| ADVERTISING IS TO BUSINESS WHAT STEAM IS TO Machinery,O | E. E. HILLIARD, Editor and Proprieto | | DENG "EXCELSIOR" IS OUR MOTTO | | AT. SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.00 | IF YOU ARE HUSTLER YOU WILL |
|---|---|--|---|---|---|--|
| | VOL. X. | SCOTLAND NECK, | N.C., THURSDAY, SE | PTEMBER 20, 1894. | NO. 42. | THAT CLASS OF READERS |
| Write up a nice advertisement about your business and insert it in | | Loss of Life by Forest Fires. | THE WONDERFUL SUN. | Winning a Husband. | riages, and the frail appearance and elastic motions of the sulky kept him | Wish your Advertisement |
| THE DEMOCRAT, | TAKE | Chicago Herald. | Actual Work Performed by Old Sol | Youth's Companion. | in constant terror. | TOREXCH |
| and you'll "see a change in business all around." | SIMMONS | It is almost impossible for people | in the Absorption of Water. | | Before he had gone far he gladly | is the class who read THE DEMOCRAT. |
| Production of the second se | R | who are not acquainted with the con- | | husbands by acting on the maxim that | | |
| PROFESSIONAL. | | ditions existing in the forest regions of | Philadelphia Record. | | who, being braver or less imaginative. | Still They Come. |
| R. W. O. McDOWELL, | | | | | got on famously. The sight of his comfort emboldened Mullen, and when | Virginian. |
| U I | | | | | his turn came again he claimed it and | "Hurnsh for North Carolins," says |
| Office North corner New Hotel, Main | | is reported by the fires which are sweep- | the actual work of lifting performed | knowing his weakness, had mixed a | soon found himself accustomed to the | |
| Street, | REGULATOR | ing over those localities. It is not | by the sun's rays in the absorption of | salad so artistically that he declared he | seat. | thus rejoices because there are now |
| SCOTLAND NECK, N. C. | | strange, therefore, that many persons | water through Atmosphere. He | could not live without eating another. | When they were several miles from | 177 cotton, woolen, spinning and knit- |
| Always at his office when not professionally engaged elsewhere. | | are disposed to question the correctness | said : "For many years past I have | The judge soon repented of his folly | the town Whedbee took a cross road | ting mills in that State and the "cry |
| professionarry engaged clear and 9 26 ly | And the best friend, that never | of reports stating that hundreds and | been much interested in matters relat- | in allowing his palate to control his | nomeward, leaving Mullen to go on | is, still they come." Bring the mills |
| | fails you, is Simmons Liver Regu- lator, (the Red Z)—that's what | thousands of lives have been lost in | ing to the composition of the atmos- | judgment when selecting a wife and | alone, and in a few minutes there came | to the cotton is the wise, sensible plan |
| N R. FRANK WHITEHEAD, | you hear at the mention of this | | | | the booming of cannon. It must be | says our contemporary. There are |
| Office North corner New Hotel, Main | excellent Liver medicine, and | | | | from the gunboats in the river, and | nmety-six counties in the State. But thirty seven have any mills of the |
| Street, | people should not be persuaded that anything else will do. | | | | Mullen began to feel uneasy. He had | kind referred to There are 702 mis- |
| SCOTLAND NECK, N. C. | It is the King of Liver Medi- | | | mented her husband that he would | no reason to expect any real trouble. | cellaneous mills and factories. The |
| Always found at his office when | | | | prolong the sessions of his court far | | Old North State is forging ahead and |
| not professionally engaged elsewhere. | | er they have done full justice to the | | | However, there was nothing to do | the Virginian believes that she de- |
| 7 6 1y | Liver, Kidneys and Bowels and | | | | but to go on. He seated himself | serves all the good that may come to |
| DP A C LIVERMON | gives new life to the whole sys- tem. This is the medicine you | | | | firmly in the gig, tightened the reins, | her. |
| DR. A. C. LIVERMON, | want. Sold by all Druggists in | | | | and dashed over the bridge and up the | |
| DENTIST. | Liquid, or in Powder to be taken | | | | main street of the town in the best | The liver when active is the |
| | dry or made into a tea. | come so general, and especially how the | | | style he could muster. | watch-dog of the system - the destroyer of germs and impuri- |
| OFFICE-Over J. D. Ray's store. | Has the Z Stamp in red on wrapper. | death list could reach such appalling | find that a rain fall of one inch in an | In his "Book about the Table," Mr. | "As I expected." he concludes, "the | tics. The truth is : ninety-nine out of every hundred diseases |
| Office hours from 9 to 1 o'clock ; 2 to 5 o'clock, p. m. 2 12 ly | | | | Jeafferson tells of a young London epi- | | begin with a sluggish liver. A |
| SCOTLAND NECK, N. C. | NOT A FAILURE. | | | cure who was won by a lady through | | to something serious. If you a |
| | (In marriage a failure?" the preacher | conditions existing in the localities vis- | | her excellence in making boiled cus- | | correct the liver you'll cure the cold. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pel- |
| DR. J. H. DANIEL, | "Is marriage a failure?" the preacher exclaimed, | | an amount of work equal to 220,000 | Three young ladies were staying at | coming home in the best style yet." | lets rouse the liver to vigor- ous action. After dinner, |

State Library

| DUNN, N. C. | tramed, | Lindertogram | by pumping engines giving a duty of | his mother's house. Knowing that | war was over and these hearty great | of these tiny, sugar-coated |
