Love Speaks At Statesville

Charles C. Love, occupational analyst, will meet with the Statesville area Personnel Club, Thursday evening to discuss with the members the industrial services provided by the ES Division. He will attend with Wade H. Wilson, Statesville office manager. Love will be in Newton, Thursday to discuss the testing program with the Newton office Staff.

Elton C. Parker, occupational analyst is continuing his studies in the classifications of workers for the City of Burlington. McDevitt Personnel Officer

John W. McDevitt, administrative assistant in the State Budget Bureau for the past two years, has been named by the State Personnel Council to succeed Henry E. Hilton as State personnel director. He will take over the post early in December. Hilton resigned after organizing the State Personnel Department to take a position with the Dixie Furniture Co., Lexington.

McDevitt, native of Marshall, attended Mars Hill College, graduated from Western Carolina Teachers College and attended Cornell University. He taught in Madison County four years, was in the adult education program and then was in the business office of the college at Cullowhee. He was a Naval officer during World War II, commanding submarine chasers in the Pacific.

McDevitt stated: "I pledge my best efforts to carrying out the program of this department, looking to the best interests of the State employees and the citizens of North Carolina." This move is of interest to all ESC personnel.

News Letter Available

The University of North Carolina News Letter, published semi-monthly during the school year, is available to local office managers and others interested in North Carolina facts and figures upon request to Dr. S. H. Hobbs, Jr., editor. This publication is now in its 34th year and its file embraces one of the largest compilations of statistical data on North Carolina in existence.

She Held Out On Us

The recent note about Mrs. J. B. Spilman, Greenville, former ESC (UCC) commission member, former Greenville local office manager, etc., that she attended the Altrusa convention in Jacksonville, Fla., did not say she was a speaker, but she was. Moreover, she won as a door prize, a $40 French hat. Chic—that chick! Also, she spoke in Greenville yesterday on "U. S. Foreign Policy," and visits Edenton for another speech Friday.

Test Processing Employees

The Hendersonville office staff gave 64 tests last week to employees and prospective employees of the Skybrook Farms Processing Company, Hendersonville, a firm engaged in processing and freezing vegetables and fruits.

Management of the establishment requested that tests be given to present employees in order to help "weed out" those not suitable for the jobs, which require considerable skill in finger and manual dexterity. The firm has made arrangements with Manager Gardiner P. Bly to have all of its workers tested by and hired through the Hendersonville office.

Born

Thursday afternoon, November 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Bissett, of Kinston, a 6 lb. 7 oz. daughter, Louise Graves. Mother and daughter are doing nicely. Proud Papa Bissett, formerly of the Greenville office, survived the event and the resultant celebration after a few days and resumed his duties.

FREEDOM BEGINS AT HOME

Among the best things about North Carolina is that it is a grand place to work and live and play. One of the reasons for this fact is that North Carolina affords those personal freedoms that go with living in rural and uncongested urban areas... we are not pushed around by crowds and time tables. Generally speaking we are a tolerant people, respectful of the rights of others; law abiding and peace loving.

These characteristics probably explain why most of us prefer the present legal control of beer sales—after nearly two years, it still is working well, protecting your rights and remaining the only alternative to lawlessness and bootlegging.

Here's Savory Beef Stew and Economy, Too

A few left-overs can be quickly transformed into something special—Savory Beef Stew. To make it, combine left-over beef with vegetables in a flavorful brown gravy and serve on flaky hot rice.

Savory Beef Stew

- 5 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup cooked peas, 5 tablespoons flour, 1 cup diced cooked beef, 2 1/2 teaspoons meat paste, 1 package (1 1/2 cups) pre-cooked rice, 2 1/2 cups hot vegetable liquid and water, 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 cup sliced cooked carrots, 1/2 cup cooked small white onions, 1/2 teaspoon salt

Melt butter in saucepan. Add flour and stir until blended. Dissolve meat paste in hot vegetable liquid and water; add to flour mixture gradually. Bring slowly to a boil and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add cooked vegetables and meat; simmer 5 minutes. Meanwhile, combine pre-cooked rice, water, and salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes. Serve with the meat mixture. Makes 4 servings.

IDLE WILMINGTON SHIP YARD MAY RE-OPEN

sure—of the entire North Carolina congressional delegation may be the deciding factor in getting the drydock in operation at Wilmington. However, recent developments indicate that the Maritime Administration may be willing to lease a part of the Wilmington shipyard, and that will be the deciding factor.

In addition to bringing employment to between 300 and 400 persons, the drydock would augment the $5,000,000 State Port terminals and dock now being built at Wilmington under the recent bond issue. Development of a ship repair center there also would aid in the effort to get steel mills to locate in eastern North Carolina, since shipbuilding is a tremendous consumer of steel.
