BIBLE THOUGHT

The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him.—Ezra 8:22. * * * * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.—Luke 4:8.

THE "UNHAPPY" "HAPPY" WARRIOR

On Saturday night of last week Al Smith got off his chest a vitriolic tirade against Franklin D. Roosevelt and the New Deal. Sour grapes of a departed Presidential candidate and the animosity of the Liberty League, the Manufacturer's Association, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the Republican party were all thrown into his talk. And the rebound was not what Mr. Smith expected, because the American people are sensitive to a certain degree, and they realize the fact that Roosevelt has at least made an attempt to better the condition of the people, who were crying and they welcomed it, but now that business conditions are in a ing for help when he came into office. The bankers were in a helpless state; business was stagnated and the people were unemployed and hungry. This good old U. S. A. was on the verge of collapse. Roosevelt gave our people the best remedy at hand and the welcomed it, but now that business conditions are in a more stabilized form Big Business would kill the man that brought them out of the Slough of Despond. "Oh consistency, thou art a jewel."

As was to be expected, Roosevelt vetoed the bonus bill, for he had to run true to form, and also Congress was scheduled to override the veto, in order to keep the political fences in good shape—and also, Senator Bailey, of our State, was expected to turn turtle in order to save his scalp. So how nicely it all works out. "Oh, consistency, thou art a jewel."

SUPREME COURT CURB BILLS

The Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress rejected a motion reported to have been offered by Representative Warren J. Duffey, of Ohio, to table a number of bills providing for the removal of much of the power now exercised by the lower Federal court to declare laws enacted by Congress unconstitutional. The action of the committee leaves the way open for the consideration of the bills at a later date. Representative Hatton W. Summers, chairman of the committee, said "considerable sentiment" had developed in the House in the direction of restricting the power of the court, but added that the committee would not act without giving "full consideration" to all angles of the subject.

POSTAL MESSENGER UNIFORMS WILL BE MADE BY UNION FIRM

MIAMI, Fla.—Announcement was made at the meeting of the Union Label Trades Department executive board that all Postal Telegraph messengers' uniforms hereafter will be made by A. Du-Bois & Son, of New York City, a completely union firm with a long record of union operation.

It was learned that the contract for Postal messenger uniforms calls for the manufacture of uniforms which will involve payment over $80,000. It is understood that each garment will bear the union label. The uniforms are to be of wool.

Labor officials received the announcement as another indication of the friendly attitude of the Postal company toward organized labor.

It was announced also that the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of North America has been accepted by the Union Label Trades Department as an affiliate, the application for affiliation having been made by the union some weeks ago. Union telegraphers are entitled to wear a union button and patrons are entitled to ask that messages be transmitted by operators wearing the union button.

A representative of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union informed the Board that the Postal Telegraph company does not discriminate against union employees and that its attitude is regarded as friendly by the union.

The Gaelic Word "Balle"
The Gaelic word "Balle" (pronounced "Ball-ya"), meaning a town, was formerly used to denote any group of dwellings or settlements larger than a mere village and the name of the local chief was added, says Pearson's Weekly. Thus we have Bally-martin, Bally-honan, etc. Where there was no local lord or chief of sufficient importance to be thus honored, the town was distinguished by some peculiarity of the surrounding neighborhood, e.g., Bally-na-hinch—or Ballynahinch—"the town-of-the-islands."

The Junior League
The Junior league originated among a small group of young women in New York city who in 1900 sent a large number of roses from a party to a hospital. Later they and others banded together "for mutual benefit and the good of the community." From giving entertainments for the benefit of a college settlement they extended their activities to many other forms of social aid. Similar organizations of young women were formed in other cities out of which grew a national association of leagues, each interested in its particular ways in the educational, cultural and civic conditions of its community and in volunteer charitable and other service.

Appointment of Notary Public
A notary public is a public officer who takes acknowledgement of, or otherwise attests or certifies, deeds and other writings, or copies of them, usually under his official seal, to make them authentic, and takes affidavits, depositions, and protests of negotiable paper. In the United States appointments are made by the governors of the states. The oath is as follows: "I do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the state of —, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duty of notary public for — county, according to the best of my skill and ability; so help me God."

Names of Streets in Brussels
The names of the streets in Brussels speak of everyday life and everyday things. There are Fish street, Poultry street, Butter street and the Street of the Lost Bread. Another of Brussels' streets, that of the Six Young Men, tells of tragedy—of six youths who were out playing jokes one night and by accident smeared the face of an agent of the country's foreign ruler with tar. They were caught and hanged, and later the street in which they lived was named the Street of the Six Young Men in their memory.
