

NEW WAY UNPLEASANT.

He Was Used to Holding Up a Bank When He Wanted Money—Old Methods Superceded.

When civilization reached Ping Hill City, a bank was established, and one of the first customers was old man Johnson. A few days later he wanted money, and entered the place with a gun in his hand, relates the Boston Globe.

"HARDENING" OF CHILDREN.

A Few Helpful Rules Given—All Results Apt to Follow Unwise Measures Sometimes Adopted.

Hecker is outspoken in his objections to the methods pursued in the so-called "hardening" of children by the means of cold douches or baths. As a rule, children thus treated are more susceptible to nasal catarrhs, throat affections, bronchitis and pulmonary inflammations than those who have not been subjected to the "hardening" process, says the New York Medical Record.

THE DEFECT IN THE RECORD.

English and French Rather Mixed in the Minutes of a Religious Conference.

At a Baptist convention recently held in the south the minutes of the first day were recorded by a man of calm and deliberate speech, while one of the speakers of the occasion was a quick-tempered gentleman named French.

Chestnut Pudding.

Boil one pint of the large Spanish chestnuts—remove the shells and thin skin—press through a sieve or put through the meat chopper. Cream one-half cup of butter with one-half cup of sugar, add to this the well-beaten yolks of three eggs, one cup of milk, one-half cup of bread crumbs, and the grated rind of one lemon.

Meat Balls.

One bowl finely chopped cold meat, one cup mashed potato, a little onion juice (scraped or grated onion), gravy or milk to moisten, season with salt and pepper to taste.—Boston Globe.

AN UNTIDY PRINCESS.

Caroline, Afterward the Queen of George IV. of England, Was Slovenly in the Extreme.

To be delicately clean in clothes and person is as much a matter of course to-day as it is the habit of wearing garments or shaking hands. That it was not always so, says London Modern Society, we were reminded a day or two since when perusing a letter of the first earl of Malmesbury, written when that astute diplomatist was sent to escort the Princess Caroline of Brunswick to England.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much.

No Cause to Complain.

"See here," remarked the guest to the new waiter, "there doesn't seem to be any soup on this menu card."

Afraid to Make a Mistake.

He—it is reported that you and I are engaged. She—"Didn't you deny it?"

Occupations and Color of Hair.

Dr. Bedloe has said that there is a distinct relation between man's pursuits and the color of his hair.

See Here.

"Oh, no, sir," replied the waiter, nervously. "I didn't spit it at this table—it was the one on the other side of the room."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y., on every bottle.
