A color d man of this town said to us last Friday; "You gave it to the white Republicans this week. Give n to them again." He says be has no faith in white Republicans.

Why should a white man who puts himself with the negroes, and tells them he is working for them against the white people, expect to be treated differently from them?

We are opposed to negro-rule and that is what we are fighting against. We see no difference in the principles advocated by white Republicans and black Republicans. It is all against the white man.
