COMING AND GOING.

Folks You Know or May Know.

Mr. James A. Pittman went to Tarboro Thursday.

Mrs. McIlhenny went to Warrenton Thursday.

Mr. T. D. McKeithan of Tillery was here Monday.

Dr. A. C. Livermon went to Bertie Saturday to visit his mother.

Mr. W. W. Jones left Tuesday on a trip for the knitting mills.

Mr. M. D. Allbrook of Weldon spent Sunday here with his relatives.

Elder A. J. Moore filled his regular appointment at Kehukee church Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. R. T. Vann went to Raleigh Tuesday to attend a meeting of the Home Mission Board.

Mess. L. A. and W. Powell of Nash county are here visiting their sister, Mrs. Edmondson.

Miss Birdie Persons returned to her home in Louisburg last week, after an extended visit to Mrs. S. F. Dunn.

Mr. Parker of Goldsboro arrived Saturday to enter school in the male academy under Mess. Prince and Wilson.

Mr. B. A. Pope of Weldon is here this week hunting with Mr. J. P. Futrell. They brought in a good turkey Tuesday as spoils for one day.

Mr. J. H. Johnston who has been here for some time visiting his son, Mr. W. H. Johnston, went to Weldon Thursday to visit another son, Mr. J. J. Johnston.

Col. A. L. Smith, of Charlotte was here a few days ago. He remained only a day or so. His many friends here are always glad to see him. He keeps up with doings in this community by reading THE DEMOCRAT.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon E. Smith returned to Raleigh yesterday after spending the first week of the honey moon here with Mr. Smith's home people. The bride is a charming young lady and those who met her while here were much pleased with her.

Mr. TILLEY'S AD.—We call special attention to the advertisement of Mr. B. F. Tillery. He realizes that the increasing circulation of THE DEMOCRAT makes it a good medium for an advertiser. He is clever and reliable and his customers will always find him so. His ad. appears on our extra sheet this issue.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—Mr. Frayser the Richmond Photographer is still with us, and very busy giving entire satisfaction to all his patrons. If you wish a well executed photograph and correct likeness call on him at once, as we do not know how long he may remain in Scotland Neck.

MR. LEGGETT'S ACCIDENT.—Mr. W. H. Leggett who lives near Mullen's was chopping wood Tuesday when his ax struck his left foot and cut off all the toes on that foot except the "little toe." Dr. Frank Whitehead was sent for and after dressing the wound, he brought the severed toes to his office. THE DEMOCRAT is sorry to learn of Mr. Leggett's serious accident.

BIRTH-DAY DINNER.—Mr. Edwin Whitehead gave a dinner on Wednesday of last week. It was his 77th birthday. Four generations were there, himself, his son, his granddaughter and great-granddaughter. A number of friends of the neighborhood were present to enjoy the dinner with Mr. Whitehead. It is a matter of interest to note here that there are several persons in the community quite old. A colored man named Eli Pittman, who lives near Mr. Whitehead, is 90 years old and spent part of last year ditching. Mrs. Wiley Cherry, one of Mr. Whitehead's neighbors, is 83 years, and Capt. Aaron, who lives with Mr. W. W. Pope, is also 83 and in good spirits.

MR. J. HARPER ALEXANDER'S ACCIDENT.—A telegram from Chase City, Va., last week announced that Mr. J. H. Alexander had broken his leg. Dr. Ed. Shields went next morning. The Chase City correspondent to the Richmond Dispatch wrote under date of Jan. 16th: "Mr. J. Harper Alexander, who recently moved here from Scotland Neck, N. C., met with a painful and serious misfortune yesterday. While driving a spirited pair of horses they became unmanageable and ran away. Mr. Alexander leaped from the vehicle, falling on the frozen ground, and fracturing his thigh. Dr. H. L. Burwell was sent for and rendered prompt medical aid. While the injury is severe for one of his age, it will take some time for his recovery. Much sympathy is manifested for the worthy gentleman."

THE DEMOCRAT joins Mr. Alexander's many friends here in sympathy with him in his serious misfortune.

