

The Charlotte Labor Journal

AND DIXIE FARM NEWS

Vol. V.—No. 1

CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 9, 1935

$2.00 PER YEAR.

Presenting
CHARLOTTE AND MECKLENBURG COUNTY LEADERS

IN

Business, Professional and CIVIC LIFE

DOWN through the years . . . these men and women whose countenances and advertisements you will view through the following pages . . . have been most active in building a greater and better Charlotte . . .

THEY are able to see greater opportunities in the years to come. These men and women have a strong affection for Charlotte . . . There is nothing austere or unapproachable about them . . . They have that interested spirit which will make Charlotte a bigger . . . better and more progressive community.

Study the faces and advertisements on the following pages . . . Connect them with the worthwhile enterprises . . . Civic activities . . . and accomplishments that these citizens have sponsored. They are . . .

ONE HUNDRED PER CENT FOR CHARLOTTE

CO-OPERATE WITH THESE LEADERS

Keep Charlotte In Step With Modern

PROGRESS

THE CHARLOTTE LABOR JOURNAL