

Vets Administration Should Be Informed

Veterans who are in training under the G. I. Bill should make certain when their training is completed or interrupted, that the Veterans Administration is informed of that fact, according to the VA. Otherwise the veteran will receive one or more subsistence checks for a period when he was not actually in training, and the checks will have to be returned.

A veteran is not entitled to subsistence allowances for any month in which he is not training. The veteran, as well as the school or college concerned or the on-job training establishment, should see to it that the VA is notified without any delay when a veteran's training is completed or interrupted, the VA said.

If a veteran receives a check for payment to which he is not entitled, it should be returned to the U. S. Treasury Department, rather than to the Veterans Administration. If the check is not returned, the VA is required to collect the overpayment.

Q. Does a veteran have to be honorably discharged to be awarded monetary benefits of VA?

A. Under existing laws, it is not necessary for a veteran to have an honorable discharge to be awarded benefits. However, it is necessary that he be discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Q. As a World War II veteran, will I have to pay a fee to have someone represent me in my claim for benefits for VA?

A. If you are represented by an official of an accredited service organization or the American Red Cross, there is no fee. If you are represented by a lawyer or agent who has been admitted to practice before VA, such attorney or agent is permitted to charge $10 in an original claim, or $2 in a claim for increased benefits.

Q. May I appear personally be-

This man specializes in selling advertising signs on a commission basis for labor halls.

He is a very smooth salesman and will promote all forms of letters of recommendation and credit. He then goes into his routine wherein he gets everything he can get and then leaves town.

Beware of this man and above all do not allow him the privilege of selling advertising for your labor hall.

Fraternalty yours,
C. B. BROWN, President
W. J. EVANS, Secretary.

fore the Rating Board in my own behalf?

A. Yes, but you must make a definite appointment to do so and be punctual if the hour of hearing has been designated.

bor. Ned Whitton, representing the contractors, is co-chairman with John Lovett of the Carpenters Apprentice group, while C. C. McGinnis for the employers and C. A. Lowman for the bricklayers are co-chairman of the bricklayers group. The carpenters are represented on the council by three members, while the bricklayers have two representatives on the council.

Mr. Patterson addressed a luncheon meeting of the Charlotte Construction and Building Trades on Friday, May 4, before leaving the city. He has had broad experience in apprenticeship training problems. Mr. Patterson was born in Wisconsin in 1898. His education was in that State, including high school at Baraboo, and the University of Wisconsin. In 1918 he volunteered for military service and was assigned to the Infantry Officers Training School at Camp Grant, Illinois. During summer sessions at the University of Wisconsin he completed graduate courses in labor economics, psychology and education, ending in 1933.

Mr. Patterson's experience in manpower supply and training was an ideal background for his present work. For more than three years he was Assistant Superintendent of the Milwaukee (Wisconsin) Employment Office; one and one-half years as Manager of Industrial Relations with Yates-American Machinery Company in Beloit, Wisconsin; two and one-half years as Assistant State Supervisor on Apprenticeship for the State of Wisconsin; and seven and one-half years as Director of Guidance and Placement, Milwaukee Vocational School. In 1934, he was appointed to head up a new agency encouraging employment of apprentices under the national Recovery Administration, and has been Director of the Bureau of Apprenticeship since its formation in 1934.

Mr. Patterson went abroad in 1936 to study foreign handling of apprenticeship and other types of industrial training. His observations have brought the broadest comprehensions of apprenticeship possibilities to the national agency. In 1948 he visited France, Italy, Greece and Switzerland, where he conferred with representatives of employers, labor and government regarding the economic situation, production capacity, skilled worker potential and training facilities. In Geneva he held conferences and interviews with officials of the International Labor Office to discuss methods of co-ordination and co-operation on apprenticeship programs.

Among the other positions held by Mr. Patterson were: Vice President, National Vocational Guidance Association in 1932; President of the Wisconsin Vocational Guidance Association, 1934; Vice President, Milwaukee Industrial and Educational Councilors Association, 1932; and Secretary, Wisconsin Industrial Relations Association, 1929-30. Mr. Patterson is a member of the American Apprenticeship Round Table, the American Vocational Association and the American Legion.

TOBIN LAUDS BUNCHE AS "GREAT AMERICAN"

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Dr. Ralph Bunche, director of the trusteeship division of the United Nations, received the Four Freedoms Award for 1951 at the annual dinner of the award committee at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel here April 11. The dinner, attended by seven hundred guests, was held on the sixth anniversary of the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt, who enunciated the doctrine of Four Freedoms.

Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin, who spoke at the dinner praised Dr. Bunche as a "great American and a great citizen of the world." He said that Dr. Bunche "embodies radiantly the fruits of the democratic tradition, which seeks to give all men, without reference to race, creed, or color, the fullest opportunity to develop their best selves."

Dr. Bunche is being honored, in part at least, Tobin said, "for his mediation of difficulties in Palestine. That was a historic performance in itself. But its significance is heightened by the fact that it was a Negro who brought Arabs and Jews to an understanding. There is something to lift the heart in that joider of backgrounds. It has a poetic justice all of its own. It shows the power of moral and intellectual values in a world deviled by racial, religious, and political rancor."

Dr. Bunche was chosen for the award after receiving an "overwhelming majority" of the 15,000 ballots cast in the award voting by a selected sampling of Americans.

When you see a Union Shop Card you know the firm which displays it pays Union wages and observes Union working conditions. Non-Union firms do not display the Shop Card. Look for it!

Union people owe a debt of co-operation and helpfulness to their brothers. If it were not for the other fellows in the Union, each man would stand alone. Then where would he be?

There is Nothing Finer than to Live in North Carolina

From the mountains to the seashore, North Carolinians are beginning to move outdoors. The Spring season opens strong in Asheville in May. State conventions of Civitans, Lions, K. of C., American Legion, Postmasters, Jaycees, Daughters of America and Industrial Safety Conference are all scheduled for that month.

Along with the beach resorts, fishing takes over now on the coast and it's time to renew your license for inland waters fishing. Best fishing days in May are from the 5th through the 20th—but every day is a good day in May in North Carolina.

Plenty of work and plenty of fun makes the ideal balance to good living here at home and, for refreshing relaxation anytime, most of us can enjoy a temperate glass of beer—sold under our ABC system of legal control that is working so well.
