GWINN ASKS TAX CEILING

Rep. Ralph Gwinn (R., N. Y.) has teamed up with the notorious Committee for Constitutional Government (CCG) in a propaganda drive to get the Constitution amended so that no individual will pay more than 25 percent of his income in taxes.

This is known as the "millionaire's amendment."

The AFL has pointed out that this amendment would make the rich richer and the poor poorer. At one time 25 states had okayed the proposed change of the Constitution. Congress must call a convention to consider amending the Constitution if 32 states request it.

Repudiate Endorsement

But thanks to the AFL and other liberal groups, 11 states have repudiated their endorsement of the proposal. So only 14 states now are on record in favor of the amendment.

Who would gain the most from the "millionaire's amendment"? Answer: Big corporations and rich people.

The amendment would reduce corporate taxes by one half, from $24 billion to $12 billion.

When an individual dies, he has to leave from $75,000 to $100,000 before his estate is subject to Federal taxes. Gifts have to be about that large before Uncle Sam taxes them.

Would Help Rich

So all $600 million of the revenue the U. S. would lose from estate and gift taxes, if the "millionaire's amendment" should become law, would line the pockets of the rich.

Every time the taxes of the rich are reduced, the taxes of workingmen and women are increased.

Gwinn and the CCG are urging citizens to pressure Congress into putting the amendment over. CCG spent $572,019.99 for lobby fees during the first nine months of this year. So it has plenty of money to spend to distribute its propaganda.

The only way wage earners and other small- and medium-salaried person can make their wishes known is by talking and writing to their Senators and Representatives.

If Congressmen know how most people feel about this proposal that would make the rich richer and the poor poorer, they would think twice about it.

CHURCH OFFICIAL FLAYS McCARTHY

New York. — Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, New York State Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., lashed out at Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R., Wis.) December 7.

Bearing false witness, Dr. Blake told a luncheon meeting of armed forces chaplains, "is the whole point of McCarthyism, and I yield to no one in opposing communism."

He criticized attacks upon personal reputations and the use of Senatorial immunity in smearing individuals.

NAM CHIEF FOR TAFT, McCARTHY

William J. Grede, the new president of the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), said in an interview in New York, December 7, that:

1. He would like to see Sen. Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio) become the next President of the United States.

2. He believes Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R., Wis.) has "made a great contribution to the American idea."

But the new NAM president William Grede of Milwaukee, urged the end of price controls.

However great a happiness is, there is still one greater, which is that of being worthy of the happiness enjoyed—Stanislaus Leszcynski.

Why should you contribute $1 to Labor's League for Political Education (LLPE)?

That question can best be answered by reviewing facts brought out at Senate subcommittee hearing the week of November 26.

Sworn testimony before the Senate Subcommittee on Privileges and Elections shows that the campaign to reelect Sen. Robert Taft (R., Ohio) last year cost $1,907,509.61.

The campaign of Taft's opponent, Ohio State Auditor Joe Ferguson, cost only $107,004.94.

19 to 1

For every dollar spent for Ferguson's campaign $19 was spent on Taft's behalf.

What was true in Ohio last year was true in almost every other state where big political campaigns were carried on.

Reactionary anti-labor candidates had millions of dollars to spend. They used this money to confuse the voters.

Candidates supported by trade unionists had no money to prepare pamphlets and radio broadcasts telling their story to the people.

Hurts Chances for Funds

In his testimony before the Senate subcommittee Ferguson pointed out that once a candidate says he is for organized labor it is almost impossible for him to get campaign funds.

The only place a pro-labor candidate can get money is from voluntary contributions trade unionists make to groups like LLPE.

If as many trade unionists as possible give $1 to LLPE, pro-labor candidates will be able to tell their story to the people.

COMMITTEE HEADS

Georgia and South Carolina Senators head two committees. No other state delegation in the Senate has more than one chairman. Walter George (D., Ga.) heads the Finance group. Richard Russell (D., Ga.), Armed Services; Olin Johnston (D., S. C.) Post Office and Civil Service; and Burnet Maybank (D., S. C.) Banking and Currency.
