LETTERS FOR CERVERA

SPANISH OFFICERS MISTAKEN FOR ADMIRAL.
A Vessel Carrying Spaniards Released at Portsmouth, N. H., Arrives in Spain—Captain Eulate Refuses to Make Statement.

SANTANDER, Spain, Sept. 21.—A vessel of the Anchor Line of Rome, chartered by Cervera to transport to Spain the Spanish sailors captured at the battle of Santiago and recently released at Portsmouth, N. H., arrived here today. Captain Eulate and several Spanish naval officers landed and were taken for Cervera. Eulate loudly cheered. Captain Eulate refused to make a statement, declaring he reserved what he had to say for a court-martial.

SPANISH INSTRUCTIONS

To Her Peace Commissioners Are Volun-
MADRID, Sept. 21.—The instructions given the Paris Peace Commission are voluminous. It is learned they recapitulate the negotiations between Spain and the United States preceding the war, fix the conditions of Cuba's independence, and the rights of Spain, reserving her rights in regard to public and private property in the Antilles. The instructions regarding the Philippines are treated so as to meet every hypothesis, leaving room for free criticism on the part of the Commissioners.

EN ROUTE TO SPAIN.

Vessels Conveying Spaniards from Porto Rico to Cuba.
SAN JUAN, Sept. 21.—The French steamer Chateau arrived from Havana this morning and took aboard two hundred sick soldiers and two hundred engineers and sailed this evening for Spain. The Spanish steamer San Francisco arrived this morning from Guantanamo with the Caimanera garrison. She was flying the yellow flag and was quarantined at the wharf. A battalion of Prince De Asturias' infantry of eight hundred men.

LAST WEEK'S STORM.

Big Washout on the Wilkesboro Road—River Ragging—Wires Down—Damage to Crops.
The rain came down in torrents Thursday night. It was a veritable "gully washer." Some damage was done to several streets. There was a big washout at the 95 mile post on the Wilkesboro road. A work train was sent from Greensboro to repair the damage. It passed through Winston at 3 o'clock Friday morning. There was another big washout on the main line of the Southern, near Danville. A special train was sent to the scene, and required a car load of rock to repair the damage.

HIGHEST EVER KNOWN.

The passengers who went up on the Wilkesboro train were stopped at Donahua on account of the washout. An engine was attached to a coach and the passengers brought back to Winston, arriving here at 1 o'clock.
Mr. Hinshaw says the river was 51 feet higher than ever known at Shoals, being 15 feet above low water mark. It is 20 feet above Donahua. At Siloam it was 4 feet over the railroad track and trestle. The damage done to crops is incalculable.

To Become a Part of Southern.

The Washington Star says it is in a position to state that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has not passed to the control of Messrs. Philip D. Armour, Marshall Field, and Norman Ream of Chicago. There are reports that the Baltimore and Ohio road gets out of the hands of receivers it will be controlled by J. P. Morgan & Co., and practically all not nominally incorporated in a great system, of which the Southern will form a part, than that it is to become the property of Western men referred to. These statements are made on the authority of a banker, who with two or three other leading men of Baltimore, represents holdings amounting to $10,000,000 par value in the Baltimore and Ohio Company.

What Rev. Mr. Page Says.

Rev. Jesse H. Page, who was a resident of Winston several years ago and pastor of the Methodist Protestant church here, is on a visit to Dr. E. L. Murphy at Morganton, where he preached there Sunday night. In his Sunday morning sermon Mr. Page said that he had no apologies to offer, and by the help of the Lord, would keep on preaching the doctrine of white supremacy to the end.

Attended His Nephew's Funeral.

Rev. Dr. F. H. Wood returned on Sept. 21 from Old Trinity, Randolph county. His nephew, Louis has, who died in Jacksonville Sept. 18, was buried at Trinity on Tuesday. He was a member of the Reidville company and died at the age of 25 years. He was not married. Dr. Wood says the body was embalmed and nicely prepared for burial before it left Jacksonville.

Protracted Meeting at First Baptist.

Rev. Dr. Brown, the pastor, will begin a protracted meeting at the First Baptist church on the Second Sunday in October. He will be assisted by Rev. Dr. Nelson, an able Baptist divine of Macon, Ga. It will be remembered that Dr. Nelson conducted a successful meeting here ten or twelve years ago.

