CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1935

Hon. William F. Scholl has entered the race for Mr. Bulwinkle's seat in Congress. Wonder how many more there are to come, and will Hamilton C. Jones make another try?

The Journal is glad to note that our new city council looks with disfavor upon the "advisory board" idea, as suggested. The eleven councilmen and mayor recently elected ought to have brains enough to run the city. "Too many cooks spoil the broth!"

Why Use the Union Label? Question Asked, Answered

"I have all my printing done by union printers. What more do you want?" asked a merchant when the nonappearance of the union label on his printing was called to his attention.

It was explained the union label on printing means more than the mere fact that the work was done by union craftsmen. While it shows the purchaser approves of fair trade dealings between employer and employe, it also signifies to the world at large that the work was preformed amid sanitary surroundings, by competent union craftsmen who were paid a wage compensatory to the skill involved. Minus the label, printing is not easily identified when its parentage is questioned.

If a buyer of printing patronizes a union shop because of a preference he has no reason to be ashamed of that preference. If he but uses union printed products with a view of enhancing its pulling power the absence of the union label lessens its effectiveness. Whatever the reason for the use of the label no excuses are necessary.

Much of this apparent disinclination to display the union label would be obviated if proprietors and salesmen would incorporate in their sales-talks the simple query, "Do you wish the label on your job?" A majority of buyers of printing would answer in the affirmative or would raise no objection if the value of the label was explained. In this connection it should be recalled that every successful effort to induce the use of the union label on printing increases the work in union shops and it is only fair to expect a little reciprocity from employers. The printing business is better in those communities where employer and employe work together in this matter.—Typographical Journal.

EDWIN AXTON IS ELECTED PRESIDENT TO SUCCEED BROTHER

Edwin D. Axton, treasurer of the Axton-Fisher Tobacco Company, was recently elected president to succeed his brother, the late Woodford F. Axton, who died April 3. Mr. Axton aided his brother in the formation of the company and has been financially interested since then. On February 1, 1906, he became actively associated as treasurer and has demonstrated outstanding quality as an executive. Mr. Axton had been secretary-treasurer since 1912.

CARROLL WANTS INJUNCTION AGAINST UNION'S BOYCOTT
NEW YORK—Earl Carroll, theatrical producer, asked the New York Supreme Court for an injunction to restrain Local Union No. 829, United Scenic Artists, from continuing what he alleged was a "systematic and illegal boycott" of a review called the "Sketchbook," which he is to put on for the Vanwyn Amusement Corporation.

He said the "boycott" would make it impossible for him to obtain a designer for the scenery and stage settings. The union has a rule, he stated, forbidding any member to work for Mr. Carroll or any corporation which employs him. He asked the court to void this rule.
