Father Time.

Above the world I sit and sail Moving on, moving on; The things I pass no more avail. They hade their years, decay and fall, While I keep moving on.

Down on the world I look and smile, Maying on, moving on ; The sevthe I hear stuites all the while Cuts as it may for good or guile, White I keep moving on;

tion the world I glance my eye, Making on, moving on; food decis mature, the hopeful try. The just alone shall never die, While I keep moving on.

Around the world I sit and roll; Moving on, moving one Rip mug fruits for sacred goal, Perfecting hopes of the dying son-While I keep moving on.

Beside the world I sit and hear, * Moving on, moving out Sounds of joy or s du sydrear, Tilling the space around the sphere, While I keep moving on.

Above, around all worlds I ride, Moving on, moving out Watching in all the swelling tide. Of human love and human pride, While I keep moving on:

When stars go out and worlds stand still, Alone Phymesting on, Obeying God's eternal will, I conve not when all else is still, But yet keep moving on.
