WHAT THE DEMOGRAT REPORTER SEES AND HEARS ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE AND ELSEWHERE.

The March term of the Superior Court was opened here yesterday by Judge George H. B rown, of Washington, N. C. The charge to the grand jury while it was brief, is said by competent critics to have been clear, logical and concise. Judge Brown is one of the late judges has completed his new residence elected two years ago. By his affable math street on north side of 13th and pleasant manner upon the bench and his quick, impartial ruling, he has made a fine impression upon the people of the different districts where he has presided. The dockets for the term are quite arge, there being in all 185 cases, as folows: The civil is-ue docket, 120; the smmons docket 65, while the criminal docket is smaller than usual. There are a great meny presentments before the grand jury and it is thought they will consume the entire week in passing upon painfully injured his ankle. He will be
