A Vote of Thanks. The M. P. Sunday School last Sunday tendered the following vote of thanks with request that same be published through the columns of THE SENTINEL:

We, the members of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School, of Winston, do hereby express our appreciation to the citizens of Winston-Salem, who so kindly furnished their teams (without charge) to convey the school and from their recent picnic, and all citizens who aided in making the occasion a success—assuring each of these that the school heartily appreciates the many courtesies rendered.

A Creditable Entertainment. The musical and elocutionary entertainment given at the Opera House last Thursday night was largely attended by our people and with a grand success. Prof. Houston, as Elocutionist, proved himself a master of his profession and received numerous compliments from an attentive and appreciative audience. The musical part of the program, which was furnished by the Salem Orchestra, likewise came in for its share of favorable comment, maintaining throughout their reputation as amateur musicians of the first grade. Our people feel proud, and justly so, of the Salem Orchestra, which never fails to render the best of music.

A Colored Centenary. Our neighbor, the Daily, learns of an old colored man near Sedge Garden, about nine miles north of Winston, by the name of Frank Mathews, who is 102 years of age, and who furthermore can prove by good authority that he is the father of 75 children, a majority of whom are still living. He is all of 150 grandchildren, and 90 great grandchildren. It is said that Frank was somewhat of a Brigham Young before the war, as there were no legal marriages recognized among the colored people at that time. Frank remembers seeing Gen. George Washington when he was a young boy, here and there at the old Salem hotel. We could add that Alex. Gates, the barber, married one of the 75 children, with whom he is now living.