More Soldiers Arrive.

Messrs. John Dalton, Arthur Thomas, McAdan and Mr. Bodenhamer, members of the Second North Carolina Regiment, arrived home last week. They came from Raleigh to Greensboro on a special train. There were about 700 soldiers aboard going to their respective homes on foot-locks.

LOATH TO LEAVE CUBA

SPAIN WANTS TO STAY UNTIL FEBRUARY.

The Request for Extension of Time Refused and U. S. Commissioners Instructed to Hasten Departure of the Spanish Forces.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The request of the Spanish authorities for extension of time to February 28th as a limit for the evacuation of Cuba, has been refused and the U. S. Commissioners have been instructed to use their best efforts to hasten the departure of the Spanish forces.

EVENING EDUCATIONAL CLASSES.

At the Y. M. C. A. During the Winter Season.
Plans are being formulated for evening educational classes at the Y. M. C. A. for its members during the winter season. This is a very important work, which is greatly needed and should be encouraged. The courses of studies will be such as will be of practical benefit to the young men who pursue them faithfully. The following are the proposed studies: Arithmetic, advanced; Bookkeeping; Civil and Municipal Government; English Grammar and composition; Penmanship, shorthand, Spanish Language. These are mentioned in order to give some idea of what may be offered. The tuition will be a nominal fee, to cover the actual cost. Before the classes can be offered the Association will have to secure competent teachers for each department. Other studies than the above mentioned are desired parties interested should confer with the Secretary or Mr. E. E. Graham, chairman of the Educational Committee. It is probable that other studies will be added.

That Awful Gun.

A story comes from Allegheny county, by the way of the trans-Montana telephone, to the effect that Dee Davis, of Box Mountain fame, had to follow a general Creed Stamper's awful gun a few days ago. It came about in this way: Dee made the remark that all the insurgents who were opposed to Linney's return to Congress were a set of d— Democrats. General Creed stepped up and gave the expression the lie, whereupon Davis followed a general Creed Stamper's awful gun a few days ago. It came about in this way: Dee made the remark that all the insurgents who were opposed to Linney's return to Congress were a set of d— Democrats. General Creed stepped up and gave the expression the lie, whereupon Davis followed a general Creed Stamper's awful gun a few days ago. What Drummond Says.

President Harrison J. Drummond, of the Drummond Tobacco Company, is quoted as saying regarding the reported tobacco deal, published in yesterday's SENTINEL:
"I have denied in every way possible that I have given any opinion on this plan or have agreed to enter any combine, but I have never said that I would not sell if enough money is offered for the plant. The other manufacturers know my position well, and whenever they raise the cash they can have this plant."

Have They Joined the Trust?

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—It is reported in tobacco circles here, that the immense tobacco plant of Daniel Scotten & Co., has been consolidated into the Continental Tobacco Company and the American Tobacco Company, which respectively control the plug tobacco and cigarette trade. Green Scotten, manager of the company, is at present out of the city, and there fore verification is impossible. The Scotten Company is a large producer of plug and fine cut chewing tobacco, and lately added to its plant a cigarette branch.

Mrs. Bagley in Washington.

Mrs. Adelaide Worth Bagley, of Raleigh, mother of the late Ensign Worth Bagley, who was killed on the torpedo Winslow, is visiting here in the Continental Hotel. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss McKimley, who is a member of the bill creating five additional vacancies shall have passed the House. It has already passed the Senate.

Death of Dr. Jewett's Mother.

Mrs. Lucy A. Jewett, mother of Dr. R. D. Jewett, of this city, died September 10, at the home of her son-in-law, Rev. Edward Wooten, in Wilmington. She had been in ill health for quite a while, and her death, while a surprise to relatives and friends, was not wholly unexpected. The deceased, a most estimable lady, was in the 80th year of her age, and leaves six children—five sons and one daughter.

Soldiers Going Home.

Twelve soldiers, members of the Second Regiment, came in from Raleigh September 21. They left for their respective homes in Wilkes and adjoining counties. W. L. Daniel, of Danville, was a member of the party. He went home that night. He is 53 years old and says that he proposes to join the First Regiment when he is mustered out of service. One of his sons is a member of the First.

