NEWSY 'GRAPHS. HERE AND ELSEWHERE—WISE AND OTHERWISE.

WE BEG INDULGENCE.—Our readers will doubtless find some irregularities in THE DEMOCRAT this week. We beg their indulgence until we can get straight in our new quarters. The tearing down and moving of a newspaper outfit is not child's play at all; and all irregularities are due to the unavoidable confusion in the office consequent upon moving.

ADDITIONAL FACTS.—Just as we went to press last week we learned the following additional facts concerning the late Stephen Andrews: He was born in Southampton county, Va., in 1826, and at the age of 22 moved to this county, where with the exception of a short time he resided until his death, pursuing the occupation of farming at which he was successful. He was twice married and left six sons. At the time of his death he was a member of his township school committee.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.—THE DEMOCRAT wishes to thank its correspondents for last year for their kind services in sending the news from their respective communities. They rendered us very great assistance in giving our readers the news.

MOVED TO TOWN.—Several families have moved to town this year, but THE DEMOCRAT does not know of all. Among those who have recently moved in we note Mess J. W. Leggett and G. C. Weeks. Mr. Leggett comes from Martin county. He is a good citizen, brings an interesting family and THE DEMOCRAT joins the public in welcoming Mr. Leggett and family to town. They are induced to come to get the benefit of the good schools here.

Special meeting.
A special meeting of The County Board of Education will be held in Halifax on Monday, 16th, inst. By order of the Chairman, W. H. Kitchin.
W. A. DANIEL, Sect'y.

Into new quarters.
THE DEMOCRAT has been fairly shaken up for a solid week trying to get into new quarters; and we are here, "right side up with care."
THE DEMOCRAT office is now in the upper rooms of the new brick building occupied last year by Lawrence and Edwards, just over the new quarters of E. T. Whitehead & Co.'s Drug Store.

Jurors for February and March.
The county commissioners, last week drew the following Jurors for February Inferior Court, third Monday in February and March Superior Court which convenes on March, 6th.

INFERIOR COURT.
R. J. Shields, H. W. Harris, W. S. Bobbitt, Lewis Pope, D. C. Finner, S. T. Vick, E. A. Cuthrell, Hassell Bell, Sterling Johnston, B. E. Bishop, L. E. Whitaker, E. Staton, J. H. Harrison, J. S. Debruble, J. L. Shields, W. H. Harrison, J. S. Minshew, Joshua Bell, C. E. Pope, B. D. Webb, Anthony Joanson, W. H. Bradley, T. F. Maguire, A. A. Hux, J. T. Leggett, H. C. Alston, F. H. Myrick, J. A. OUR PULPITS.

Sunday, January 7th.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
Services were held in the old Episcopal church Sunday and the rector preached from Matt. 2:2 "Saying Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east and are come to worship him." This star, led the wise men of the east to Christ, was not like the stars we see above us at night for it shone in the day as well as the night. It was a miracle sent to lead men to the Savior. When the wise men saw it they believed and sought Him. We will not have a star to lead us on, but God has furnished other ways and means, if we would but see and hear and heed; for Christ is a light, "a light unto the Gentiles" and God's will and ways, "whose ways are ways of pleasantness and whose paths are of peace," are revealed to us in the Bible, whose pure teaching we have only to follow and we will reach Christ just as surely as did the wise men of the east led by a star.

BAPTIST CHURCH.
The pastor did not preach a sermon but gave a review of the church's work for last year, including a statement of the present membership, the additions to the church and the various amounts of money raised during the year.

Death of Mrs. Spivey.
The following notices appeared in the (Greenwood, Miss) papers with a request that THE DEMOCRAT copy them:
"Mrs. Mary M. Spivey, beloved wife of J. T. Spivey, Esq. died Jan. 2nd, 1893, at 11 o'clock, a. m., aged 19 years 8 months and 14 days. With the sincerest sympathy we offer our condolence to the bereaved husband and mother and can only point them to Him who doeth all things for the best, and live so as to meet her in that happy home beyond the skies. The sweet little boy that is now without a mother should be a consolation to the stricken ones, and may cheer them in days to come."—Delta Flag.

"DIED—At her home in Greenwood, Miss., on January 2, 1893, Mrs. Mary M. Spivey, the wife of Mr. J. T. Spivey.
The sad death of this good woman casts a gloom over a large circle of friends, and leaves a loving husband, devoted mother and dependent babe, to suffer her untimely end—Just in the morning of womanhood with all of life before her, surrounded by kind friends, an indulgent husband and bright little family to be ruthlessly cut off, looks hard indeed. Why it happened, we do not know. Let us hope that it is for the best. To the sorrowing husband, the heart broken and dear little son, we can offer this consolation. Their loved one is at rest. She has passed into a realm through whose portals the pang of pain has never entered."—The Enterprise.
