DEMOCRATIC MEETING. Every democrat in Scotland Neck township is requested to meet in Scotland Neck, Friday July 22nd at 5 o'clock, p. m. Business of importance. A. B. HILL, CHAIRMAN.

THE SOUTH. The 13-leaf of the Manufacturers' Record, contains the following sensible statements about the South: 'The factories of the South where judiciously located and conducted in a business like way, are paying larger profits than the factories of any section of the civilized world. The South suffers less from strikes and labor troubles than any industrial region. There are more opportunities opened and waiting for active, industrious young men in the South than anywhere else in the world. The fact that the recent low price of cotton did not precipitate universal bankruptcy in the South proves that the South's financial condition is stable beyond disturbance.'

Office of J. F. GREER, COUNTY JUDGE. GREEN COVE SPRINGS, CLAY CO., FLA., May 23d, 1891. Gentlemen: Twenty three years ago I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism, I was attended by the most eminent physicians in the land. I visited the great Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and the noted Hot Springs of Arkansas, and many other watering places, and always consulting with the local physician for directions; finally came to Florida ten years ago. About two years ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism, was confined to my room for twelve weeks and during the time I was induced to try P. P. P. (Pierick's Ash, Poke Root and Potassium) knowing that each ingredient was good for a particular part of the blood, after using two small bottles I was relieved; at four different times I have had slight attacks and I have each time taken two small bottles of P. P. P., and been relieved, and I consider it the best medicine of its kind. Respectfully, J. F. GREER.

RHEUMATISM. Is emphatically a blood disorder caused by inability of the kidneys to throw off the tam poisons which accumulate in the blood. P. P. P. very simple, quick and surely cures this disease neutralizing impurities in the blood. Experience and science both endorse P. P. P., as the only infallible blood purifier, known.

NOT THE SAME.

In the meeting of the county Alliance in Halifax last week, an effort was made to show up the Alliance and the third party to be one and the same. But the effort failed. Dr. Patterson, the president of the county Alliance, ruled out the effort to adopt the St. Louis platform. He said the Alliance was non-political and the question of adopting the St. Louis platform was not a proper one for the Alliance to consider. His decision was appealed from and the St. Louis platform was adopted over his head.

This brought about the split that will prove the death blow, we believe, to the Alliance in Halifax county. When the St. Louis platform was adopted, twenty-five of the sixty Alliancemen present took their hats and walked out. By this they declared that they could not take a position on the St. Louis platform; and the adoption of that platform by a majority of the Alliance means that a man can not now belong to the Alliance in Halifax county without endorsing the St. Louis platform and thus belonging to the third party. There are many good and true Alliancemen who will not endorse the St. Louis platform and so cannot longer affiliate with the county Alliance.

The twenty-five Alliancemen who withdrew upon the adoption of the St. Louis platform are democrats; and while they would, no doubt, greatly prefer to remain in affiliation with the order, and are deeply grieved at the necessity for their action in withdrawing, they see more in remaining true to democracy without any Alliance than they can see in mixing the Alliance and the third party together.

They are to be commended in acting according to their convictions in withdrawing from the order when it overstepped the bounds of the promises that were made when they joined it in good faith.

WILL COME AGAIN.

The silver bill has been downed again, but the Atlanta Constitution urges that it is not dead. It says the silver question will come up in Congress next session, and the next, and the next, until the people get the measure through as they want it. Meantime the Constitution suggests that the best thing to do now is to turn to and whip out the republican party. And this is good advice and a first rate resolution. Let democrats South and democrats North and democrats East and democrats West all touch shoulders in the great contest ahead and drive them from power with such irresistible force that they will not hope soon to return.

To every student of the times—to every one who studies with unbiased purpose—nothing can be plainer than that the republican party is responsible for the great burden of taxation and general depression that are resting upon the country. The tariff alone wings money enough from the laboring men of this country to soon give every laborer a sufficient surplus to double his chances for comfort and ease. The pension steals and trusts and the thousand other things that the Republican party encourages rest like a pall over the hovels of the laborers of the country. And they will continue to bear down with intolerable oppression as long as the Republican party shall dictate the policy of this government.

Then let us all say our hearts and hands to the work before us, elect the national democratic ticket, with two strong leaders at its head; elect our state ticket, with a solid phalanx of democracy; and the stroke that drives republicanism from power will also open the coming of the better days to all.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, LUCAS COUNTY. I, FRANK J. CHENEY, do hereby certify that J. F. GREER, Esq., being duly sworn, has deposited with me a certain book, the title of which is 'Pierick's Ash, Poke Root and Potassium', and that said book contains therein ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that can not be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE. FRANK J. CHENEY, Notary Public. HALL'S Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. NORFOLK TO BE A GREAT CITY.