The Confederate Veterans of Davidson county had a big dinner at Lexington Tuesday. The address was delivered by Hon. C. B. Watson, of Winston. The committee had arranged for a big dinner and a successful gathering it was generally.

Circus Coming.

So far only one circus is headed towards this country. It is Forepaugh and Sells Brothers, which is booked to be at Charlotte on the 2nd of November. It will exhibit in Roanoke next Tuesday.

REPLY TO QUERIES.

PRESIDENT SOUTHGATE

MAKES A STATEMENT.

Mr. Duke Set Aside for the Benefit of Trinity College 910 Shares Preferred Stock of American Tobacco Company—College Receives Dividends.

The following letter, received on Saturday, from the President of the Board of Trustees of Trinity College, explains itself:

DURHAM, N. C., Sept. 23rd, 1898.

MR. J. B. WHITAKER, JR., Editor Winston Sentinel, Winston, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—Your letter 24th inst., duly received. You are mistaken in stating that I declined to answer your enquiries. Having stated your purpose in seeking the information as indicated in my respects of the 17th inst., I have sought and obtained authority from the Executive Committee of the Board to comply with your request, and now beg to say that in November, 1897, Mr. Washington Duke set aside for the benefit of Trinity College $100,000 of his property consisting of 910 shares of the preferred stock in the American Tobacco Company by causing them to be placed in the hands of a Trustee, viz.: the Fidelity Bank of Durham, N. C., under the conditions that the investment should be controlled by him or his son, Mr. B. N. Duke, during his life time, and at his death by Mr. B. N. Duke, if alive, and after their deaths by the Trustees of Trinity College. The College now receives only the dividends from this stock and the Trustees could neither sell nor transfer it if they would. I am informed that this stock has not been sold and feel satisfied that it will not be unless a change in the investment should commend itself to the business judgment of those who now control it. The College has not owned nor does it now own nor has it sold any stock in the American Tobacco Company or W. Duke Sons & Company other than what is above stated.

Yours truly,
J. H. SOUTHGATE,
President Board Trustees Trinity College.

The above statements are made in response to inquiries contained in the following letter:

WINSTON, N. C., Sept. 20, 1898.

MR. J. H. SOUTHGATE, President Board Trustees Trinity College, Durham, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 17th, declining to answer my inquiries relative to Trinity College and the American Tobacco Co.

My purpose in making the inquiries was to get the facts out of what appears to be a muddled situation, it being charged and denied by prominent Methodists that the College owned stock in the American Tobacco Co. I have not a doubt that the College owns further, was to give the Church and College the benefit of official denial, if my questions had been answered in the negative; and, possibly, to protest against an inconsistent position if it had been shown the College owns stock in a business which has been condemned by our Confession.

I repeat the inquiries made of you and it will be obliging to many Methodists in this section if your Executive Committee will answer them:
1. Does Trinity College hold or own stock of the American Tobacco Co. or W. Duke Sons & Co.?
2. Has it ever held or owned such stock?
3. If it has, and does not now, when was such stock disposed of?
Yours truly,
J. B. WHITAKER, JR., Editor Sentinel.

THE MISSIONARY UNION.

Fine Address by the President, Miss Sallie Dickson.
Mrs. J. S. Jones welcomed the Woman's Missionary Union, at the opening session in Greensboro Thursday, in behalf of the ladies of the two Presbyterian churches of that place. Mrs. Hammer, of Lexington, made a graceful and appropriate response. The Union listened with deep interest to the address of the President, Miss Sallie Dickson, of Winston. This organization is the outgrowth of its womanhood, a new to Orange Presbytery, and success has thus far crowned every effort of the workers. Miss Dickson presided at the consecrated spirit of the writer and closed with a most graceful and loyal tribute to the ministry and ruling eldership, under whose authority this work is done, and whose ready sympathies and co-operation have already, as in times past, "helped those women who labor with them in the gospel."

MINERS' TROUBLES.

Chicago Agreement Being Violated. Vigorous Contest Expected.
MONONGAHELA CITY, Pa., Sept. 22. Having scored a victory in the third pool, miners will now turn their attention to the mines in the fourth pool, where the Chicago agreement is being violated. The contest will be opened in a few days. Officials say it will be waged vigorously until every operator is paying the district rate.

