PROOF OF MERIT.

READ WHAT EMINENT DOCTORS HAVE TO SAY.

Cures Diseases of the Liver.
I have used your vegetable preparation, Nolandine, and find it a valuable agent in the treatment of functional diseases of the liver—its action on that organ and secreting glands is equal to that of calomel and, to my mind, the only yet discovered substitute for this time-honored remedy.
It is, further, entirely free from constitutional effects too often observed from the use of mercurials; and in many cases where mercurials have been incautiously administered, I have witnessed the beneficial results of Nolandine in eliminating and modifying the most distressing after symptoms.

I cheerfully recommend a trial of Nolandine to the profession, believing that it will stand their test. Very truly yours, A. TREAT CLARKE, M. D.

Cures Dropsy of the Chest and Abdomen.
The very high character of the testimonials attesting the merits of your vegetable preparation Nolandine, induced me to make a test of your Nolandine prepar in a very desperate case of Hydrothorax (dropsy of the chest), combined with Ascites (dropsy of abdomen). The usual remedies known to our profession had been most skillfully administered without producing anticipated effects. The diseases yielded to the action of your Nolandine. I very gratefully state that my patient is now enjoying the blessings of a restoration to good health and now, four months since administering of your Nolandine, there is not a symptom of recurrence.
I know that I will incur the displeasure of the profession by departing from its usage, but your facts compel me to call the attention of my professional brethren to the valuable properties of your preparation and trust that prejudice will not deter them from its use.
I have found the action of your Nolandine on the liver and secretions more than equal to calomel, which is an additional recommendation. Very respectfully, A. G. JONES, M. D.

A General Tonic and Blood Purifier.
J. W. Johnston, Proprietor of Nolandine, during the last twelve months I have had frequent opportunities of testing the curative properties of your Vegetable Nolandine in the following diseases, and in not a single case did it fail to accomplish all that you claim for it:—Dyspepsia and other catarrhal affections of the stomach and bowels, catarrh of the bladder, of the kidneys and bladder, uterine catarrh and irregularities, malarial complications and habitual constipation; and as a general tonic and alterative I have found it very efficacious. Yours truly, JAS. A. GARRICK, M. D.

Kind Words from some of our lady-friends Mr. J. W. Johnston—Sir: I take pleasure in endorsing the above letter I send you from Mrs. Laroche. I want you to see how much good your medicine did for this poor family. I went to see them a number of times and found them in a deplorable condition. Mr. Laroche had to take five bottles of Nolandine before he began to improve; he then went steady-ly on until entirely restored to health. I have used Nolandine myself and members of my family have used it in every instance we have been greatly benefited by its use. I have distributed all I own so kindly gave me for the poor and have yet to hear of the first one say they were not benefited by its use. I am, very respectfully, Mrs. M. F. BAKER, President Ladies' City Mission, Richmond, Va.

[Below is an exact copy of Mrs. Laroche's letter. The woman, her heart filled with gratitude for all that your Nolandine did her family, named her home in California "Nolandine".]

J. W. Johnston—I feel it but just to recommnd your valuable medicine Nolandine, for any trouble caused by torpid liver, or constipation produced by morphine or any drug used to subdue pain. As a tonic for delicate females it is unsurpassed.
The above you are heartily welcome to use any way you deem best, and I will personally tell any one what it will do on application. Respectfully, Mrs. A. E. ANTHONY.

Mr. Jos. W. Johnston—Dear sir: I have used your Nolandine and would cheerfully recommend it as a valuable medicine for malarial diseases and for promoting appetite, and a splendid tonic. For use in relief of the pains consequent upon female weakness and irregularities I consider it without an equal. Respectfully, Mrs. L. M. BELL.

Give Us Men.

God give us men! A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;
Men whom the last of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office can not buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor—men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue, And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking.
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty, and in private thinking; For while the trekkers with their thumb-worn creeds,
Their large professions and their little deeds, Mingle in selfish strife, lo! freedom weeps, Wrong rules the land, and waiting Justice sleeps?

A Good Plan.

[Harnett Courier.]
We are often told, and we admit the truth of it, that we make a great mistake in changing our members in Congress so often, that about the time a member learns how to be a member, we stand him aside, and put in a new man. Now then if we have to learn a man how to be a member of Congress after electing him, suppose that we take a young man this time, and learn him and then let him stay, and thereby receive some of the benefits of Congress. Harnett has a young man that is a very apt scholar, will learn well and remember it after learning, and we can get him, to go if we all say so, and the first letter of his name is Dan Hugh McLean. He is a bright young man.

