THE GREAT VICTORY.

STUNNED AND DEMORALIZED THE SPANIARDS.
The Advantages Were on the Side of the Spanish, but the Steady Fire of Americans Surprised Them and Drove Them Back.

MANILA, Aug. 15, via HONG KONG, Aug. 10.—The Spaniards were stunned and demoralized by the great victory won by the Americans against such overwhelming odds on the night of July 31st. According to reports brought by refugees, all the advantages were so clearly on the side of the Spanish that the soldiers and residents before the general advance on the Spanish side of the Americans into the sea.

DAY'S RESIGNATION.
Said to be a Settled Fact—John Hay to Succeed Him.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The fact is established beyond doubt that Secretary of State Day is to resign immediately after the meetings in Paris of the conference which have been completed. It is stated on the highest authority that his successor will be John Hay, the present Ambassador to England.

Secretary Lewis at Jacksonville.
Secretary A. W. Hicks, of the Y. C. A. A., received a letter from State Secretary Lewis, who is now in camp at Jacksonville, in the vicinity of the station work here. He writes that John George, who is in the line of work here, has been offered to the man eating the most melon. Three have already entered the contest. O. B. Eaton, "Philly Ham" and "Clingman." Mr. Jones says he does not expect any more contestants since his friend Clingman has entered the race. His reputation as a watermelon eater is too well known.

Go to Port Royal, S. C.
Mr. M. C. Patterson, who has for several years held a situation with Salem Iron Works, has accepted a position with the shops of the United States Naval station, at Port Royal, S. C. He will be detailed to the construction and repair department. Mr. Patterson left last week Wednesday for Durham to spend a day with his father before going to Port Royal.

Suicide at Wilson.
Samuel Watson, of Wilson, a worthy man, took his own life Monday night, August 8, by swallowing strychnine. Monday he worked all day in the site of a new building, and in the afternoon he remarked to a friend who had been working with him: "You can't get back to work tomorrow, but you will not find me here; I shall be in another world."

Killed by a Melon Seed.
The Clinton Democrat says the five-year-old son of Mr. John Sessoms, of Sampson county, got a watermelon seed in his windpipe and died from the effects of it. An attempt was made to remove the seed, but it could not be definitely located. The boy was recovering from a spell of the fever and was quite weak.

To Camp in Western North Carolina.
Major Mills, of the Inspector General's department, has been ordered to inspect the tract of land in the vicinity of Tryon, N. C., for the purpose of ascertaining its suitability for the establishment of an army encampment. The tract is in the hands of a prominent citizen of the county. Some of the troops now in Florida will go into camp there.

FIGHT IN PORTO RICO—AMERICANS DROVE SPANISH BEFORE THEM.

The Enemy Was Three Thousand Strong and Made a Stubborn Resistance—The Spanish Loss is Thought to be Heavy.

PONCE, Aug. 11.—The contemplated flank movement by the Second Wisconsin against the Spanish at Abito has been abandoned by order of General Miles. Officers here believe the Spanish would not stand up to the stubborn resistance. The Americans might well, driving the Spanish before them, have taken a few more men killed; Lieutenant Bryan and fourteen others were wounded. The Spanish loss is believed to have been heavy. It is estimated that twenty were killed and sixty wounded in the fight at Coamo.