Charlie Took a Ride and Brought Back a Wife.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. Charlie Davenport left home for a drive with no apparently special serious intent. But there was such intent, known at least to himself and one more. He drove to Enfield where Miss Maggie Askew was visiting friends, and when he returned, Miss Maggie returned with him, not Miss Maggie, but Mrs. Davenport. Rev. Mr. McKaughan officiated in the ceremony that made Charlie and Miss Maggie husband and wife. It was a surprise to the home folks both of the bride and the groom. They are industrious and worthy and THE DEMOCRAT joins their friends in wishing them well for a long life together.

What Will Scotland Neck Do?

(Correspondence to THE DEMOCRAT.)

SALEM, MASS., Jan. 16, 1895.

Editor Democrat.

In visiting the different manufacturing centres in New England, I find that just at this time the largest cotton mills in the country are discussing the South as a place to manufacture cotton goods. The competition in this class of goods has become a serious consideration with them.

The climate in the South is decidedly preferable to this northern climate. The humidity in the atmosphere is a great factor in producing the desired results in the manufacture of cotton fibre. A better grade of goods can be made there and hence a better price realized.

Then the hundreds of thousands of tons of coal consumed here is another great consideration. Fall River, the city of spindles, and Lowell, another great manufacturing city, run more spindles than any other two cities in the United States.

The coal to run these plants is shipped, I might say, almost from the cotton belt. Think of the enormous freights by steamer to Boston and then by rail to the mills. Then the cotton has to be shipped here in the raw state, and when manufactured has to be shipped back to the South, West and Middle states to find its market.

Now, in consideration of these advantages to the South, and many more such as restrictive legislation, trades union, strikes, &c., the mill owners have decided to build mills in the South.

Within fifteen miles of where I now sit 1,000 men and women are parading the streets on a strike. Blood-shed and riot are expected hourly. Police can't control the mob, and there are calls for State troops. Such is the state of affairs now in Haverhill just out of Boston.

The mill owners have settled on no particular place in the South. They will go where they can get the best terms in regard to exemption from taxation and other advantages.

THE APPLICATION.

It seems to me if your business men in Scotland Neck would form an association, or Board of Trade, and correspond at once with the Boards of Trade in Lowell, Concord, Manchester and Fall River, you might induce some of those contemplating moving South to locate in Scotland Neck. The mill owners here all belong to the Boards of Trade.

I offer these suggestions to your people, knowing that the directors in the different mills here have met and have decided to build in the South this spring. I feel a great interest in my native State and the people among whom I was reared.

Yours truly,
THOS. J. EDWARDS.

Tillery Jottings.

The editor spent a day in Tillery last week. We found improvements since we stopped over there last. The North Carolina Lumber Company has put in electric lights and now the mills frequently run into the night. The electric lights are a great convenience and add much to the efficiency of the plant. The employees of the company in and around the mills number about one hundred. The output of the mill now is about forty thousand feet per day. The system which characterizes all the work is almost perfect. A daily tally sheet is made of all the purchases, output, shipments, and the like, and is sent to the New York office. The president of the company is thus kept posted in New York concerning the work at Tillery. The weekly pay roll for the employees is about $600. Mr. R. R. Cowles, the general manager, is clever and considerate. So are superintendant McKeithan and book-keeper McCracken.

The new ware-house will soon be completed when shipping facilities will be much greater there.

Mess. B. F. Tillery & Bro. have dissolved copartnership and Mr. B. F. Tillery will continue the business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cowles are getting comfortably settled in their elegant new home.

WELDON, N. C., Jan. 22, '95.

Right many people are going up to Raleigh now.

Mr. C. H. Fingar of Greenwich, R. I., says he will buy a lot here within a few days on which he will erect a large spoke and hub factory which will give employment to sixty or more people.

Mr. Fingar says Weldon has advantages superior to almost any town that he had ever visited.

Rev. Mr. J. R. Tillery of Garysburg, N. C., occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church here Sunday night, the pastor, Mr. Troy being indisposed.

Mrs. J. L. Ousby of Halifax spent several days here recently visiting her step-daughter, Mrs. R. P. Henry, who has been quite ill.