How It Happened.

[Youth's Companion.]
Mr. Spurgeon's sermons and addresses teem with anecdotes, which are usually such to the point. To his students last year he told a good story, to show the need of preachers being attractive.
"When I was in Arran quite recently," said he, "I heard of a minister who preached in a certain church, and at the close of the service was strongly urged by the elder to come again as the collection after his sermon had been unusually large.

"Dear me," said the minister, with becoming pride, "what might your ordinary collection amount to?"
"Last Sunday it was twopence ha'penny."
"What is it to-day then?" asked the minister, expecting to hear a large sum named.
"Eightpence ha'penny," was the reply.
"Woe is me!" groaned the minister inwardly, "for I gave the sixpence myself."

The mystery has been solved at last! All scientific men claim microbes are the cause of all disease, and it has been their work and study to get a medicine that would kill the microbes in the human system without injury to the patient. This has been accomplished by Radam's Microbe Killer, which is a scientific wonder in the medical world. For

From the Herald of Faith, St.
Louis, Missouri August 10, 1887.
Referring to Shallenberger's Antidote for Malaria, the business manager of the Herald of Faith would say, that he gave this medicine a personal trial, and was speedily cured of an unpleasant Intermittent Fever. He then recommended it to F. J. Tiefenbraun, 1915 Papin street, and to police officer Meidenger, at the Union Depot, both of whom were cured by it of chills and fever of several years' standing. Recently his wife, after a fever of several days' duration, took a single dose and was perfectly cured. In view of these remarkable cures, and remembering how much money is spent for quinine, so little to be depended upon, and often so injurious, we can only wish that Shallenberger's Antidote would come into general use.

ORGANIZATION.

DEMOCRATIC PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

The following is the plan of organization adopted by the State Democratic Committee for the guidance of the party:

TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION.
1. The unit of county organization shall be the township. In each township there shall be an executive committee, to consist of five active Democrats, who shall be elected by the Democratic voters of the same townships in meetings called by the county executive committee. And said committee so elected shall elect one of its members as chairman, who shall preside at all committee meetings.

2. The several township executive committees shall convene at the meetings of the several county conventions, or at any time and place that a majority of them may elect, and shall elect a county executive committee, to consist of not less than five members, one of whom shall be designated as chairman, who shall preside at all of said committee meetings.

3. In case there shall be a failure on the part of any township to elect its executive committee for the period of thirty days, the county executive committee shall appoint said committee from the Democratic voters of said township.

4. The members of the township committees shall elect to any vacancy occurring in said committee.

5. The County Executive Committee shall call all necessary county conventions by giving at least ten days' notice by public advertisement in three public places in each township, at the court house door, and in any Democratic newspaper that may be published in said county, requesting all Democrats of the county to meet in convention in their respective townships on a common day therein stated, which said day shall not be less than three days before the meeting of the county convention, for the purpose of electing their delegates to the county conventions.

Thereupon the conventions so held shall elect their delegates to represent the townships in the county conventions from the votes of the respective townships, which delegates, or such of them as shall attend, shall vote the full Democratic strength of their respective townships on all questions that may come before the said county convention. In case no convention shall be held in any township in pursuance of said call, or no election committee shall appoint such delegates.

6. Each township shall be entitled to cast in the County Convention one vote for every twenty-five Democratic votes, and one vote for fractions of fifteen Democratic votes cast by that township at the last preceding gubernatorial election: Provided, That every township shall be entitled to cast at least one vote, and each township may send as many delegates as it sees fit.

7. In cases where townships consist of more than one ward or precinct, each of said wards or precincts shall be entitled to send delegates to county conventions, and shall cast its proportionate part of its township's vote, based upon the last preceding vote for Governor in said township.

8. The chairman of township committees shall preside at all township conventions. In their absence any other member of said committee may preside.

9. In cases where all the township executive committees are required to meet for the purpose of electing a county executive committee, said meeting shall be deemed to have a quorum when a majority of such townships shall be represented in said meeting.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT CONVENTIONS.

1. The several county conventions shall be entitled to elect to their Senatorial, Judicial and Congressional Conventions one delegate and one alternate for every fifty Democratic votes, and one delegate for fractions over twenty-five Democratic votes cast at the last preceding gubernatorial election in their respective counties, and none but delegates or alternates so elected shall be entitled to seats in said conventions: Provided, That every county shall have at least one vote in each of said conventions.

