The Old Friend

And the best friend, that never fails you, is Simmons Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do.

A CURL OF GOLDEN HAIR.

Rules for the Journey of Life.

The following rules, from the papers of Dr. West, according to his memorandum, are thrown together as general waymarks in the journey of life:

Resolutions of Respect.

Adopted by St. Clements Sunday School, Ringwood, N. C. WHEREAS, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away," may we sincerely say, "Blessed be the name of the Lord," since He has seen proper to take unto the joys of His Kingdom, that which was His own.

The Discovery Saved his Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Dreggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live.

FARMER BOYS.

They Should be Proud of Their Calling.

THEY SHOULD STAY ON THE FARM.

Waldo F. Brown, in the Stockman and Farmer, has the following on "A Few Words With The Boys":

"I have rarely written to any particular class in the many years that I have contributed to your paper, but I wish in this to talk of and to the farm boys who are still on the farm, but perhaps debating whether to stay there or not.

Correct Brand.

A brand of whiskey is advertised, called "Horn of Plenty." Of this a temperance writer remarks that they have chosen the name wisely, for out of the thing designated shall come:

Plenty of poverty, plenty of pain, Plenty of loss, but never gain. Plenty of ill and wretched fame; Plenty of sorrow, plenty of shame. Plenty of broken hearts, hopes doomed and sealed.
