THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 19.0.

It is generally admitted that al classes of people throughout the country are in better condition than they have been for some years, and the pros pects for the future are also bright

This is true of Scotland Neck and community as well as of other communities. It is peculiarly true of our the place he left. farmers, and it is to these THE COM MONWEALTH wishes to offer some sugmands careful consideration; for the farmers, having pulled themselves out debt by dint of energy and economy, and now occupying a position some what of independence, owe it to themselves and their own interests to maintain this position of independence. Any unwise move on their part might drop them back where they have been for several years; and it is the impulse of every good citizen to hope and make effort that such shall not be the case. For, say what you may, the farmers are the mainspring of all our prosperity just here the farmers will be in great ... The price of cotton has been so much matter in planting largely in cotton to the exclusion of other crops.

their crops, and we believe that they will show great wisdom in doing so this year. From the good prices of cotton all over the country the tendency will be greatly to increase the acreage in cotton. This done by the farmsurely drop back much below what it has been this winter.

By reason of the low prices of tobacthe farmers to decrease the acreage, and this in turn will bring better prices in its tobacco acreage.

Also the good prices for peanuts may have a tendency to cause the farmers to increase that acreage, which again would have a tendency to bring down says that at Salem Saturday a serious the price.

probably fall a little in price for next season and tobacco will brobably rise a little, and peanuts will hold their own perhaps.

farmers not to lose the use of their tobacco barns already built; and if they have not diversified their crops heretofore, make a little experiment in tobacco in view of the chances for a little better prices, as we have tried to point

As we have already said, the situation with the farmers is somewhat a critical one, and they would do well to weigh it carefully and not depend too much on any one crop.

ASH YOUR DOCTOR!

Ask your physician this question, "What is the one great remedy for consumption?" He will answer, "Cod-liver oil." Nine out of ten will answer the same way.

Yet when persons have consumption they loathe all fatty foods, yet fat is necessary for their recovery and they cannot take plain codliver oil. The plain oil disturbs the stomach and takes away the appetite. The disagreeable fishy odor and taste make it almost unendurable. What is to be done?

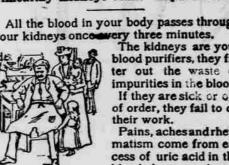

This question was answered when we first made
