PLATFORM ADOPTED BY PENNSYLVANIA G. O. P.

By Wire to The Sentinel. HARRISBURG, Penn., June 6.—The principal features of the Republican platform, read at the state convention today, were:

Endorsement of administration of President Roosevelt, giving full credit to the managers of the great industrial enterprises for their splendid achievements but condemning those who have misused their powers by unfair methods of competition; public policy in corporation affairs; approval of railway rate bill; commendation of legislation pending in Congress providing for rigid examination of meat products; declaration of its devotion to the Republican doctrine of the protection of American industries; urging further amendment of immigration laws, so that undesirable foreign element may be excluded from American citizenship and acknowledges a debt of gratitude to the sailors and soldiers who fought in wars of the country and recommends that pensions be granted them.

King Edward has expressed a wish to meet the president's daughter and will be given an opportunity at this time. The dinner will be the most noteworthy affair of the season. No expense will be spared in the preparations for the event. Crouse, Madame Fames and other soloists from the Convent Garden opera have been engaged to sing at the dinner, notwithstanding the large figure at which they estimated their services.

STATE B. & L. LEAGUE CONVENTION.

REPORT OF BUSINESS AND SOCIAL SESSIONS OF ORGANIZATION COMPOSED OF TOWN-BUILDERS.

President Wittkowsky's Annual Report—New Members Added During Past Year—Many Interesting and Profitable Discussions—Reception and Smoker at Elks' Club—New Officers Elected—Banquet Tonight.

From Wednesday's Daily. The third annual convention of the North Carolina Building and Loan League opened in this city at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a business meeting, held at the office of the Winston-Salem Association.

President S. Wittkowsky, of Charlotte, called the meeting to order, and a roll call by Secretary E. L. Keesler showed the following associations represented: Mooresville, Lincolnton, Burlington, Tarboro, Concord, Charlotte, Lenoir and Statesville. There are nineteen associations in the league and 12 of these have representatives here.

The report of President Wittkowsky and Secretary Keesler were submitted and accepted.

President Wittkowsky said in his report:

"Gentlemen: I am sure that I voice your sentiment when I say that we deem it an honor and pleasure to meet here under the shades of the towering cedar of the good Twin-City, of which one has a historical record justly to be proud of, and the other the younger, for push, energy, thrift and success is the peer of any in the State, and I am sure that we will be impressed still more in their favor by sojourn in their midst and that our highest praise will be merited by all that goes to make up the life of these Twin-Cities."

Continuing the report says that in 1902, when a few began the agitation of the formation of a state league in this State, only 27 local associations, with "subscribed shares of 17,733 of a par value of $1,773,000, which in 1903 had grown to 37 associations and to 20,232 shares of par value of $2,232,000, and in 1904 to 48 associations with shares subscribed 20,000 par value of $2,000,000, and at the beginning of the year 1906, we have the gratifying result of having in existence 65 associations (of whom 13 have failed to make report) but the 52 reporting show the enormous increase since the formation of this league, and which I assert has been accomplished through the publicity and persistence by it, of $5,427 shares of a par value of $8,542,700, or an increase of 400 per cent in three years.

"Those present, knowing the good and beneficial results these associations have accomplished in our respective communities, have cause for rejoicing in the contemplation of the good these associations will accomplish throughout the whole State. At our last meeting, this league had a membership of 13 associations, since which time the following have joined us, to-wit: Lincolnton, Blue Ridge, Burlington, Gastonia and Kinston, to all of whom I am sure we extend the hand of fellowship and hearty welcome, and while we can show but 18 association as composing the league, it is gratifying to know that they represent 5,900,000 shares of the par value of $5,900,000, which is 70 per cent of all the shares in force in the State.

"At two of our previous meetings I suggested and urged the advisability of having for this State a building and loan commission (as is in existence in many of the states in the union) and now at our third meeting I am still more convinced than ever before of the necessity of such a commission.

Most of you gentlemen will remember that the league endeavored to have such a measure passed by our legislature, but finding opposition thereto from certain interested quarters we, for the sake of harmony among ourselves, though very reluctantly, waived the passage of this measure and consented to place the Building and Loan interest in the care and supervision in the hands of our worthy, energetic commissioner of insurance, but I am constrained to think that the large increase of insurance companies in our State, together with certain unsavory development of the insurance elsewhere, has so occupied the time of the insurance commissioner that it was impossible for him to devote any careful investigation of the modes and systems and conditions of the B. & L. Associations in the State, and which is still further aggravated by the phenomenal growth of these associations in our State, and hence we find in existence several such institutions chartered by and operated in this State under features so pervasive of the true economic underlying co-operative B. & L. principles, that it is a pity they have been permitted to organize and, further, they ought not be allowed to exist another day; and right here, let me point out to you the utility of this league, namely, one of these objectionable institutions has now been forced through out effort to change three times its constitution and by-laws, but regret to say that every change was for the worse, but on this subject I have prepared a special paper, which I may read at this convention if time and opportunity will permit."

In compliance with the president's suggestion, he was authorized to appoint a committee of not less than three members to at once take up the matter of securing a State Building and Loan commission and to take action against any associations that may be doing business contrary to law. This committee will also be empowered to go before the next general assembly and secure such legisla-

FARMER SUICIDES

Family And Financial Troubles Believed to Have Been Cause of His Rash Act.—The Tragedy Occurred at His Home Near Rockford.

From parties who came down on the morning train it was learned that William Bohannon, a farmer residing in the edge of Yadkin county, near Rockford, committed suicide early yesterday morning by hanging himself with a plow line.

Bohannon was 35 or 40 years old and had been married three times. Family and financial troubles is given as the cause of his rash act.

MORE GRAFT BEING UNEARTHED TODAY.

By Wire to The Sentinel.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—Additional evidence of graft among the Pennsylvania Railroad officials developed at today's Interstate Commerce coal hearing when Chief Inspector Glasgow called J. R. Boyer, chief clerk to general superintendent of motive power at Altoona and under a merciless questioning showed that Boyer was getting money in all directions from coal companies. Glasgow showed marvelous familiarity with the witness' operations and Boyer, in his willingness to admit his acceptance of the rackets, even produced a memorandum to refresh his memory as to the companies he had taken money from. Edward S. Stamer, of Philadelphia, was nominated for governor on the first ballot this afternoon.
