC Players To Wind Up Careers

By BOB QUINCY

The North Carolina seniors, including the starting ends and the starting tackles, will be seeing Duke for the final time when the two arch rivals meet at Duke Stadium tomorrow.

"We have every reason to play hard and eager football," said end John Hammett, a three-year starter from Concord. "This is the the big game for us and we'll give it all we have."

Among other starters in the forward wall who will graduate are tackles Cole Kortner and Vic Esposito, end Bob Lacey and guard Jerry Cabe.

Lacey, an All-America, has caught 94 passes during his three years with the Tar Heels. Cabe, who came into his own this year and has been a superlative blocker, is captain of this season's wrestling team.

Jim Alderman, who at times has started games at tackle and guard for UNC, will also bow out.

"We're losing some outstanding men," said Coach Jim Hickey. "Our tackles have been a mainstay of our attack all season. Kortner, Esposito and Co-captain Gene Sigmon have played up to the standards of any tackles in modern times here."

In the backfield, only quarterback Junior Edge is a senior among the active players. Co-captain Roger Smith, who suffered a hand injury at mid-season, will dress but will not see action against Duke.

"Our success this year has been greatly due to fine leadership from the senior members of the squad," said Hickey. "Each one has given a little extra for the cause. This morale factor is a key to any club's performance."

Edge has turned in a brilliant season for the Tar Heels and currently leads the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense. His completions in the Miami game set a new pass completion record for Carolina.

A packed stadium is expected to view the game between the Blue Devils and Tar Heels. Carolina seniors look back on the past two years and admit they seek revenge. Duke won by scores of 6-3 and 16-14, with the margin of victory being decided by field goals in both instances.

Remember last fall's thriller, played at Kenan Stadium? The score was Carolina 14, Duke 13 and only 47 seconds remained. Then the bubble

Christmas Dance Set December 7

The Newcomers' Christmas Dance, sponsored by the University Woman's Club, Newcomer's Division, will be held Saturday, Dec. 7, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the University Faculty Club. There will be refreshments, door prizes, and music by the Music Makers from Durham.

burst. Bill Reynolds, a Duke kicking specialist, sent the ball through the uprights for three points—and a 16-14 victory for the Blue Devils. Passes from Junior Edge to Roger Smith and Bob Lacey had meant scores for Carolina. Dave Braine kicked two extra points.

Duke got the bulk of its scoring from Reynolds, who kicked three field goals all told. The Blue Devils made their lone touchdown on a six-yard run by Billy Futrell. Without doubt, the game was the best effort by Carolina all season. A fumble provided Duke with the final scoring situation. Turnout was 40,000 and the game was played in perfect weather. Reynolds, a senior, had provided the Duke answer: the year before when his brace of field goals meant a 6-3 decision
