

LEAF TOBACCO MARKET

Officially the Winston tobacco market will open next Tuesday morning, but it is very doubtful whether there will be much if any tobacco on the market, as the farmers are very busy just now and there is apparently no good reason for them coming to market yet awhile.

Just how many of the buyers will be out remains to be seen. Until the breaks become of sufficient size to tempt the buyers there will be little doing in the way of securing any idea of just how prices on the new crop may be.

Unless the growers are very much mistaken, the new crop is about the biggest and best ever produced in this section. Every grower one sees these days reports his crop good.

Quite a lot of primings have been cured and they are far above the average it is said.

The matter of triple sales for the Winston market has not been settled definitely, but it is hardly probable the triple sales will be put on, at least not for several months.

The warehousemen are getting the houses in shape and in a week or so the country will be full of warehousemen visiting the trade.

THE DURHAM MARKET

WILL OPEN SEPT. 15
Durham, Aug. 17.—The tobacco board of trade has decided to open the Durham market for the 1915 season on September 15. That is the time all of the buyers for the big companies want to go to work, and since there is no special need for opening the market earlier the warehousemen and others interested in the Durham market decided not to open the first of next month as is usually done.

Durham will have four houses next year. Since the close of last season a new brick house has been erected and is now or will be ready for the sales when the market opens. The Banner warehouse has been enlarged so that it will be able to take care of a much larger amount of tobacco than ever before.

The market will have facilities for handling 20,000,000 pounds this year, but the indications are that the market will hardly come up to that mark.

REIDSVILLE LEAF TOBACCO

MARKET OPENS NEW SEASON
Reidsville, Aug. 17.—The local tobacco market opened yesterday. Each of the three warehouses had a sale and the breaks were rather small. Prices were very encouraging and a little better than the warehousemen had been led to hope for. Sales will be very light for some weeks yet as very few primings are being saved this year. The offerings yesterday consisted wholly of sand lugs.

TOBACCO MARKET AT

ROCKY MOUNT GOOD
Rocky Mount, Aug. 18.—Surpassed only by circus day was the attendance from all sections at the opening of the Rocky Mount tobacco market yesterday. With double sales from the start there was upward of 200,000 pounds of the bright leaf disposed of during the sale which lasted thru the morning.

The average price paid for the bright leaf was about $8 to $8.20 a hundred according to the figures available at this time and there has been much favorable comment upon the gratifying showing of the market.

50,000 POUNDS OF LEAF

ON GREENVILLE MARKET
Greenville, Aug. 18.—That the opening break of Greenville tobacco market should be over fifty thousand pounds was a surprise to all interested in the market. It was not thought half that had been graded and that prices should average near ten cents was greater surprise. Much curing yet is to be done. Farmers had no time for grading.

Highest prices went up into twenties. There was largest crowd for opening in several years. Sellers, buyers and warehouses were well pleased. It is expected prices will be good soon, as some good tobacco can be pointed on the market. People from all adjoining counties and even further away were here. Other markets had representatives and all sold prices were good. Light sales are expected, as tobacco is late and it will be September or later before re-curing is finished.

CORNER-STONE LAYING AT NEWSOM AUG. 26

The corner-stone laying of the Fries-Reeves Institute at Newsom, N. C. on Thursday, August 26, is going to be a red letter day in the history of that enterprising little Southbound city. The Southbound Railway has already announced a special train from Winston-Salem and reduced rates from Wadesboro on that date to accommodate the crowds expected to attend from all cities on the railway system. Inasmuch as the institute is named for a distinguished Winston-Salem citizen, this city and its representatives will have a prominent part in the events of the day.

The corner-stone is to be laid by the Masonic lodges and the main speech of the day will be delivered by Dr. Howard E. Rondthaler of this city at 12 o'clock noon. This will be followed by a picnic dinner for all visitors at 1 o'clock and at 2 o'clock a baseball game is announced. Other diversions of the afternoon will be fishing, bathing, boating, mountain climbing, etc. There will be music all day by a brass band which will be engaged.

The committee of Newsom citizens who have arranged the most tempting program and who will see that everybody has a good time in Newsom on the 26th is composed of Messrs. J. W. Newsom, A. L. Newsom, J. F. Stokes, T. A. Bulla and H. Val Badgett.

WHOLE TOWN OUT TO SEE KISSING OF GIRL

Berwick, Pa., Aug. 19.—Declining the attentions of a dozen Berwick eligibles, Miss Leah Derr, one of the town's most popular girls, met, along with nearly everybody in town, Fayel G. Stonebraker, of Clarinda, Iowa, upon his arrival at the railroad station.

It was last December that Miss Derr sent her name, address and photograph to a Kansas City correspondence club, and it was not long before she heard from Stonebraker, who went into raptures over her beauty.

As evidence of good faith he returned what he thought was her photograph, which had been sent him by the correspondence club, but it had attached her name to another's picture. When she sent a photograph to correct the false impressions, his love increased, and he wanted to visit her at once.

But Miss Derr was receiving letters from men of many minds from all over the world. It was to Stonebraker that she at last turned her affections, and he arrived this week. A telegram brought the news: "Throw your baggage down when I come, because I am going to kiss you," and the town was out to see him make good. He did.