|---|---|--|---|---|--|--|
| Makes the disease of cancer a Specialty. | To puzzle morality scholars. | only industry. The entire population, | too ooo ooo fact nounds would require | they had productial reasons for wish- | war was over and those hearty gives | Pellets. Take them when you have wind or pain in |
| 9 10 ly | "Far from it " he added . "it's quite | except the lew tradesmen in the towns | 100,000,000 foot pounds would require | ing to many him he had a for | ings from a quondam foe went a long | stomach, giddiness, full- |
| | t'other way, I married a couple last night and to- | | the comsumption of 200 gross tons of | | | ness, loss of appetite, or when you suffer from cos- |
| NAVID BELL. | dav | | coal. I think this will help us to ap- | | | tiveness, indigestion, sick A |
| DAVID BELL, | | | preciate the immense amount of work | | | or bilious headaches. The makers take the risk |
| Attorney at Law. | lars." | | being done by the sun in storing up | | | of their benefiting you. If |
| | SUNDAY IN THE HIGHLANDS. | are all of wood. The roads and streets | our natural water supply. If the aver- | skill in cookery, the art he valued | | your money is refunded. |
| ENFIELD, N. C. | | are made of "slabs" and sawdust. The | age elevation of Philadelphia is 84 | above all others. | The devil probably loves a stingy | Can you ask more? |
| Practices in all the Courts of Hali- | "The most the house of God should | | feet, then we have 4,517 horse-power | | man. | |
| fax and adjoining counties and in the Supreme and Federal Courts. Claims | stand, | | developed for each square mile for a | | | and the second s |
| collected in all parts of the State. | And man should bend the knee Near by the hollow of his hand, | the fierce summer heat. has become as | rainfall run off in an hour. When | ery, led the girls to boast of their skill, | after it. | for an and the second |
| 3 8 1y | Will a star he helds the cos | dry as tinder. | these quantities are considered the | and then suggested that they should | Every good woman is a constaat re- | |
| | In gentler climes the peace of God | | wonder is that when we have such as | | | |
| W. A. DUNN, | Lies o'er his hely day, | In a word, the whole country closely | as that which caused the Johnstown | Each competitor should have the same | Trials may frighten, but they can | |
| | And things that move go velvet shod, And nature kneels to pray. | resembles a vast "tinder-box." The | as that which caused the connector | materials and opportunities and be | Triais may irighten, but they can | |
| A T T O R N E Y - A T - L A W. | | long drought which has prevailed this | flood the damage is not much greater | allowed a private room as her peculiar | | |
| SCOTLAND NECK, N. C. | On this stern coast, wind sea and sky Drive the wild war along, | year has rendered everything highly | | | God's laws are never kept until they | N N N N N N N N N N N N N N N N N N N |
| Practices wherever his services are | | inflammable. It has even converted the | Daht-Daving | kitchin. | are written in the heart. | |
| required. 2 13 ly | To hear the Sabbath song. | sawdust in the thoroughfares into a | Debt-Paying. | The proposal was merrily accepted, | | and the second sec |
| | And yet God's peace, white winged and | powder which will burn as readily al- | Winston Sentinel. | and it was also agreed that the young | | DR. H. O. HYATT'S SANATORIUM. |
| W. H. KITCHIN, | fair. | most as gunpowder. The water in | | man and his mother should act as ju- | The fact that enemies are loved is | KINSTON, N. C. |
| | Alights on this bleak spot— Sinking in souls the deeper where | many of the sloughs and swamps has | Much has been said and written and | | proof that Christ has been on earth. | Dep Diseases of the Eye and general |
| Attorney and Counselor at Law, | Wild nature knows it not. | in the stand democra of | printed, recently, apon the subject | | It is when the devil looks least like | Surgery, 6 21 ly |
| SCOTLAND NECK, N. C. | -St. John Vincent. | | of debt paying and sound and togethe | were produced, Fanny's was so clearly | | Surgerg. |
| EF Office : Corner Main and Elev- | | | THE THE THE TREET ONCION IN THE | | When you go to church to pray for a | Norfolk Commission Co., |
| enth Streets. 1 5 ly | Give the Boys a Chance. | | I sion-points made that have received | | revival don't wear shoes that squeak. | |
| and many strength in the second strength | | Sonditions almost marver that sponta | general commendation. We do not propose to antagonize the arguments | Three days later Fanny was engaged | | I. S. D. SAULS, Mangr., of Goldshore, |
| Joseph Christian. P. St. Geo. Barraud. | 4.7 | I nearly complished does not at once be | 5 Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y Y | | | |
| Joseph Christian. 1. Dir detr. Dire | Advocale. | | propose to antagonize the arguments | to the vonthful epicure, and three | | G. |
