ing on in the city now on the various tobacco plants than ever before in the history of the city. Three enormous storage houses and one large tobacco factory are under process of construction and another large storage house will be erected in the near future. Mr. Frank Bohannon is making improvements in his equipment. He is having a large tobacco storage house erected on the corner of Fifth and Fry & Reynolds, of Forsyth, 210 at Chestnut streets about 220x75 feet and is also having a large one-story factory building erected on the corner of Fifth and Depot streets about 175x75. Work on thees two buildings has been started and they will be rushed to completion. The storage house will be used for the purpose of storing leaf tobacco and the factory will be an annex of the main factory. Fogle Brothers Co., of this city, has the contract for the build Workmen are also busy at work on the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's storage building on Chestnut street between Bailey Brothers' factory and Reynolds' storage house on Fifth county on August 30th, and on account street. #### HUSBAND NEARLY LYNCHED.

Blackened Face and Crowd Thought Him a Negro.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 7.-Black ing his face as a disguise, to follow his wife, of whom he was subplcious, Ewell Smith was set upon and all bulynched by a crowd of white men, when, it is alleged, he assaulted his wife. Smith says he had an intimation that his wife had a claudestine appointment with another men. He accordingly smeared his face with in the evening. Mrs. Smith denies that she had an engagement, and says she only stopped a white man to tel' his she was being followed by a negro. Forgetting the disguise, the husband, who took fhis for the meeting. rushed forward and struck his wife and the man. The screams attracted others, who believed the white man was trying to protect her. On account of the general indignation here because of three assaults on white women the last few months by negroes. the men set upon the black-faced man. They punished him severely and started to drag him away, when his wife recognized his voice and came to his

While he was trying to explain his ruse a riot call was sent to the police, but before they arrived the angry and chagrined wife had dragged her burnt cork besemared husband home. As the man to whom she appealed for protection received no greater injury from the husband than a blow over the head with an umbrella he filed no charges and kept his own name secret.

"UNKNOWN TONGUE" LEADER ACCUSED OF MANSLAUGHTER

WILMINGTON, Sept. 9.-On the charge of manslaughter, W. I. Gorc. a white man and a recognized leader of the "Unknown Tongue" believers, alleged to have allowed little Preston Gainey, whom he had in his keeping, to die without treatment by a physician or the use of medicine, is in jail here in default of $300 bond.

Among his followers, a faction of people claiming to be directed by the Spirit in an unknown language, he is known as Rev. W. I Gore, and at the tent at corner of Front and Marsteller streets, services were held Sunday with special reference to the tronble in which their leader has been thrown and for his safe deliverage.

The warrant for the arrest of Gore was on the affidavit of Mr. T. N. Simmons, who asserted that after the refusal of Gore to have a physician to sitend the child suffering with fever, that the neighbors offered to bear the necessary expenses, but it is alleged that he would not permit the same, and consequently the child died. The interment took place in Brunswick morning.

Gore, when seen in jall by a Star reporter, willingly discussed the charge against him and appeared to be a man of good sense. He expressdoctor to attend the child and stated that he was ignorant of the offering of his neighbors in East Wilmington, who say that they were willing to defray the expenses in order that the child might have the proper treatment. When asked about his belief in regard to the "Unknown Tongue" he admitted that he was a leader, but said his re ligion was not under the regime of divine healing and that they were staunch believers in medical treat-

He said that the dead child was his wife's brother and had been cared for by them from its infancy and that its death was not due to fever. It was only sick for a few days and in the meantime he alleged he went to its father, Mr. F. P. Gainey, and advised him to have the child treated. However, they did not consider it sufficiently ill to require a physician's treatment. Its death occurred on August 28th. Gore stated he will inroduce Mr. Gainey, the dead child's father, at the preliminary trial as his principal witness to bear out the statement that be advised medical reaf-

Besides being a leader in his religious belief, Gore for a number of years has been working as a cooper in Mr. P. O. Grimes's shop. He is well known and on account of the peculiar circumstances in connection with the case the outcome will be watched with
