Sorrow struck our community this past week when death claimed the six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Carter. He was the first and only child of the young couple, and died within a few hours after being stricken with a virus. His funeral was held Sunday at the Calvary Missionary Baptist Church with Rev. Rudy Hardee and Rev. William Cole in charge of the service. He was buried in Antioch Baptist Church Cemetery, Rt. 1, Chapel Hill. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the young parents, grandparents and other relatives on the sudden loss.

On Wednesday evening the Carrboro Baptist Church held its Sunday School Christmas program with the young people's choirs participating. On Christmas Eve Night a prayer service will be held as a special Christmas service.

W. L. Mullinax of Weaverville is as active as a young man. He is the grandfather of Mrs. Donald R. White, whose husband is a 1961 graduate of UNC. Mr. and Mrs. White were residents here for four years prior to his graduation. During that time, Mr. Mullinax visited the Whites, and liked the looks of this part of the State; so returned for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jones, friends of many years. While here he was shown the local sights of tobacco factories, Universities, etc. Though 95, Mr.

Mullinax uses glasses only when reading, and he reads the Bible daily; and when weather permits, he walks a mile or more each day. He eats a hearty breakfast and lunch, but a light supper, retires early and rises early. Asked the reason for his longevity, he said, "living as near right as possible for the Lord." J. O. Spinks Jr. is home for the holidays from Ft. Campbell, Ky.
