ROOSEVELT ASKS FOR FUNDS FOR REHABILITATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—President Roosevelt called yesterday for American help in the relief of victims of war abroad "as a matter of military necessity as well as of humanity." He asked that Congress authorize appropriations to help finance the United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration—leaving specific

THE MARCH OF LABOR

30 MILLION SYNTHETIC TIRES IN 1944

WASHINGTON.—By the end of this year 17,200,000 tires of all kinds—new, used and reclaimed—equivalent in wear to approximately 12 million new tires, will have been distributed, the fourth progress report of Rubber Director Bradley Dewey states. This compares with 4,700,000 tires that were distributed in 1942, the report shows. The goal which the Rubber Director set for the industry for 1944 is a minimum of 30 million synthetic tires. This compares with the normal use in this country of 50 million tires annually and far more than falling short of meeting current needs, these must also meet therefore remain "tight" for at least six to nine months longer.

Workers Needed For Holidays At Charlotte P. O.

The Charlotte post office will employ 300 extra persons during the holiday rush, effective about December 1, so that mail for the period between December 1 and December 24 may be handled as expeditiously as possible, it was announced yesterday by Postmaster George E. Wilson, Jr. Already a large number have filed applications for these temporary jobs, Mr. Wilson said, but many more will be needed.

sums to be named later—and Chairman Bloom, Democrat of New York, of the House foreign affairs committee promptly introduced such a resolution. Under it, from time to time the President would be given "such sums as the Congress may determine to be appropriate" for this country's share of the relief agency's work. He would submit quarterly reports on what was done with the money.

TYPO AUXILIARY WILL HAVE MEET MONDAY, NOV. 22ND

TROUBLE

Never go out to meet trouble. If you just sit still, nine times out of ten someone will intercept it before it reaches you.—Calvin Coolidge.

MERE MAN

"Man gets drunk as an owl, roars like a lion, coos like a dove. He works like a horse, is led like a sheep, runs like a deer, drinks like a fish and swims like a duck. He is as nervous as a cat, sticks his head in the sand like an ostrich. He is coltish and kittenish and as stubborn as a mule. He knows how to play possum."—Exchange.

WHAT THIS WORLD NEEDS

(Author Unknown)

- A little more kindness is what this world needs
- A little more loving in words and in deeds;
- A little more helping of a brother along;
- A little more smiling, a little more song;
- A little more lifting of somebody's care;
- A little more giving, a little more prayer;
- A little more thinking on things that are true;
- A little more patience, and tenderness, too;
- A little more brushing of worries away;
- A little more thanking for blessings each day;
- A little more seeking of things for the soul;
- A little more courage in paths still untrod;
- A little more trusting in mankind and God.

"Take her down!" With these words, Commander Gilmore signed his own death warrant. Rather than risk losing his boat and crew, from enemy fire, the wounded Commander ordered his submarine to submerge—with himself outside.

How much is "duty"?

WHEN A SOLDIER charges up a newly established beachhead heedless of the shells and machine-gun bullets ripping around him . . . that's duty.

When a sailor stands at an anti-aircraft gun fiercely firing at an enemy plane, disregarding the bombs and lead falling from the skies . . . that's duty.

A soldier or a sailor has duty clearly defined for him.

But how much is "duty" for a civilian?

There is no clear definition. But there is one job which every man and woman of us must consider duty if he would like to see the war shortened and our fighting men back with us.

That's—Buying War Bonds. Not just a few. As many as you possibly can afford!

For your own sake . . . for the sake of your fighting men . . . for the sake of your country . . . boost your buying through Payroll Savings!
