LABOR, COMMUNITY GOALS INSEPARABLE — TRUMAN

Atlantic City.—In a message of greeting to the 60th anniversary conference of the United Hebrew Trades, President Truman declared that "the best interests of labor and the good of community are inseparable."

The Chief Executive's letter, which was made public by Ruben Guskin, president of the United Hebrew Trades and vice-president of the Associated Actors and Artists of America, said:

"Labor has made solid achievements during the years since the United Hebrew Trades was founded. The standard of living has been greatly increased. Wages have risen. Working conditions have vastly improved. A substantial measure of job and old age security has been provided."

"The debt the American economy and American industrial leadership owes to labor in these achievements is recognized and acclaimed."

The organization, representing an affiliated membership of 600,000 trade unionists in New York City, presented a scroll of honor to the venerable, 88-year-old editor of the Jewish Daily Forward for his services to the United Hebrew Trades.

In his concluding paragraph, President Truman wrote:

"The organization has sound reason to feel proud of its contributions to the economy and to the improved position enjoyed by labor today. It has good reason, moreover, to look forward to greater gains in the future. Toward this end of greater security and happiness for working men and women everywhere, I wish the United Hebrew Trades many more years of constructive activity."

KELSAY KILLED IN CRASH: HEADED METAL POLISHERS

Indianapolis.—Ray Kelsay, 60 president of the Metal Polishers, Buffers and Platers International Union, was killed in an automobile accident, while driving here alone from a union meeting in South Bend, Ind. It was believed that he collapsed from a heart attack before the crash.

Mr. Kelsay, who had devoted his lifetime to the cause of organized labor, took the lead at the close of the war in pushing a drive for the employment of handicapped veterans in jobs for which they are suited. He had been president of the Metal Polishers since 1943, having served the union earlier as vice-president and as business agent for his hometown local in Indianapolis. He leaves a widow, two daughters and a son. Funeral services and burial took place in Indianapolis.

Fresh Food!

The high point of the kiddies' party had arrived. The hostess tripped triumphantly into the tensely anticipative room bearing a heaping platter of gelatin dessert. As she placed it on the table, it quivered and shook. Most of the youngsters shouted with delight. But one, a pudgy tow-headed boy, started to leave the table.

"None of that stuff for me," he announced firmly. "It ain't dead yet."

Why not observe Fire Prevention week by consulting a Duke Power Company Farm Specialist about putting electricity to work for SAFETY and PROFITS on your farm? Just call your nearest Duke Power Office and ask for information.

Magic of the Telephone

Your telephone can do more tricks than a vaudeville magician. It can't sit on its hind legs, but it can stop a corporation's board meeting dead. It can't whistle Dixie, but it can bring news faster than press or radio. It can't balance a ball on its dial, but it can tell you where to buy your flowers and clothes.

How? Time Service does it. Time Service puts clever advertising messages in 10,000 cars every day... right here in Charlotte, where it counts. Cost? Less than a penny a call.
