

Jackson-Corr Vows Are Exchanged

Miss Sarah Jane Jackson of Chapel Hill and Christopher Joseph Corr of Phoenix, Arizona, were married Saturday at noon in St. Thomas More Chapel. The Rev. Francis J. Murphy officiated. Mrs. Paul Obrist of Chapel Hill was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Osborne Jackson of Chapel Hill and the late Mr. Jackson. She is a graduate of Chapel Hill High School and Chapel Hill Town Classes Business College. Until Nov. 30, she was employed at Ted Bates and Co., Inc. in New York City.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Edward Corr of Bronxville, N. Y. He is a graduate of Bronxville High School and the University here. He is an account executive with KTVK television station in Phoenix, Ariz.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Richard Owen Jackson of Chapel Hill. She wore a wedding gown of candlelight peau de soie with a chapel train applied in Alencon lace. The bustle in the back was centered with two roses of peau de soie. She wore the wedding pearls of her aunt, Mrs. R. Reid Jackson. Her bouquet was a cascade of cream roses and orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Josephine Anne Jackson, sister of the bride, who wore a street-length gown of pink velveteen fashioned with a scoop neckline and a bell-shaped skirt. Her headpiece was a pink velveteen rose with pink veiling attached.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Jackson of Chapel Hill, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Nancy Bozarth of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Leonard Beck of St. Pauls, and Miss Julianna Moss of New York City. Their gowns and headpieces were of burgundy velveteen. They carried bouquets of pink roses.

Best man was Dr. Joseph Edward Corr, father of the bridegroom. Ushers were Fitzhugh Lee Corr of New Rochelle, N. Y., brother of the bridegroom; Donald M. Rothrock of Roanoke, Va.; Richard Bird of Winston-Salem; and Bob McLean of Bronxville, N. Y. They wore formal morning dress.

For the wedding ceremony, the bride's mother wore a street-length dress of beige and gold brocade with gold accessories. Her corsage was of green baby orchids.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held in the Hill Room at the Carolina Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Corr will make their home at 4445 North 36th St. in Phoenix.

Hayes-Sayers Vows Are Exchanged

Nuptial vows were exchanged Saturday afternoon in the Chapel of the Cross by Miss Elizabeth Hayes of Chapel Hill and William Floyd Sayers Jr. of Gastonia. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas R. Thrasher.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hughes Hayes of Chapel Hill and William Hayes of Hillsboro. She is a graduate of the University and a member of Delta Delta Delta.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Floyd Sayers of Gastonia and the late Mr. Sayers. He is a graduate of the University and a third-year medical student at the School of Medicine here.

For the ceremony, the church was decorated with white poinsettias. Organ music was presented by Jerrold Baab.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Albert W. Hughes, the bride wore a gown of white satin with a scalloped bodice applied with Alencon lace. The three-quarter sleeves were trimmed with lace and a bow at the elbow. The midriff of the princess gown was made of lace. Lace was applied down the front of the skirt at each side and encircled the chapel train. The bride's veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of roses and phalaenopsis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bobby Caviness of Pittsburgh, Pa., who wore a sheath dress of emerald green satin. The flared tunic over-skirt was accented at the front waistline by a flat bow. Her headpiece was a matching wedding ring circle with a circle-veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lynda Ward of Virginia Beach, Miss Harriet Cox of Atlanta, and Miss Tucker Walker of Norfolk, Va. Their gowns were like that of the honor attendant.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, Donald Sayers of Gastonia. Ushers were Robert Vernon Fulk of Wilmington, John Shinn of China Grove, Stephen Hughes of Auburn, Me., cousin of the bride; David Grigg of Durham, Tom Ebird and Russell Rice of Gastonia.

For the wedding ceremony, the bride's mother chose a soft gold silk alpaca dress. Her flowers were cymbidium. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of green peau de soie with a lace bodice. Her flowers were also cymbidium.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at Graham Memorial by the bride's mother.

For a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va., the bride wore a cranberry dress with matching Chanel jacket and black accessories. Her corsage was of phalaenopsis lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Sayers will make their home here at 109 Maxwell Road.
