WOLL WARNS OF DANGER IN SPREAD OF SLAVE LABOR AROUND WORLD

Washington, D. C.—Expansion of the "slave labor system" is a "dire threat to the free workers of all countries," according to the International Labor Relations Committee of the American Federation of Labor.

This was the pronouncement issued here by Matthew Woll, AFL vice president, who declared that "forced labor has become a post-war institution in many lands." "In Europe alone," Mr. Woll's statement declared, "it has been estimated that nearly one-third of all productive work is now being done by slave labor." The Survey, upon which Mr. Woll was reporting, reported that:

"Slave labor is a challenge which free labor must meet and must meet at once—or be driven into slavery itself."

Despite the interval since the end of the war "millions of men and women from former enemy countries are still being held as slave laborers."

Large numbers of war prisoners still are being held in Great Britain, Poland, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia, the summary points out, in asserting crimes committed by the Nazis were no excuse "for the crimes being perpetrated today, especially in the name of democratic and peace-loving peoples."

BARGAINING CURBS ASSAILED BY HERZOG AT HEARING

Washington, D. C.—Any change in the policy of encouraging collective bargaining would have "most unhappy consequences," Paul M. Herzog, chairman of the National Labor Relations Board, declared before the Senate Labor Relations Committee which is considering far-reaching proposals for revision of labor legislation.

"Successful collective bargaining would be frustrated if any of the employe's rights, guaranteed by the Wagner Act, were subtracted from that statute," he said.