| Late judge Supreme) | Before you find fault with your boys | gin. | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- | to the youthtu epicure, and three | something the carnal mind can not ex- | Commission Merchants and |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why | gin. In a dry season like the present for- | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely | months later they were married. | something the carnal mind can not explain. | Commission Merchants and MERCHANDISE BROKERS. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we | months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct and see if you have | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we | months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES - The Bank of Com- |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW , Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thirst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES : The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thirst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW , Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- | to the youthin epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES :—The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 Iy |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 by RICHMOND, VA. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hot winds and the insufficiency of water re- | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe | to the youthin epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES :—The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 Iy |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4.5.1y RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hot winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it and it is for this class that we write | to the youthin epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victum of her artifice | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press. Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 Iy BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 1y RICHMOND, VA. 626 East Main Street., | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in beeping a family together as music. | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead forbear- | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and | something the carnal mind can not ex- plain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themsetves. One reason why people make crook- | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press. Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 1y BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 fy RICHMOND, VA. 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead forbear- ance. | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that L desire. They are | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themsetves. One reason why people make crooked of paths is because they keep looking | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 fy RICHMOND, VA. 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead forbear- ance | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victum of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press. Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 1y BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 1y RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hot winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead forbear- ance. During the hard times the great hurden of debt has made the step of | to the youthin epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet act termor. But what us to me failed | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themsetves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheam, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 1y RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hot winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me far more important they are incanable of | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themsetves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press. Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 1y RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. Gives personal and prompt attention o all consignments of Lumber, Shin- | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help- fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede it. | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me fat more important, they are incapable o | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce, 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES : The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press. Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 fy RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long as they earn it, and it will teach them | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hot winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede its progress. There is frequently no wate | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has sprinkled his head with the frosts of | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me far more important, they are incapable o artifice " | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. It is seldom that a man with big in- | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. FOR SALE BY E. T. WHITTE- |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 1y RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. Gives personal and prompt attention o all consignments of Lumber, Shin- les, Laths, &c. 4 17 90 ly | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long as they earn it, and it will teach them the uses of money—how to use it. | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede its progress. There is frequently no wate and almost always not enough wate | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has sprinkled his head with the frosts o trouble and has plowed upon his face | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me far more important, they are incapable of artifice." | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themsetves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. It is seldom that a man with big income is ever persecuted for righteous- | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. FOR SALE BY