IS A GREAT CITY NOW. Perhaps there is no city in the South which is making more rapid strides in improvement and which enjoys a more solid development than the city of Norfolk.

Her harbor is opened to the commerce of the world and her business interests touch every port and inland mart in the country. It is interesting to stand and watch the steamers and sailing vessels come into her harbor and pass out again laden with the articles of traffic that the great manufacturing sections send southward, and in turn bearing away the produce from the great truck and cotton fields of the South.

With the great facilities Norfolk has for handling the goods sent from many parts of the North to a very important section of the South, and of again handling the produce of some of the richest fields in the South, it is destined to be one of the greatest and most important southern cities. Indeed Norfolk is a great city now.

The two cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth, with their suburban population numbering nearly a hundred thousand souls; and with the increasing trade and activity in business in a thousand ways, Norfolk may be considered a great city now.

The health of the people is good. They enjoy the advantage of a salt-water breeze all the time, and the drainage of the city is good.

The people are kind, courteous and obliging and make whoever passes amongst them feel something of what is meant by Southern hospitality.

Life in Norfolk is certainly not a failure so far as the edibles go. All that land and sea can furnish makes the daily feast of those who sojourn in this grand city by the sea.

This article was intended to call attention to the good people of Norfolk who patronize the advertising columns of THE DEMOCRAT; so we dissent from saying anything further of Norfolk in general. The entire contents of this paper would not furnish sufficient space in which to tell all the good and pleasant things that might be said about the city and its good people.

OUR ADVERTISERS. THE DEMOCRAT always finds the business men of Norfolk liberal in their advertising patronage in North Carolina papers; and well may they be, for North Carolina, and especially Eastern Carolina, has furnished much of the trade and business that have made Norfolk a great city.

NOTTINGHAM & WRENCH. These gentlemen are clever and obliging and will furnish all kinds of coal at low prices and will give satisfaction as dealers in lumber and shingles. They do a great business and the people of Scotland Neck and Eastern Carolina generally can not find more courteous gentlemen to deal with.

MESS. WYNNIS & CO. As general commission merchants, we commend this firm to our readers. Mr. Wynnis is himself a North Carolinian from Murfreesboro, knows the people of Eastern Carolina, wants to do business with them, his handling of their produce will give them satisfaction.

E. L. POWELL & CO. These gentlemen wish to do business with the readers of THE DEMOCRAT. They make a specialty of handling flour in large quantities. We found no more clever persons on our recent trip to Norfolk than these gentlemen; and we are sure they treat their customers right.

JNO. O. GAMAGE. Mr. Gamage's name is not a strange one in our columns. He has advertised with us before and finds his dealings with the Scotland Neck people so pleasant and profitable that he still wishes to do business with them. He handles quantities of lime, plaster, brick, sewer pipe, &c., and we commend him to those of our readers who have business in his line.

KEED BROTHERS. These are young men of push and earnestness and attend to their business. They believe that advertising among strangers even pays. All who have staves and hard woods to ship will do well to patronize them. They are clever and are fair dealers.

WILLIAM FREEMAN. Do you know how pretty you are when you are asleep? Then call on Mr. Freeman, have your picture taken, hang it up at the foot of your bed and you can see. His gallery shows his work and it is good and cheap.

AT THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, July 18, '92. A goodly crowd of democratic Senators and Representatives will convene to New York to be present at the big demonstration, which is to accompany the formal notifying of Cleveland and Stevenson of their nomination.

Col. Oates, chairman of the House committee which went to Homestead to investigate the labor trouble at the Carnegie works, says the committee will make a report the latter part of this week of their visit to Homestead. It is not positively known what the nature of that report will be, but it is believed that the committee will take the ground that the strike of Carnegie's men is not a matter for Congressional interference, and that it will ask for authority to continue the investigation of the Pinkerton detective system during the recess.

Public opinion has upset one of the corrupt bargains by which John C. New secured the nomination of Mr. Harrison at Minneapolis. The nomination of the negro, William D. Cram, to be postmaster at Charleston, South Carolina, which he practically admitted to the Senate post-office committee was given him as the price of his vote for the nomination of Mr. Harrison, has been withdrawn, because republican members of that committee told Mr. Harrison that after Cram's statement and those of other and more reputable witnesses they would not vote for his confirmation. The South Carolina delegation in Congress did good work in bringing out facts in this disgraceful matter and sale of such an important Federal office, and not a few republican Senators were glad of the exposure, although they did not care to make it themselves.

