The End of the Way.

The following beautiful lines were written by a young woman in Nova Scotia, an invalid for many years with spinal disease, and a great sufferer, but in whom the grace of God is wonderfully manifested.

I'm sick with the dust and the heat, " George W. Sanderlin, of Wayne The rays of the sun beat upon me, The briars are wounding my feet;

But the city to which I am journeying Will more than my trials repay, All the toils of the road will seem nothing When I get to the end of the way.

There are so many hills to climb upward, I often am longing for rest; But He who appoints me my pathway Knows just what is needful and best; I know in His Word He has promised That my strength shall be as my day; county, Adjutant General; salary And the toils of the road will see n nothing ed. but happy, country home-a climate, soil, mineral resources, hour or two he was approached and "Yes, but she fell on them and When I get to the end of the way.

J. C. Birdsong , of Wake county, He loves me too well to forsake me, Or give me one trial too much; AllHis people have been dearly purchased And Satan can never claim such. By and by I shall seellim and praiseHim, In the city of unending day;

When I get to the end of the way. And the gates of the city appear,

And the beautiful songs of the angels, Float out on my listening ear; When all that now seems so mysterious Will be plain and clear as the day-Yes, the toils of the road will seem nothing

When I get to the end of the way. Though now I am footsore and weary I shall rest when I'm safely at home: I know I'll receive a glad welcome, For the Saviour Himself has said, Come! So when I am weary in body,

And sinking in spirit, I say All the toils of the road will seem n When I get to the end of the way.

There are cordials for those who are faint; There are robes that are whiter and purer Than any that fancy can paint;

The toils of the road will seem nothing When I get to the end of the way.