E. T. WHITTE- |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 1y RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. Gives personal and prompt attention o all consignments of Lumber, Shin- | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long as they earn it, and it will teach them the uses of money—how to use it, how to spend it judiciously, how to | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede its progress. There is frequently no wate and almost always not enough wate | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has sprinkled his head with the frosts o trouble and has plowed upon his face Don't be unmerciful to such an one | to the youththi epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me far more important, they are incapable of artifice." | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. It is seldom that a man with big income is ever persecuted for righteousnes' sake. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Romoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 1y BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fes- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. FOR SALE BY E. T. WHITE- HEAD & CO. TEASHY MEDICINES. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 ly RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long as they earn it, and it will teach them the uses of money—how to use it, how to spend it judiciously, how to | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede its progress. There is frequently no wate and almost always not enough wate | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has sprinkled his head with the frosts o trouble and has plowed upon his face Don't be unmerciful to such an one | to the youthful epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to turnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victum of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dean girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me fat more important, they are incapable of artifice." | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thust after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crook- ed paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. It is seldom that a man with big in- come is ever persecuted for righteous- ness' sake. Whenever the world comes face to | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce, 15 & 17 Roamoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va., T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fes- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. FOR SALE BY E. T. WHITE- HEAD & CO. TEASHY MEDICINES. |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 ly RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long as they earn it, and it will teach them the uses of money—how to use it, how to spend it judiciously, how to save it and what economy and frugal- | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acress consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede its progress. There is frequently no wate and almost always not enough wate with which to fight the flames. There is nothing for the people to do but to | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has sprinkled his head with the frosts o trouble and has plowed upon his face Don't be unmerciful to such an one Exercise the golden rule here. He is | to the youthful epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to turnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victum of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dear girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me far more important, they are incapable of artifice." When Johnny Came Driving Home Youth's Companion. | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pulpits. Hunger and thurst after righteousness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crooked paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. It is seldom that a man with big income is ever persecuted for righteousness' sake. Whenever the world comes face to face with unselfish love it has to stop | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va., T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C., E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. FOR SALE BY E. T. WHITE- HEAD & CO. TRASHY MEDICINES. Many such flood the flood the mar- ket. Botanic Blood Balm is a con- |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 1y RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. Gives personal and prompt attention o all consignments of Lumber, Shin- les, Laths, &c. 4 17 90 ly | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance : Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long as they earn it, and it will teach them the uses of money—how to use it, how to spend it judiciously, how to save it and what economy and frugal- ity mean. Many a child is first driver | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acres, consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede its progress. There is frequently no wate and almost always not enough wate with which to fight the flames. There is nothing for the people to do but to abandon their burning domiciles and | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has sprinkled his head with the frosts o trouble and has plowed upon his face Don't be unmerciful to such an one Exercise the golden rule here. He is anxious to pay and probably will pay | to the youthful epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to furnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victim of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dean girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me far more important, they are incapable of artifice." When Johnny Came Driving Home Youth's Companion. Among the "Southern Historica | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crook- ed paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. It is seldom that a man with big in- come is ever persecuted for righteous- ness' sake. Whenever the world comes face to face with unselfish love it has to stop and think. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce, 15 & 17 Roanake Dack, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va.; T. W. Dewey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C.; E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. FOR SALE BY E. T. WHITE- HEAD & CO. TRASHY MEDICINES. Many such flood the flood the mar- ket. Botanic Blood Balm is a con- scientiously compounded medicine, the |
| Late judge Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. CHRISTIAN & BARRAUD, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Will practice in all the Courts, State and Federal, in the city of Richmond. Office Room 10, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4 5 ly RICHMOND, VA. I. J. Mercer & Son., 626 East Main Street., RICHMOND VA. LUMBER COMMISSION MERCHANTS. | Before you find fault with your boys for their roving dispositions, why not look closely into your own conduct, and see if you have made home sufficiently attractive to them? You cannot have home loving sons and daughters unless you take pains to keep them. Provide books, amusements, subjects for thought and discussion. And if possible, plen- ty of music. Nothing is so effective in keeping a family together as music. There is another point, and one of great importance: Make some ar- rangement so that the youngsters can earn a little spending money of their own. It will not harm them so long as they earn it, and it will teach them the uses of money—how to use it, how to spend it judiciously, how to save it and what economy and frugal- ity mean. Many a child is first driver away from home by the desire to have | gin. In a dry season like the present for- est fires can not be prevented. The flames sweep over thousands of acress consuming everything in their path and creating volumes of dense smoke which settles over the whole country like a pall. The smoke, the dust, the depressing atmosphere, the dry, hol winds and the insufficiency of water re- duce many of the townspeople and vil- lagers to a condition of physical help fulness and misery even before the death-dealing flames invade their homes. When the fire attacks a town or a village there is no way to impede its progress. There is frequently no wate and almost always not enough wate with which to fight the flames. There is nothing for the people to do but to | used, but it occurs to us that the dis- sertations have been almost entirely from the creditor standpoint and we see danger in them, in that they may stimulate a disposition to oppress the honest debtor—the man that is in in debt by necessity is anxious to pay and will pay at the earliest possible moment. There is such a class, howev- er indisposed home may be to believe it, and it is for this class that we write today—for this class we plead torbear- ance. During the hard times the great burden of debt has made the step of many an honest man less clastic, has brought a stoop to his carriage, has sprinkled his head with the frosts o trouble and has plowed upon his face Don't be unmerciful to such an one Exercise the golden rule here. He is anxious to pay and probably will pay if he is given time, and will pay more | to the youthful epicure, and three months later they were married. About a year after the marriage it was discovered that in interval between the agreement for the tournament and the time for entering the lists Fanny had bribed the housekeeper with two sovereigns to turnish her with a half- pint of cream, in addition to the spec- ified materials. She made the victum of her artifice an excellent wife, nevertheless, and years after was heard to say, "My dean girls are all that I desire. They are clever, lively, lovely, and of the sweet est temper. But what is to me fat more important, they are incapable of artifice." When Johnny Came Driving Home Youth's Companion. Among the "Southern Historica Society Papers" is one by Mr. Jame | something the carnal mind can not explain. The sermons that do the most to save the world are not preached in pul- pits. Hunger and thurst after righteous- ness is sure evidence that the face is toward God. Some people are always blaming God for the troubles they bring upon themselves. One reason why people make crook- ed paths is because they keep looking back. The principal work of unbelief is to make a foundation of sand look like solid rock. It is seldom that a man with big in- come is ever persecuted for righteous- ness' sake. Whenever the world comes face to face with unselfish love it has to stop and think. | MERCHANDISE BROKERS. Fruits, Vegetables, and other Produce. 15 & 17 Roanoke Dock, Norfolk, Va. REFERENCES — The Bank of Com- merce, Norfolk, Va., T. W. Dowey, Cashier, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Berne, N. C., E. B. Borden, Press Bank of Wayne, Goldsboro, N. C. 4 12 ly BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. THE BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fe- ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Erup- tions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. FOR SALE BY E. T. WHITE- HEAD & CO. TRASHY MEDICINES. Many such flood the flood the mar- ket. Botanic Blood Balm is a con- |

