A NEW VERSION

Oh, Lord, I come to thee in prayer once more;
But pardon if I do not kneel before
Thy gracious presence, for my knees are sore
With so much walking, in my chair instead
I'll sit at ease and humbly bow my head.

I've labored in Thy vineyard,
Thou do'st know;
I've sold ten tickets to the minstrel show;
I've called on fifteen strangers in our town,
Their contributions to our church put down;
I've baked a pot of beans for Saturday's spree,
An old time supper it's going to be;

I've dressed three dolls, too, for our annual fair,
And made a cake which we must raffle there.
Now, with Thy boundless wisdom, so sublime,
Thou knowest that these duties all take time;

I have no time to fight my spirit's foes,
I have no time to mend my husband's clothes;
My children roam the street from morn 'til night,
I have no time to teach them to do right;

But Thou, O Lord, considering all my cares,
Will count them righteous, also heed my prayers.
Bless the bean supper and the minstrel show,
And put it in the hearts of all to go.

Induce the visitors to patronize
The men who in our program advertise,
Because I've chased these merchants 'til they hid,
When'er they saw me coming; yes they did.

Increase the contributions to our fair,
And bless the people who are assembled there;
Bless Thou the grab-bag and the gypsy tent,
The flower table and the cake that's sent;

May our bridge club be to Thy service blest,
And when Thou hast bestowed these blessings, then
We pray that Thou wilt bless our souls. . . Amen.

Magic of the Telephone

Your telephone can do more tricks than a vaudeville magician. It can't sit on its hind legs, but it can stop a corporation's board meeting dead. It can't whistle Dixie, but it can bring news faster than press or radio. It can't balance a ball on its dial, but it can tell you where to buy your flowers and clothes.

How? Time Service does it. Time Service puts clever advertising messages in 10,000 ears every day . . . right here in Charlotte, where it counts. Cost? Less than a penny a call.

A good light—

The evening paper, or your favorite book . . . The answer will be pure contentment for long evenings.

"Good" for reading light means:

- Plenty of light — 100 watts or more.
- Lamp in the right place — by your favorite chair of course.
- Free from glare — a white or white-lined shade helps.
- Properly distributed — on the printed page, with paper or book held at a comfortable position.

Keynoting the nationwide occasion will be a special dinner in Washington from which President Truman, honorary National Chairman of the Savings Bonds program, will broadcast a message to the nation, paying honor to volunteer Bond workers throughout the country.
