NORTH CAROLINA AT LAST GETS DUE RECOGNITION FOR HEROISM IN WAR.

Officially Proclaimed First.

News & Observer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—A quarter of a century passed before the people of North Carolina, modest and shrinking in their matchless heroism, knew how much her sons contributed to the glory of the Southern cause. Most of the great officers came from other States, but it was North Carolina bravery that stood the shot and shell of the enemy, and yet, until the past few years, the Tar Heels themselves did not know how far they surpassed all their Southern States.

I have been intending to examine the official records in the War Record office here to furnish your readers with the facts. But while delaying for "a more convenient season" to secure the date, the New York Times, always accurate and fair (and I may add, of late, always enterprising) has given its readers the facts in much better shape than I could have hoped to do. The following article, in a recent issue of the Times will be read wherever the English language is spoken, and it will tell a story that will give to North Carolina the first place in American history:

NORTH CAROLINA AND THE CIVIL WAR.

"Though but little has been printed concerning the work of the War Department, yet this has been a tremendous task. Forty-nine volumes of nearly a thousand pages each, are completed, and furnish the most accurate history ever published of a nation's internecine war. The work has been impartially done. Besides the five Union officers employed, two Confederate Gen. officers have always been engaged in editing the war archives of the dead Confederacy.

"The most interesting feature of the work is an exhaustive compilation from official records of the casualties on both sides in the war. Here are facts, not opinions. It will be made plain, beyond all room for controversy, in this volume, that much of the hardest fighting of the war was between the army of the Potomac and the Army of Northern Virginia, and the figures in this volume will show that the infantry regiments from the eastern States did the hardest fighting in the Union Army. They also prove that the Confederacy succumbed by the exhaustion of Lee's army.

"The table of death and wounds that are given measure the actual fighting as nothing else can. One thing clearly shown is the overshadowing importance of the battles of Gettysburg and Chickamauga, the greatest battles of the Confederate and Union armies ever fought. The losses in these engagements prove how much fiercer was the fighting in these battles than it was before or ever was again between the two armies engaged during the war.

"The heroic valor of the North Carolina troops excites the highest admiration, and Pennsylvania, which lost more in killed and wounded, in proportion to the number of its troops, can well send greeting to North Carolina, whose soldiers at Gettysburg did the hardest fighting on the other side, over the happy reunion of the present year.

"This is the book of revelations as to both sides of the civil war. On the Confederate side North Carolina lost more soldiers killed than any other Southern State. The following was the total loss in killed and mortally wounded of several of the Southern States: North Carolina, $14,522; Virginia, 5,328; South Carolina, 2,187; Georgia, 5,553; Mississippi, 5,807; Louisiana, 9,714. North Carolina heads the list in the number that died of wounds and 20,602 of her son died of disease. North Carolina's military population in 1861 was 115,369, but she furnished 125,000 to the Confederate cause. The percentage of lost, killed and wounded was greater in the Confederate armies than in the Union armies. At Gettysburg the 26th North Carolina, of Pettigrew's brigade, went into action with over 800 men and lost 558 in killed and wounded. The 26th North Carolina had only 516 men left for duty when it went into Longstreet's assault on the third day, and on the following day but eighty were left. On the first day Capt. Tuttle's company went into action with three officers and eighty-four men. All of the officers and 83 of the men were killed or wounded. On the same day Company C, of the 11th North Carolina, lost two officers, and 34 out of 38 men killed or wounded. Captain Baird, of this company, and the four remaining men then went into what is called Pickett's Charge. The flag bearer was shot, and Capt. Baird brought out the flag himself. This was the percentage of the regimental brigade and division losses of the Confederate army.

Don't Write on Beech Trees.

Troy Times.

A novel piece of evidence was introduced recently in a breach of promise case in Bavaria. The defendant obstinately denied the charge and stated that his accuser had nothing to show to prove her statement. The latter, a buxom village maiden, asked one day to be permitted to bring in her evidence. The court granted her request and adjourned until 10 o'clock the next day. At the appointed time she was on hand, and upon the query of the judge where her evidence was she opened the door, and four lumbermen brought in a tree trunk, upon the bark of which her faithless adorer had meted both their initials within a flaming heart! She won her case.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

- Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?
- Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?
- Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?
- Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?
- Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel P. Fitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?
- Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, has issued exclusive right to Dr. Fitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?
- Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proved to be absolutely harmless?
- Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?
- Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.