Representative Bailey, of Texas, has been looking up precedents concerning the drawing of salary for the time they are absent by members of Congress. He says that previous to the war the law providing for a deduction of pay when members were absent from any other cause than sickness was strictly enforced, and he does not understand why it should constantly be violated now. He says one member of the present House has drawn $7,000 in salary and been present just three days, and he thinks that too high a rate of pay for any Congressman.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A special from Raleigh dated 16th says: To day the Railway Commission announces its assessment of the new lines built since June, 1891. The mileage and value per mile are as follows: Washington branch of Wilmington and Weldon road; 120.56 miles, $4,000 per mile; North Carolina Midland, thirteen miles, $2,500 per mile; Murfreesboro railway, six miles, $2,000 per mile; Winston railway, nine miles, $1,500 per mile; Albemarle and Raleigh branch of Wilmington and Weldon road, five miles, $4,000 per mile; Murphy branch of the Western North Carolina road, $2,000 per mile; Carolina branch of North Carolina road, three miles, $8,000 per mile; total mileage of new roads, 166; total value assessed, $604,000. Of the old lines forty-eight miles left of the Norfolk and Western road are assessed at $7,000 per mile, an increase in the assessed valuation of all the roads $1,000,000. Notice was officially received to day that the Richmond and Danville and other railways will furnish free transportation to all Confederate pensioners of this State on their way to and from the veterans' reunion and encampment at Asheville, August 16th to 20th inclusive.

QUESTIONS FOR MR. DIXON.

To those who are watching the course of Rev. Thos Dixon Jr., the answers to the following questions would be interesting reading just at this juncture: I. Whether he is a Democrat. II. Why he voted the straight Republican ticket in 1891. III. Whether he is in favor of the Force bill. IV. Whether he does not know that Democratic success above can prevent the enactment of such a measure. V. Whether he thinks that the Democrats can win without the vote of New York. VI. Whether he believes that they can win in New York without the aid of Tammany. VII. Why he is engaged in a crusade to destroy Tammany, on the eve of a presidential election, when a great economic question, involving the welfare of the toiling masses, is at stake, and when the rights and liberties of every Southern citizen are hanging in the balance. VIII. Why he has nothing to say against the re-entry of John T. Dixenport and T. C. Platt. IX. Why he called the Southern Baptist Convention, a "set of ecclesiastical asses," and remained silent when the Northern Methodist Conference denounced and reviled the South because of the lynching of negro ravishers. GEORGE G. GIBBARD.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

Benjamin Harrison is an active member of the Presbyterian church; William Reed was a Free-Soiler but went to the Episcopalian; Grover Cleveland attends the Presbyterian church and Adlai Stevenson is an active member of the Presbyterian church, and holds to the creed, "Turn the rascal out."

Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, writes to persons in North Carolina that he expects to be able to make five speeches in North Carolina. He expresses a wish to speak especially at Wilmington, Fayetteville and Charlotte. We have received the prospectus of the Normal and Industrial school for North Carolina. It is located at Greensboro and the first session will open September 28th. Any information desired can be had by applying to the President, C. D. McVey at Greensboro.

The latest important enterprise in North Carolina reported through the Manufacturers' Record, are: A $12,000 wood-working company at Durham; a $100,000 brick and tile manufacturing company at Charlotte.

It is reported that the Atlantic Coast Line authority will purchase the Hammond hotel at Rocky Mount. "The Academy," published at Salem, N. C., says that the prospects for the well known Salem Academy for the coming year are very fine.

The Roanoke Patron of Potomac which suspended some time ago, has been revived as the Patron and Gleaner, published by Mr. Andrew J. Conner, county Superintendent for Northampton county. The paper is published at Lenoir, N. C.

Wm. H. Bower has been nominated for Congress from the Eighth District to succeed Hon. W. H. H. Cowles.

Col. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, has recently made a donation to Davidson College. Col. Carr is a Methodist, but his liberality is not confined within denominational bounds. His field for usefulness is all of North Carolina, at least.

The central Democratic executive committee met in Raleigh last Thursday night and elected Robert H. Cowan of Pittsboro, secretary. Suitable resolutions were offered relative to the service of Mr. G. C. Beckwith who has been secretary for a long time, but could not again accept.

Miss Gertrude Jenkins of Salem has made quite a reputation as a stenographer. She took Rev. Thomas D. Burt's seminar at Morehead City and he is the most rapid speaker on the platform anywhere in this country.

Senator Vance will not take part in the State campaign this year. This will be something new in North Carolina, for it has never since an active campaign was made in North Carolina when Zeb Vance did not do big work. His health will not permit it.

Mr. Marion Butler, President of the State Farmers' Alliance, will support Cleveland and the entire democratic ticket, state and national.
