And welcome shouts announce to all the

A prince is born ; let all the nations

But now, at night, Judea's plains resound And echoing hills repeat to listening cars The first and last grand anthem ever heard

On earth, since the first morn when the stars Together sang, and Sons of God shouted for joy !

Again the Heavenly Host in concert sing :-"Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace, Good will toward men !" "This day to you is born In the city of David, A Saviour, Christ the Lord !"

The wondrous sounds, the yet more wondrous light

Pass suddenly away : in eager haste. With harrying feet the shepherds ran :

Wise men from eastern climes rich pres ents brought, And with low reverence laid them at th feet.

Of Judah's Prince, of Israel's promised King. Not in a palace found, in softest raiment clad. Nor yet in Shimham's humble Inn, but wrapped

In swaddling clothes, and in a manger laid. Hail, the Heaven-born Prince of Peace

Hail, the Son of Righteousness ! J. A. P.