Mr. E. L. Travis is in Heford where he went Monday to represent the members of the Legislature elect from that country whose seats are being contested.

Rev. R. T. Troy left to-day for Raleigh. He will be absent a day or two.

RINWOOD, Jan. 22, '95.

There was quite a crowd in town Saturday. "The meadows" turned out en masse, either as witnesses or spectators in some trials before our magistrates for fighting during the Christmas holidays at Essex in the upper end of the county. It seemed that all hands got on a regular bender and old issue free negroes, white folks and all got into a regular melee with knives and rocks. When the atmosphere cleared up some had broken scalps, twisted fingers, &c., &c. So much for imbibing fighting whiskey.

Tobacco beds are being burned preparatory to putting in a large crop. Mr. L. Vinson has several parties coming in from Granville and Warren, and is building other barns and will have 50 or 60 acres. Mr. Bobbitt will have 50 acres; Mess. C. A. Williams, Jim Tyree for Mr. Simpson, and Mr. R. B. Bullock will plant largely, and all the small farmers will put in as much as possible.

Let all go to work with a vim, as I believe they will, and quit the cry of "hard times."

Surely we are ungrateful. We have the richest soil, the brightest sunshine, the broadest fields and bravest men and noblest women—withal the best country in the world. And why lie awake at night because we can't have money to waste as we used to have? We don't know what poverty is. Does any man, black or white, know a neighbor who didn't have a turkey or a big fat rooster for Christmas? Let us all leave off this hobby of "hard times," and with the poet,

"Let us then be up and doing
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."

ROBERSONVILLE, Jan. 22, '95.

Perhaps the most delightful of all the entertainments of the holidays was at the residence of Mrs. Grimes on Thursday of last week. There were assembled the beauty and chivalry of many counties. Business was joined with pleasure and resulted in a sum for the church. A large cake was the attraction. Pay down your ten cents and put a vote in the hat for the most beautiful, charming and popular young lady—and such a young one never saw. Just so long as a dime was available just so long was the ballot box stuffed. A fair count was had and Miss Olivia Hyman of Palmyra, a Halifax girl, took the cake, receiving 132 votes. If rumor is correct, some of our boys intend to have Miss Liv. make Martin county her home, provided she says so.

The holidays have been filled with pleasure and gayety. In addition to social gatherings, private entertainments and traveling leger-mains, a wedding or two has assisted in the general pleasures, to many, a breaking up of much monotony to a happy New Year.

And still another, Mr. John R. Whichard, on Wednesday night, leads to the altar where a nuptial bliss is perfected, Miss Carrie Brown. Everybody wishes them happiness and long life.

Many of our visiting young ladies have had a sad farewell, but there remain, as yet, the lovely daughter of Halifax, Miss Hyman, the vivacious and loquacious Miss Whichard, the business and affable Miss Cherry, the magnificent physique of Miss Bateman with her winsome smiles, which enchanted all, and the petite Miss Strickland.

Hardison & Co. are placing a very valuable pair of scales near their ware house. They can weigh from the smallest nickel to a ten ton mule.

Christian unity is not only found in the big cities but in the villages as was evidenced Sunday night, when the Rev. Mr. Cotten of the Methodist persuasion delivered a practical and logical sermon in the Christian church. The result was an addition of three to the latter.

THE NEW YEAR

Finds Hood's Sarsaparilla leading everything in the way of medicines in three important particulars, namely: Hood's Sarsaparilla has 1. The largest sale in the world. It accomplishes 2. The greatest cures in the world. 3. The largest Laboratory in the world.

What more can be said? Hood's Sarsaparilla has merit; is peculiar to itself, and most of all, Sarsaparilla cures. If you are sick, it is the medicine for you to take.

In Poor Health

means so much more than you imagine—serious and fatal diseases result from trifling ailments neglected. Don't play with Nature's greatest gift—health.

If you are feeling out of sorts, weak and generally exhausted, nervous, have no appetite and can't work, begin at once taking the most reliable strengthening medicine which is Brown's Iron Bitters. A few bottles cure—benefit comes from the very first dose—do not stain your teeth, and it is pleasant to take.

It Cures

Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver
Neuralgia, Troubles,
