Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues.

Take only the Genuine, which has on the wrapper the red Z Trade-mark and signature of J. H. ZIEHLIN & CO.

KEEP AT IT.

If you expect to conquer, in the battle of today, you will have to blow your trumpet in a firm and steady way.

The man that owns his acres is the man that plows all day; and the man that keeps a humping is the man that's here to stay.

But the man that advertises with a sort of sudden jerk is the man who blames the printer because it didn't work.

But the man that gets the business Uses Brady's printer's ink, Not a clatter and a sputter, But an ad that makes you think, And he plans his advertisements, And he plans his well bought stock Is as solid as a rock.

A Russian Superstition.

Selected.

Russians are noted for their superstitions and for the numerous legends they have handed down from father to son.

There are three distinct falls: The Horseshoe Fall—so called from its crescent shape—is by far the largest, and is in the direct course of the river.

The water flows on perpetually the same, full and clear; neither the snows of winter nor the evaporation of summer, neither rains nor drought materially affect it—excepting that about once in every seven years there is a gradual rise and fall, which is attributed to some undiscovered disturbance that affects Lake Erie.

"Of all the sights on this earth of ours which tourists travel to see," wrote Anthony Trollope, "I am inclined to give the palm to Niagara.

This wonderful cataract is 447 miles from New York, within a single day's journey, and is reached most directly by the New York Central and Hudson River Railway, of which it forms the western terminus.

A Household Treasurer.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use.

Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, not get a bottle now and get relief. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all Female Complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving strength and tone to the organs.

Large bottles only fifty cents at E. T. Whitehead & Co's Drug Store.

TREES THAT GIVE MILK.

They Are Discovered in South America by a Noted Traveler.

Dr. Spruce, the renowned South American traveler, mentions a tree, a member of the dogbane family, the juice of which is used as milk. On the bark being wounded the milk flows abundantly, and is of the consistency of cow's milk, of the purest white and sweet to the taste.

In Para a lofty tree, belonging to the star apple family, attaining a height of 100 feet, is used in a similar manner to the others mentioned. Incisions are made in the bark, and the milky juice flows out copiously about the consistency of thick cream, and if it were not for its taste, which is somewhat peculiar, could hardly be distinguished from it.

The Falls of Niagara.

The Niagara River extends from Lake Erie to Lake Ontario, a distance of 30 miles. It receives the waters of all the upper Lakes—Erie, St. Clair, Huron, Michigan and Ontario.

There are three distinct falls: The Horseshoe Fall—so called from its crescent shape—is by far the largest, and is in the direct course of the river. It is 2,000 feet wide and 154 feet high.

The water flows on perpetually the same, full and clear; neither the snows of winter nor the evaporation of summer, neither rains nor drought materially affect it—excepting that about once in every seven years there is a gradual rise and fall, which is attributed to some undiscovered disturbance that affects Lake Erie.

He Was Human.

In the Ransom's Bridge section of Nash county there lived in the forties an old gentleman—a minister—who thinking his days were drawing to a close called his two nearly grown sons to him and said: "Boys I know there is gold ore on the land I am going to leave you and to-morrow we will take pans and prospect for it."

The boys got a goose quill each and as the old gentleman would "pan" the dirt from the placer mines they would collect the few particles of gold that settled at the bottom of each pan, and at night on the third day they had prospected there were from one to two dollars in each quill, not enough to pay for working, as the three had been three days accumulating this much.

On the evening of the third day, as the old gentleman was washing the last pan of dirt in the branch with his back to the boys who stood near, he thus delivered himself: "Boys, I have thought for years there were rich 'diggings' on this plantation that will soon descend to you, but I now find it will not pay to work them and I thank God with my whole heart and soul that it is so.

What a South Carolina Farmer Did With Eight Plows.

A special to the Charleston News and Courier reports that Mr. Thornwell K. Cunningham, of Lancaster county, who runs eight plows, has to show as the result of last year's operations on his farm the following exhibits: 123 bales of cotton, weighing 450 pounds each, grown on ninety seven acres; 1,009 bushels of corn, 800 bushels of oats, 100 bushels of wheat grown on three acres; 500 gallons of syrup, a quantity of peas, potatoes and long forage and 2,000 pounds of pork, and all at a cost of not exceeding $150 for commercial fertilizers.

Mr. Cunningham boldly challenges "the whole Southern country" to match this record with the same working force at as low a cost for fertilizer.

Never go to bed with cold or damp feet. Never omit regular bathing, for unless the skin is in active condition the cold will close pores and favor congestion and other diseases.

Young blood leads the way to profit with poultry, as with other stock. It will be money in your pocket to kill off every hen over three years old.

CAST OUT, the disorders, diseases, and weakness peculiar to women—by the prompt action of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. A woman's beauty depends on her health—beauty in this case can be purchased.

The "Favorite Prescription" is a powerful, invigorating tonic, and a strengthening nerve to be used in all those distressing troubles which make woman's life miserable.
