WILLIAM GREEN, PRES. A. F. OF L.

TYPO AUXILIARY MEETS — XMAS PARTY PLANNED

Woman's Auxiliary, No. 107, to Charlotte Typographical Union No. 338 met Tuesday night, November 10th, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Kumpe, 1520 High street, with Mrs. John P. White as co-hostess. The regular monthly business meeting was combined with this special call meeting to vote on the propositions that were passed on at the convention at Colorado Springs last September. The December meeting and Christmas party will be held on Monday night, December 21st, at the home of Mrs. Hugh M. Sykes, 1701 East Boulevard. Mr. W. M. Witter, a member of the local Typographical Union, who has just recently returned from the Printers Home at Colorado Springs, has been invited to make a talk about the Home and its environments. All members are asked to bring dolls to the December meeting, and they will be sent to the Salvation Army for their annual Christmas party for the underprivileged children.

HOME-COMING

Now the winds of the world grow old, And every chipmunk, mole and mouse Is busily tucking in his house Against the cold. Now the last shy leaf is blown And the last brown shivering bird is flown, And the road gives over to wind and rain. Out of its loneliness and dearth To its own acre of the earth, Its bit of hearth, The errant heart comes home again.

Blanca Bradbury.
