Boy Character.

(Child's Paper.)

It is the greatest delusion in ILE JOHN D. COUPER, world for a boy to get the idea that his life is of no consequence, and that the character of it will not be noticed. A manly, truthful boy will shine like a star in any community. A .boy may posess as much of noble character as a man. He may so live the truth that there will be no discount on his word. And there are such noble christian boys; and wider and deeper than they are apt to think is their inflaence. They are the king boys among their fellows, having an immense influence for good, layed and respected because of the simple fact of living the truth.
