ANSWER WILL GO FORWARD TODAY

While the whole country was astir oday with the mobilization of the Naional Guard the president directed for recall of American troops go forward immediately.

In refusing to withdraw the troops the United States reaffirms its friendly intentions toward Mexico and sharply contained in his communication.

President Wilson's firm resolve keep United States armed forces in Mexico until the Mexican government polices the border so thoroughly that bandit raids are impossible is understood to be clearly stated in the note. Whether the suggestion of the Democratic plank that intervention might be taken was also communicated is not Secretary Lansing announced the note would be sent during the day, but he would not discuss its terms. Mr Lansing intimated that its text might be made public tonight.

While these steps were in progress over 100,000 national guardsmen were Phil Redding worked for the Hornets over 100,000 national guardsmen were in the second game and allowed eight being mustered into service. Governors of all states had replied before noon that their allottment of troops would be immediately called out. In each instance Secretary Baker was informed that orders had been given that that his reply to the Carranza demands Rev. E. S. Crosland Holds Final Thursday.

A tinge of sadness was prevalent at rebukes Carranza for unwarranted the services held at Calvary Moravian charges and intimation of bad faith church Sunday because they mark ed the farewell services of Rev. E. S Crosland, for fifteen years pastor of to take. He'd be betting us $100,000 the congregation, who, with his family, leaves the latter part of the week for Lititz, Pa., where Rev. Mr. Crosland will assume the duties connect ed with the pastorate of the Mora vian church there, one of the three largest churches of that denomination in the country.

At 11 o'cock Sundaly morning the Holy Communion was celebrated. It was more largely attended than any communion service in the history of the church. One infant was baptized and two new members were given the right hand of fellowship. The pastor spoke feelingly of his work furing the past fifteen years and expressed his regret at leaving such a oyal and faithful congregation.

It is estimated that Mr. Crosland spoke to at least 750 people on the lawn of the church last night. The lef of Americans gathered from the marks were based upon the fact that,

> Thursday evening from 8 until 10 o'clock the congregation of the church will give the beloved pastor and his wife a reception in the church for all of Mr. Crosland's many There will be music and friends.

Friday night Rev. and Mrs. Crosboatload of men from an American land and family will leave for their new home, stopping at Fortress Monroe. Va., for a few days. They expect to reach Lititz, the Wednesday following. Thursday evening the congregation of the Lititz church will tender the new pastor and his family a reception and Mr. Crosland will preach his introductory sermon the first Sunday in July.
