

Rosa Weinstein Lectures To Be Delivered Dec. 15-16

The Rosa B. Weinstein Memorial Lectures will be delivered this year by Rabbi Eugene B. Borowitz, professor of education at the New York School of Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion.

"Faith and Reason" is the theme of the talks, which will be delivered Sunday and Monday, Dec. 15 and 16, at 8 p.m. in Howell Hall Auditorium on the University campus. Rabbi Borowitz is also a lecturer in Jewish religious thought at the Hebrew Union College, adjunct professor of religion at Temple University in Philadelphia, a weekly lecturer at the Young Men and Women's Hebrew Association, and editorial adviser and educational consultant to Behrman House, America's largest independent publishing house.

Dr. Borowitz is closely associated with youth and educational programs of the Reform Jewish movement and is the creator of the National Leadership Institute and the National Kallah (study retreat) programs of the National Federation of Temple Youth (NFTY). Dr. Borowitz represented NFTY at the founding convention of the Youth section of World Union for Progressive Judaism.

A delegate to the 1960 White House Conference on Youth, Rabbi Borowitz also served as a member of the American and the International Planning Committees for the 1962 World Conference on Jewish Education.

Rabbi Borowitz received his bachelor's degree from Ohio State University and was ordained by the Hebrew Union College. He holds two doctorates, one from the Hebrew Union College and the other from Columbia University.
