THE DEMOCRACY WASHINGTON

[illegible]
From the Washington Critic.
[illegible]
To the Father of Washington!
And Prince of C. S. R.
All Hail!
All hail confident firm
In the dog loops on
Therefore we cannot fear
To give him hail
Right to use fists, by thunder!
For that is the kind of a
Harpin we are,
And don't you forget it!
Bedokes his dukedom from
The Rest of New Orleans!
He takes his princeship
From the wrecks of party!
He takes an office seeker
By the nape of the neck and the
Omega of the trousers
And flies him down stairs!
He taps his Bourbon with
Milk and water in it
And takes things pretty
Much as they come!
He also takes the cake
Away from the voters
And gives it to the Mugwumps.
Which accounts for the color of
[illegible]
At Democratic Headquarters!
Over the fence is out,
But so far his fierceness is merely