2. The chairman, or in his absence any member of the county, senatorial, judicial and congressional committee, shall call to order their respective conventions and hold the chairmanship thereof until the convention shall elect its chairman.

3. The executive committees of the senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, respectively, shall, at the call of their respective chairmen, meet at same time and place in their respective districts, designated in said call. And it shall be their duty to appoint the time and place for holding conventions in their respective districts; and the chairmen of said respective committees shall immediately notify the chairmen of the different county executive committees of said appointment, and the said county executive committees shall forthwith call conventions of their respective counties in conformity to said notice, to send delegates to said respective district conventions.

STATE CONVENTIONS.

The State convention shall be composed of delegates appointed by the several county conventions. Each county shall be entitled to elect one delegate and one alternate for every one hundred and fifty Democratic votes, and one delegate for fractions over seventy-five Democratic votes cast therein at the last preceding gubernatorial election; and none but delegates so elected shall be entitled to seats in said convention, Provided, That any county shall have at least one vote in said convention.

GENERAL RULES.

1. Such delegates (alternates of absent delegates) as may be present at any Democratic Convention shall be allowed to cast the whole vote to which their township or county may be entitled.

2. In all conventions provided for by this system, after a vote is cast, there shall be no change in such vote until the final result of the ballot shall be announced by the chairman of said convention.

3. All Democratic executive committees shall have the power to fill any vacancies occurring in their respective bodies.

4. That the chairmen of the different county conventions shall certify the list of delegates and alternates to the different district and State conventions, and a certified list of said delegates and alternates to the State conventions shall be sent to the secretary of the State Central Committee.

A Discriminating Dog.

[Savannah News.]

A red nosed man was making his way up Alabama Street, Atlanta, heading for a bar-room, with a thin yellow dog affectionately following after him.
"Look at that dog," said Bailiff Nig Simpson. "That's a smart dog."
"Why?" was the natural question, there being nothing in the dog's appearance to indicate as much.
"Just watch, now. The dog follows that fellow into stores and houses, upstairs and down, through all sorts of weather, just like he's following him now. If that fellow ever gets drunk and falls off the bridge, the dog will fall off too. If the fellow ever gets run over by a train, the dog will too. But he won't go into that bar room. He knows a bar-room as well as I do, and you can't force him into one. He'll stay outside and wait, and you can nearly always locate that fellow by standing at the corner of Alabama and Prior and looking both ways till you see that dog in front of a bar-room, waiting. Now watch him."

The red-nosed man went on into the bar-room. The dog looked up sorrowfully at the windows, just as if he were reading the sign, and then settled himself disconsolately upon his haunches at the edge of the side walk. He gazed at the door in gloomy, mournful expectancy, never once taking his eyes away. He waited for fully ten minutes, and then when the man came out the dog resumed his place following at his heels.

TIRED OF THE NEGRO.

THE NORTH SEES HOW IT IS.
(New York Herald.)

It is extremely inexpedient for the republicans to pass a federal election law for several reasons:— 1. Such a law would certainly require federal troops to enforce it, and this would be undoubtedly very unpopular in the North. Nobody wants to return to the old reconstruction days and evils.

2. It would fling the whole South into turmoil and derange and prostrate industry in that part of the Union. That would inflict great and ruinous losses upon Northern capital invested in Southern industries, mines and manufactures, and upon thousands of Northern men now employed in the South and doing well.
Such losses would not be patiently borne in the North, but would undoubtedly create a strong revulsion against the party.

3. This country likes peace. The American people don't want to have their business disturbed by needless revolutionary politics. They resent disorder. Under Arthur and Cleveland all went well and peaceably; an era of good feeling between the sections continued for eight years, and in that time came that development of the South which has so profitably engaged Northern capital and enterprise.

It is not expedient for the republicans to disturb and destroy all this.
They may clamor about the negro, but the plain truth is the North has got tired of the negro. It has abundant evidence that he is well employed, well treated, is getting educated and acquiring property all over the South, and we are beginning to understand up here that he clamors only because he don't get offices, and his republican friends who clamor for him do not give him office when they have the power. It is not expedient for the party to de-range all the material growth of the South with a federal election law on that basis.

We say nothing here about right or constitutionality—these questions will come up in debate. The gentlemen who are pushing a federal election law are doing it because they believe it may help their party. We believe it would only help to ruin it.
We should not care much about that, but we do not like the thought of a measure which will, first of all, de-range and frustrate industry in the South and bring great and needless losses in the North.
We prefer peace and patience.
The negro is doing well—only he is getting no offices.
