

Way To Go!

New York.—The International Ladies Garment Workers Union film, "With These Hands," ends with the cloakmaker, ready to retire, greeting a new member by looking at her first union book. He says: "A simple cardboard folder, something to hold your dues stamps. But it's more than that. It's a way to go. A good way!"

The Light Touch for a Hot Day

By BETTY BARCLAY
Remove from fire; add butter and vanilla. Cool. Add Grape-Nuts. Chill. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Cereal Topping for a Creamed Entrée*
1 cup corn toasties, wheat flakes or 40% bran flakes, whole or crushed
1 teaspoon melted butter or margarine
1/4 cup grated American cheese

Heat cereal flakes in saucepan, shaking pan back and forth over flame. Pour butter over hot cereal flakes and toss lightly to distribute butter evenly. Put into bowl; add grated cheese and mix lightly. Sprinkle as topping for small casserole serving 3 or 4. If used as topping for large casserole, double recipe.

Note: If desired, a small amount of finely chopped onion may be added. Sprinkle in the melted butter before combining with cereal flakes. Or a small amount of finely chopped cooked bacon or ham may be added. Another hot weather entrée:

Summer Soufflé
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten
1 cup 40% bran flakes

Melt butter in saucepan. Add flour and stir to a smooth paste. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly, and continue cooking and stirring until thickened. Cool slightly; add egg yolks, salt, and pepper and blend. Fold in egg whites and flakes. Turn into greased shallow baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 40 minutes, or until firm. Serve immediately with cheese, tomato, celery, mushroom, or onion sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Combine flour and salt in top of double boiler; add milk gradually, stirring until smooth. Add honey and blend. Cook and stir over boiling water 5 minutes. Pour small amount of mixture over eggs, stirring vigorously; return to double boiler and cook 2 minutes longer.

Match Snatch
Crooked Cabbie
Sneaky Student
By Will Bernard, L.L.B.

State laws vary. For personal guidance, see your local attorney.

Is it a Crime to Snatch A Package of Matches From Someone?

One fine day a grocer stationed himself in front of a competitor store and began passing out free matches—with his own name and address printed on each package. Soon the competitor stormed out side, ordered the man away, and angrily snatched a package from his hand. The first grocer promptly summoned a policeman and had the competitor arrested for assault and battery. At the trial, the latter insisted that grabbing a package of matches was not serious enough to justify criminal charges. But the court disagreed and found him guilty. The judge said that any rude and angry touching, no matter how insignificant, may amount to assault and battery.

Should You Ride With a Cab Driver Who Has Been Drinking?

A man got into a cab and bent forward to tell the driver his destination. He was surprised to see a half-empty whiskey bottle on the front seat—and he was still more surprised to see the driver take a long drink before starting the car! Soon after the ride began, the cab went through a boulevard stop and crashed into a truck. The passenger was hurt, and sued for damages. But when the full story came out in court, the judge turned down his claim. The judge said it was the man's own fault for accepting a ride under such circumstances. "No one with sense," said His Honor, "would ride with such a driver!"

Could a Student Be Expelled For Ungallant Behavior?

A young man enrolled in a college to study airplane design. One day he sent a "mash note" to a girl who sat near him. The girl promptly reported the matter to the instructor, and the youth was summoned to the office of the dean. There he flatly denied writing the note, blaming it instead on another student. When the truth was finally established, the young man was expelled from the school. He took the matter to court, claiming that expulsion was too severe a penalty for his action. However, the court upheld the ruling of the college authorities. The judge said that annoying the girl, plus lying, plus falsely accusing a fellow-student—all these added up to enough grounds for expulsion.

If a Bully Chases You Off the Sidewalk, May You Collect Damages?

A man was so afraid of his terrible-tempered neighbor that he always tried to avoid him. One evening, while walking home, he noticed the neighbor following him—with a stick poised in his hand. When the man started to run, the neighbor gave chase—but the fugitive managed to duck inside his front gate. Later he decided to sue for assault. At the trial, the neighbor argued that he was not liable because he had never gotten within striking range of his target. However, the court held him responsible anyhow. The judge said that the chase in itself constituted an illegal assault—whether it was successful or not.

An atheist was expounding his views in a public park one morning, when a policeman came up and arrested him. At the suggestion of the district attorney, the man was brought to trial on a charge of "conducting public worship without a license"! Athelism, insisted the district attorney, is really a religion in itself. However, the court disagreed and found the speaker not guilty of the charge. The judge said that worship is based on the concept of a Divine Being—and that's just exactly what atheism denies.