MAY NO LONGER HONOR REQUISITIONS FROM GEORGIA

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Edward J. Dodd, president of the Chicago Patrolmen's association, announced that because he considered the lynching of Leo M. Frank indicated Georgia was not capable of self-government, he would ask Governor Dunsen not to honor requisition papers sent him in future by the governor of that state. He added he would appeal to the heads of all policemen's organizations in the country to make similar requests of the governors of their respective states.

GIRL DRINKS THREE PINTS OF WHISKEY

Spartanburg, S. C., Aug. 19.—Drinking three pints of whiskey in a very short while without becoming intoxicated was the unusual experience of Miss Beniah Rowe, of Caroleen, N. C., Sunday afternoon. The young lady, a guest in the home of Sam Elders at Clifton No. 1 Mill, while walking about garden was bitten on the foot by a poisonous snake of the copperhead variety. In spite of the suction and whiskey treatments as well as other local remedies recommended by neighbors, the wound swelled so as to be quite alarming, but at last reports the young lady was doing well, and no bad results are expected.

Just why the whiskey did not induce intoxication is a bit mysterious, the physicians claim a person bitten by a snake is more able to withstand the effects of spirits.

NATIVE OF FORSYTH HEAD OF STATE JUNIOR ORDER

Charlotte, Aug. 19.—At the business session of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, held yesterday evening, during which time and up until midnight the election of officers and representatives was in order, Mr. Charles F. Alexander, of this city, was chosen state vice counselor, an honor which is regarded as among the highest within the gift of the organization.

The election of officers began yesterday afternoon at a business session started at 2 o'clock. The balloting became general at the start and it was evident that the task of naming the official roster of the state convention was going to be somewhat prolonged. It was decided that the convention would not allow this feature of business to interfere with the pleasure attendant upon the hearing of Congressman Burnett at Lakewood Park last night, and for this reason the conclusion of this element of business was postponed until after the address of Congressman J. L. Burnett. At the conclusion of the part of the program he rendered at Lakewood Park, the delegates returned to the hall of the Charlotte council, where the business of naming officers was concluded.

The Officers. In addition to Mr. Alexander, the following officers were selected for other officers of the North Carolina Council: W. A. Cooper, of Raleigh, No. 1, state counselor; Charles F. Alexander, of Charlotte, No. 444, state vice counselor; Sam F. Vance, of Winston-Salem, No. 19, secretary; I. P. Davis, of Milton, No. 387, assistant secretary; George V. Fulk, Jr., of Kernersville, No. 54, treasurer; C. L. Sands, of Beidsville, No. 9, conductor; W. E. Stanley, of Durham, No. 98, warden; C. V. Talley, of Hickory Grove, No. 224, inside sentinel; B. F. Brittain, of Wilmington, No. 63, outside sentinel.

Mr. Cooper, the new head of the State Council, is a native of Clemmons, Forsyth county. He resided in Winston-Salem during his early manhood, going to Raleigh from here several years ago. He is a member of the firm of Cooper Bros., which conducts a successful marble business.

The entire afternoon of yesterday was given over to business of the convention. One of the more important features was the selection of a place for the 1916 convention and Goldsboro at once sent in its bid. It early became evident during the afternoon that this would be the fortunate town chosen and definite announcement to this effect was made last night.

Reports of standing committees were submitted at this morning's session.

The attendance at the convention was augmented up to nearly 1,000 delegates, according to the official roster of delegates yesterday. The morning trains added to the number already here several hundred and expectations have already been met. Delegates are attending the convention from all parts of the state.

Anticipations Met. State Councilor Jones, of Tarboro, who, by virtue of his office, is presiding over the sessions of the organization, stated prior to the opening of the convention that he looked for the best attendance ever recorded at any state meeting and he was able to declare yesterday that his anticipations had been realized. Not only is the convention in point of numbers one of the most successful ever held, but the program is regarded as one of unparalleled strength.

LAWYERS VS. TEACHERS IN BASEBALL BATTLE

For five innings Tuesday there was a battle waged at Prince Albert park that was second only to the European war. The legal lights of the city stacked up against the county school teachers and while we are not going to offer any comment on the playing, we don't mind telling that at the end of the fifth inning (it seemed like the fifth year to the participants) the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the attorneys. Both sides seemed to be about played out when the fifth round terminated so after a consultation Referees Apple and Vernay decided to call the bout.

The fight put up by both teams was a most creditable one. The attorneys, minus the services of their star battery, Hon. Cy Watson and Judge E. B. Jones, battled brilliantly against odds, but superior team work turned the trick and the teachers went down defeated.

David Jones pitched for the lawyers in place of Hon. Cy Watson, who is reported to have jumped to the Reds just before the game began, while Mr. George W. Orr performed behind the bat. For the teachers, Goslin pitched a nice game and the other members of the team worked hard and showed plenty of "pep."

There was considerable trouble in selecting an umpire. Dr. R. O. Apple was a candidate for the position as was Mr. F. S. Vernay, so in order to keep the defeated candidate from getting peeved it was decided to use both. Some folks say they umpired and some say they didn't. The proceeds will be given to the local baseball association.

What this remedy has done in so many cases of this kind is the best proof of its merit.

Read the following. It's testimony gratefully given by a resident of this locality:

J. A. Ramsey, North Wilkesboro, says: "I used to be bothered considerably with bladder trouble. I had a desire to pass the kidney secretions every little while. Nights I had to get up several times. Often when I stooped I could hardly straighten up, as my back was so stiff and lame. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief and after I had finished about eight boxes, I was rid of the bladder trouble and my back became stronger."
