LOCAL LABOR GETS WARNING FROM ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA

The following letter sent out by the St. Petersburg Florida Central Labor Union is self-explanatory. Local Labor organizations are advised to be on their guard.

Important Notice

Be on the lookout for RAYMOND MORREL PARKS, description as follows:
Age 46.
Complexion: Medium.
Hair: Light brown, very thin nearing bald.
Height 5 feet 10 1-2 inches.
Weight: 172 or heavier.

He is wanted by this central body for embezzling $600.00 plus bad checks of $200.00 and a personal note of $300.00. He is also wanted by many merchants here on bad check charges.

This man specializes in selling advertising signs on a commission basis for labor halls.

He is a very smooth salesman and will promote all forms of letters of recommendation and credit. He then goes into his routine wherein he gets everything he can get and then leaves town.

Beware of this man and above all do not allow him the privilege of selling advertising for your labor hall.

Fraternally yours,
C. B. BROWN, President
W. J. EVANS, Secretary.

COST-OF-LIVING INDEX

The official cost-of-living index for mid-April showed only a small increase over mid-March, the first indication that the sharp ten-month living cost spurt since the outbreak of war in Korea is dying down. Ewan Clague, Commissioner of Labor Statistics, forecast a period of at least temporary stability, although he would not make a prediction as to how long living costs may stay pegged.

Vets Administration Should Be Informed

Veterans who are in training under the G. I. Bill should make certain when their training is completed or interrupted, that the Veterans Administration is informed of that fact, according to the VA. Otherwise the veteran will receive one or more subsistence checks for a period when he was not actually in training, and the checks will have to be returned.

A veteran is not entitled to subsistence allowances for any month in which he is not training. The veteran, as well as the school or college concerned or the on-job training establishment, should see to it that the VA is notified without any delay when a veteran's training is completed or interrupted, the VA said.

If a veteran receives a check for payment to which he is not entitled, it should be returned to the U. S. Treasury Department, rather than to the Veterans Administration. If the check is not returned, the VA is required to collect the overpayment.

Q. Does a veteran have to be honorably discharged to be awarded monetary benefits of VA?
A. Under existing laws, it is not necessary for a veteran to have an honorable discharge to be awarded benefits. However, it is necessary that he be discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Q. As a World War II veteran, will I have to pay a fee to have someone represent me in my claim for benefits for VA?
A. If you are represented by an official of an accredited service organization or the American Red Cross, there is no fee. If you are represented by a lawyer or agent who has been admitted to practice before VA, such attorney or agent is permitted to charge $10 in an original claim, or $2 in a claim for increased benefits.

Q. May I appear personally before the Rating Board in my own behalf?
A. Yes, but you must make a definite appointment to do so and be punctual if the hour of hearing has been designated.

When you see a Union Shop Card you know the firm which displays it pays Union wages and observes Union working conditions. Non-Union firms do not display the Shop Card. Look for it!

Uncle Sam Says

July 4, 1950, will be a day long to remember. It's the day we celebrate Independence and it will also be the day when the Treasury Department turns over to your State an exact reproduction of the historic Liberty Bell, the bell which signaled political freedom for our new republic. And your Government offers you the way to individual independence—or freedom from financial worry—through the U. S. Savings Bonds program. The real way to celebrate future security is by enrolling for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or if self employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. U. S. Treasury Department

FREE PARKING

Hollywood, Cal. — Evidently some of the thousands of bees in the swarm which took over a parking sign near a grocery store could read. The sign said "Free Parking," and that's what they did.
