LETTER FROM OUR WASHINGTON

The "Third Party" Feelings-Gossip Around the National Capital-Other Interesting News.

[Special Correspondence to THE SENTINEL.] WASHINGTON, May 25.-The fight Democratic House of Representa-tives has really begun, and the vari-ous candidates and their friends are frequently seen here on the streets. The favorite Southern candidate is Judge Crisp, of Georgia. Roger Q. Mills is regarded as unavailable by the more conservative and practical Democratic politicians. Hon. Wm. L. Wilson, the gifted young member from West Virginia, is considered one of the strongest "dark horses" in the race. The able member from the Forsyth District, Hon. A. H. A. Williams, is too clever a man and too astute a politician to commit himself to any one until after Congress assembles and the party caucus acts. Then 'Baldy' Williams can be depended on to do what is wisest for his State and constituents. He has few superiors among his col-