Archbishop's Statement.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—The Archbishop of Ireland said today regarding the policy of the Roman Catholic church in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines: "When the domination of the United States is fully established the church will come under the same laws that govern this country."

Destroyed His Speech.

A private letter from Danville says that Mr. David Jones, who was shot there last week, is still improving and it is thought that he will be able to be out in a few days. The letter adds that it is feared Mr. Jones will not be able to talk distinctly any more. His tongue is in a bad condition.

ECHOES OF STORM.

GREAT DAMAGE TO THE CROPS IN LOWLANDS.

A Child Drowned—Narrow Escape of Family—It is Reported That One-third of Mocksville-Mooresville Road is Washed Away.

Distressing reports continue to come in regarding the heavy damage done by the rain storm on Thursday. It is said that it rained all day in Wilkes county.

On Thursday, the Wilkesboro train did not get farther than Donahua. It returned on schedule time that evening. The engine was floating down the river. He got two table at that place.

Capt. Hawkins and his passengers said it was discouraging to look up and down the river at Donahua and other places. Some of the farmers had considerable tobacco as well as corn and peas in the bottoms. Even the tobacco plants in lowlands were covered with water. The loss is incalculable. Capt. Hawkins says he never saw so many pumpkins as were floating down the river.

He reported that a young man named Louis Moser was drowned near Donahua about 1 o'clock Thursday. He heard that he was gathering pumpkins as they floated down the stream and got in water too deep for him. From another source it is learned that the young man was 21 years old and a son of Mr. Martin Moser, a well-to-do farmer who resides in the Northern part of Forsyth county.

For Sheriff, R. M. McArthur was unanimously nominated.

D. D. Shelton and S. T. Neal were placed in nomination for Clerk of the Superior Court. The ballot resulted in the nomination of S. T. Neal.

For Register of Deeds, R. L. Crawford and Hugh L. Hinkle were placed in nomination. The ballot resulted in the selection of Hugh L. Hinkle.

THE GUN WENT OFF.

The Soldiers Were Showing the Old Folks How to Drill.
Jesse Buck, whose parents live in Greensboro, returned from the war last week, one of his friends stopping over with him.

Soldier Buck's father keeps a gun, but it has never been kept loaded, this fact being well known to the younger Buck. It seems, however, that very recently the old gentleman concluded it would do no harm to keep the weapon ready for business, and he loaded it up heavily.

Tuesday afternoon the returned soldiers were showing the home folks how to drill, one of them giving commands while the other went through the motions. Finally "take aim, fire," was given, when the soldier who pulled the trigger and the way that old gun went off was a sight to hear. Natives from some distance away thought there had been an explosion of a powder magazine.

Fortunately no one was hit, but it is said one was not missed but an inch or two.

Soldier Boys Entertained.

Mr. J. W. Stout entertained some soldiers last week Wednesday at his home on North Liberty street. Ice cream and cake were served and the boys spent a most pleasant evening. Among Mr. Stout's guests were Messrs. Will Shepherd, J. D. Terry and Walter Houchings. Mr. Stout was a member of the Forsyth Riflemen, but he happened to be away from home on business when the company was called upon to enter the service of Uncle Sam.

No Joint Discussion in Forsyth.

The Republican candidates for the General Assembly and county offices will open their campaign at the Stand on Tuesday, October 11th. By direction of the bosses, Chairman Jessup announces that "there will be no joint discussion to influence particular feeling." This corresponds with the orders issued by State Chairman Holton—for the Republicans to have no joint discussions with the Democrats this year.

Both Passed.

Messrs. Geo. B. Pond, nephew of Dr. Robinson of Salem and Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, stated an examination in New York recently for Second Lieutenant in the United States Army. Both passed, and the young men have received their commissions. Mr. Pond has many friends here who will be pleased to learn of his good luck.

A Woman Who is a Sexton.

A woman sexton of a graveyard. At first thought the idea seems not only highly improbable, but impossible as well. Yet New Orleans boasts today of the only woman sexton of a cemetery in the South and, perhaps in the United States.
