WILL REDRICK IN TROUBLE. Charged With Stealing Two Horses and a Buggy.

William Hedrick, son of Mr. Alfred Hedrick, of Abbott's Creek, this county, is in trouble.

THE SENTINEL'S correspondent at Michael, Davidson county, writes that young Hedrick left home about one year ago. He returned a few weeks ago with a horse and buggy, which he said he had bought in Tennessee. He sent a woman, whom he calls his wife, freight train between Winston and on ahead of him on the train. A few Roanoke, received an ugly wound on days after he arrived home a telegram who had hired two horses and a buggy from a livery stable in Tennessee claiming that they only wanted, to drive out in the country about nine miles. Instead of returning the animals they came to North Carolina as above stated. There was a reward of $75 for the thief and horses. The decription fitted Will Hedrick and wife (as he calls her) and a warrant for his arrest on suspicion was placed n the hands of Deputy Sheriff Fritts. Hedrick suspected something and gave the officer the dodge. Fritts summoned aid and pursued him. Hedick went to his father's and when the leputy sheriff and his men came to ook for him his father refused to let them in his house, threatening to shoot the first man who attempted t enter. Sheriff Fritts got a search warrant and went in. He found Hedrick concealed under the floor. He was taken to Lexington and lodged in jail to await the coming of the owner of the horses to see if he is the right

A Man Traveling From Mexico to New York on a Single Horse. From the Salisbury Herald,

Last Christmas morning bright and early, in the city of Chichauhau, Mexico, G. J. Rittenhouse mounted his blooded steed and started for New York City with no companion but his horse. He passed the Eagle Pass, a very dangerous place, and reached San Antonia, Texas, in safety. Since then he has had no fear of robbers or outlaws. He came via Birmingham Ala., Rome, Ga., Murphy, Asheville, Hickory and arrived in Salisbury Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock spending the night at the Central. He has been making an average of 32 miles a day, sometimes traveling 60 and again falling to 25. The Vanderbuilt Mansion, at Biltmore, was taken in by Mr. Rittenhouse by going con-siderably out of his way. He said it was the grandest thing he had ran
