

THE CHARLOTTE LABOR JOURNAL

AND DIXIE FARM NEWS

Published at Charlotte, North Carolina

OLDEST LABOR PUBLICATION IN THE TWO CAROLINAS

H. A. Stalls, Editor and Publisher W. M. Witter, Associate Editor

Entered as second-class mail matter September 11, 1931, at the Post Office at Charlotte, N. C., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Endorsed by Charlotte Typographical Union, No. 338, An Affiliate of Charlotte Central Labor Union and the North Carolina Federation of Labor.

The Labor Journal will not be responsible for the opinions of correspondents, but any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Labor Journal will be corrected when called to the attention of the publisher. Correspondence and Open Forum opinions solicited, but The Journal reserves the right to reject objectionable reading matter and advertising at all times.

Uncle Sam Says

How time flies. Just a few years back you were thrilled with the "ole swimmin' hole," ready to take a plunge into its cool, flowing waters. Maybe ten years from now you'll want to take another plunge such as buying a new home, a new car, a long vacation trip. These take money and where's it coming from. The smart people know the easy answer—U. S. Savings Bonds. Enroll now for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or if self-employed, the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank. You then save automatically and in 1960 your Savings Bonds will produce $4 for every $3 invested today.

Standards Act be retained and vigorously enforced; and that the act be further amended to restrict employment of children under 14 years of age on farms outside of school hours.

11. That an adequate program of education be developed for migratory workers and their children.

Sunday is when the exceptional man does half as much as he planned to do.

U. S. "PROFLIGATE" IN USE OF FARM LABOR, COMMISSION SAYS
for farm labor during the present emergency, if it is necessary to bring in labor, first preference should be given to U. S. citizens workers from Puerto Rico and Hawaii.
3. That responsibility for certifying the existence of domestic farm labor shortages be separated from the administrative responsibility for importation of foreign workers, the former to remain the function of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.
4. That legislation be enacted (a) making it unlawful to employ aliens illegally in the United States; (b) giving clear authority to the Immigration and Naturalization Service to enter places of agricultural employment to search for illegal aliens; and (c) setting statutory penalties for harboring, concealing or transporting illegal aliens.
5. That Federal laws be enacted to prohibit interstate recruitment by private recruitment agents except when such agents are licensed by the Department of Labor.
6. That agricultural workers be given legal assurance of their right to organize by extension of the Taft-Hartley Act to employees on farm with a specified minimum number of workers.
7. That minimum wage and unemployment compensation legislation be extended to migratory farm workers.
8. That Government assistance

SPRING
What lovely things Spring does bring;
It turns the meadows from brown to green
It puts a color to this old earth
And gives the world a brand new birth.
Spring is here and the flowers bloom
To give life to some sick one's room,
The birds are singing their sweet refrain
From the coast of Florida to the coast of Maine.
The people are happy, they shout and sing;
The children play and the church bells ring;
No ice, no snow, no sleet, no rain:
It is 'God working—'tis Spring again.
—Ralph Griffin.

in recruiting out-of-State and foreign migratory workers be denied until the State in which the workers are to be employed has set up minimum housing standards which meet those prescribed by the proposed Federal Committee.
9. That the Social Security and Public Health Acts be amended to provide matching grants to States for (a) general assistance, including medical care, provided that no needy person be excluded for lack of legal residence status; and (b) health programs and clinics for migratory labor.
10. That the 1949 Child Labor amendment to the Fair Labor
