THE OLD STOIC
Riches I hold in light esteem,
And Love I laugh to scorn;
And lust of fame was but a dream,
That vanished with the morn:
And if I pray, the only prayer
That moves my lips for me
Is, "Leave the heart that now I bear,
And give me liberty!"
Yes, as my swift days near their goal,
'Tis all that I implore;
In life and death a chainless soul,
With courage to endure.

Patriot Quotes
"Land of Liberty of the World"

I ONLY regret that I have but one life to lose for my country.
Nathan Hale

Hale, a 21-year-old captain in George Washington's army, uttered this noble sentiment just before he was hanged by the British as a spy on September 22, 1776, during the War of American Independence.

WAR BOND QUIZ

- Q. In what denominations are War Savings Stamps available?
A. Savings Stamps are issued in denominations of 10¢, 25¢, 50¢, $1, and $5.
- Q. Is the registration of War Savings Bonds a matter of public record?
A. No. Records of ownership of War Savings Bonds are confidential and information is given only to those persons whose right to it is fully established.
- Q. Where can I buy a War Savings Bond?

By Gil Crockett.
A. At United States post offices of the first, second, and third classes, and at selected post offices of the fourth class; and generally at classified stations and branches; at Federal Reserve Banks and branches; at most commercial banks, savings associations; credit unions; other financial institutions; many retail stores, theaters, and other official sales agencies; or through a Pay-Roll Savings Plan. You may also buy them by mail direct from any Federal Reserve Bank or branch, or from the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

Q. What is the limit of ownership of War Savings Bonds?
A. There is an annual limit of $5,000 maturity value, or $3,750 cost price for each calendar year, of bonds originally issued during that year to any one person.

Remember—the longer you keep War Bonds, up to 10 years, the more valuable they become.
